Some November thoughts from Pope Francis' Homily for

All Souls Day

"It is lovely to think that it will be Jesus who will awaken us. Jesus himself revealed that the death of the body is like a sleep from which he awakens us. With this faith we stop - even spiritually - at the graves of our loved ones, those who have loved us and have done good deeds for us. But today we are called to remember everyone, even those who no one remembers. We remember the victims of war and violence; the many "little ones" of the world crushed by hunger and poverty. We remember the anonymous who rest in common graves. We remember our brothers and sisters killed because they are Christians; and those who sacrificed their lives to serve others. We especially entrust to the Lord, those who have left over the last year."

Please remember to inscribe names of deceased in Book of Life beside the Baptism Font.

Don't forget to get your tickets for the Gala Dinner & Auction to be held on December 4 at the Marconi Club. Call Linda Simonini at 705-945-7038, Connie Moore at 705-253-4594 or Lisa in the parish office 705-256-8474.

Have a great week.

Fr Hamish

SOW MUCH LOVE (Small family farmers feed the world) WHAT HAPPENED TO OUR SEEDS?

CANADIAN CATHOLIC ORGANIZATION FOR Development and Peace

The Canadian Organization of Catholic Bishops for Development and Peace whom most of us associate with Share Lent, also works for ecological justice, and are in year 4 of a 5 year plan focused on global hunger.

This year the fall campaign, "Sow Much Love", is focused on small-scale family farmers in the Global South and their rights to preserve, exchange and use their own seeds.

Multinational seed companies are gradually replacing the immense diversity of farmer seeds by industrial varieties, are obtaining an increasing number of patents on different seeds, and are threatening the ability of small scale farmers to produce the food required to feed their families and their communities. Without small scale family farmers who perform the labour intensive task of preserving seeds, the biodiversity and the future of our food is threatened. Whoever controls the seeds controls our food!

Development and Peace has prepared a petition that will be presented to our Members of Parliament across Canada and brought before the House of Commons to show our solidarity against these practices.

I invite you to consider being a part of this movement by signing the petition in St Anne's room and at the front entrance after mass today. Thank you for your valued support.

In the Community

You are invited to an ADVENT RETREAT sponsored by SHALOM PLACE on Dec. 6. Entitled BE EMPTY... BE FULL. This retreat day will focus on Mary, the mother of Jesus – how she became empty in letting go to the Divine call, thus becoming full of God's Life. What could this experience mean for me in my life? Come, listen, grow in peace. Saturday, December 6, 9 am to 3 pm St. Jerome's Parish Hall & Church. Suggested Offering: $40 or whatever you can afford. Facilitator: Sister Lea Joanisse, CSJ. Pre-register by calling 705-254-4690 or email shalomssm@shaw.ca

St. Mary's Catholic Church: All-You-Can-Eat-Breakfast Brunch on Sunday, November 16 from 10am-12:30pm in the Parish Hall. $8 for adults/$4 for children under 12 years/No charge for children 6 years and under.

Thirty-Second Week of Ordinary Time

Because it falls on a Sunday, the regular Sunday readings are replaced with the Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome. This feast celebrates not only the Cathedral of the Diocese of Rome, but the role the pope has always had as the bishop of Rome. John's Gospel is the story of Jesus driving out the moneychangers in the temple. "Take these out of here, and stop making my Father's house a marketplace."

Monday is the Memorial of Saint Leo the Great, Pope and Doctor of the Church. Tuesday is the Memorial of Saint Martin of Tours, Bishop. Wednesday is the Memorial of Saint Josaphat, Bishop and Martyr and Thursday the Memorial of Saint Frances Xavier Cabrini, Virgin.

The first readings this week are from the pastoral letters to Titus, Philemon, and the Second and Third Letter to John.

Continuing Luke's Gospel, we hear Jesus talk about scandal and about forgiveness. He calls us to "have faith the size of a mustard seed" in order to do extraordinary things in his name. Jesus tells us to be obedient to what God calls us to do and simply say, "we have done what we were obliged to do." We learn a lesson about gratitude when Jesus heals ten lepers and only one, "foreigner" returns to give thanks. Jesus tells the confrontational Pharisees that the Kingdom of God's coming can't be "seen" and it won't be announced. "For behold, the Kingdom of God is among you." "But first [the Son of Man] must suffer greatly and be rejected by this generation." All we can do is to be faithful: "Whoever seeks to preserve his life will lose it, but whoever loses it will save it." Finally, Jesus tells the parable "about the necessity for [his disciples] to pray always without becoming weary." God will give justice to those who call out to him with faith.

The Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time brings us the familiar and powerful parable from Matthew's Gospel about the servants who are each given sums of money to invest. We are all called upon to use the gifts we have received as gifts, and to return them, fully developed, having made the best use of them.
