From the Pastor

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

This Third Sunday of Easter introduces us to two disciples, Cleopas and a companion, on the road to Emmaus, a village about seven miles from Jerusalem, LK 24:13-35. Jesus comes upon the disciples in a disguised fashion and walks and talks with them as they recount the events of Holy Week with this apparent stranger. After Jesus explains the Scriptures to them, they approach Emmaus and then stop to break bread together, at which time they then recognize Jesus, whereupon He vanishes from their sight. The disciples then ask each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while He spoke to us on the way and opened the Scriptures to us?"v. 32.

Actually, the Emmaus encounter is a model of the liturgy itself. The first part is a Liturgy of the Word in which Jesus teaches them the Scriptures which applied to the suffering messiah. Then the second part of the encounter upon their arrival in Emmaus is the Liturgy of the Eucharist in which they recognize Jesus in the breaking of the bread. Do we listen with open minds to the teachings in the Scriptures for the Word the Lord has for us in every Mass? Do we receive the Eucharist with open spirits each time we approach the altar so that our hearts are burning within us? Let us seek the Risen Lord anew in every Mass in order to receive what the Lord has in store for those who love Him. Christ Jesus is risen and He is among us, alleluia, alleluia!

FIRST COMMUNIONS & CONFIRMATION

Please pray for all of our children who are receiving their 1st Holy Communion this Fri., April 24th at the 5:30 p.m. Mass and Sat., April 25th at the 10:00 a.m. Mass. Pray also for the Confirmation Candidates who will be confirmed by Archbishop Wester on Thursday, May 7th, at a 6:00 p.m. Mass, which will take the place of the 5:30 p.m. Mass that day. May the seeds of Eucharistic love and the Holy Spirit sown among our youth bear a great spiritual harvest in our midst with a renewed outpouring of grace. Come Lord Jesus and come Holy Spirit: enkindle the fire of your love in the hearts of our children and of all your faithful!

GOOD SHEPHERD COLLECTION

We give thanks for so good a Shepherd in Jesus and in response we will take up a special collection next weekend, April 25-26, for the Good Shepherd Center, where the Brothers of St. John of God minister to the poorest of the poor in our own city. The Brothers have a tremendous ministry of feeding the homeless in the center of Albuquerque. In addition to serving well over one hundred thousand meals annually, they provide tens of thousands of bed nights each year. Less well known is the Brothers' drug and alcohol rehabilitation program for men that is very effective for long-term recovery as well as their respite program for men recovering from illness. The Brothers also distribute thousands of items from clothes to blankets and beyond. Please support this vital service to the community and bring joy to the heart of the Good Shepherd!
