SOW MUCH LOVE (Small family farmers feed the world)

WHAT HAPPENED TO OUR SEEDS?

CANADIAN CATHOLIC ORGANIZATION FOR Development and Peace

The Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO) estimates that 75% of biodiversity has been lost because of the profound transformation of world food production. The corporate agriculture industry has begun to replace the immense diversity of farmers' seeds with industrial varieties which is creating highly homogeneous crops. This only increases the threat of hunger because it reduces the number of seeds that can resist disease and climate change. The gradual disappearance of seed diversity is a fundamental threat to the survival of small family farming and peasant agriculture, as practiced for thousands of years. Seeds should not be controlled by corporations! Whoever controls the seeds controls the food.

WITHOUT FAMILY FARMERS AND PEASANTS DOING THE LABOUR-INTENSIVE WORK OF PRESERVING OUR SEEDS, THE BIODIVERSITY OF OUR FOOD SUPPLY, AND THE FUTURE OF OUR FOOD IS AT STAKE.

Thirtieth Week of Ordinary Time

Justice and compassion are keys to loving, in the readings for the Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time. Exodus proclaims God's call that we act justly toward foreigners, and the most vulnerable among us: widows, orphans and the poor. Jesus says it most simply: "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. ...You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

Tuesday is the Feast of Saints Simon and Jude, Apostles, with its own special readings. Saturday is the Solemnity of All Saints, a joyful day to remember all of the men and women who have gone before us in life and are now in heaven.

The Gospel of Luke offers a glimpse of Jesus healing and teaching the people, even as he continues to clash with religious leaders. He cures the "bent woman" on a Sabbath and tells of the tiny mustard seed which develops to become a full grown bush. He repeats that it will not be easy to enter the Kingdom: "For behold, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last." He defies those who bring word of threats on his life and defies the silent Pharisees who watch as he cures a man on the Sabbath. Jesus encourages us to be humble: "For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

The Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time is replaced this year by the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed, also known as All Souls. The first reading from the Book of Wisdom tells us, "The souls of the just are in the hand of God." Psalm 23 offers us this response: "The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want." From the Letter to the Romans, "Hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts." John's Gospel offers us more hope: "For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have eternal life, and I shall raise him on the last day."
