Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ the King

November 23, 2014

Pastor's Pen

Christ came to serve, not to be served. As we end this Church calendar year and prepare to immerse ourselves in the reflective season of a new Advent, this Feast of Christ the King challenges and questions us as to how we live our faith—of raising up the poor and lowly—in every aspect of our lives?

The Centre for Social Justice and Good Works is central to the whole idea of the JOURNEY and GATHERING PLACE and how the Church lives out the call from Scripture and Tradition to empower people by giving priority to the needs of those who are poor. The Centre will provide service leadership skills to members of the community, especially our youth.

Thank you to Fr. Pat Woods for preaching this weekend and opening our eyes to the need for priests and religion in our time.

Still time to get tickets for the Gala and a gentle reminder that it is also a good time before year end to consider your gift to the Journey and take advantage of tax credits for charitable gifts.

The Shrine Tour Brochure is available on-line and in the office.

May this new Advent begin a year of Gods grace and favour on us and our Journey.

Peace

Fr Hamish

Thirty-Fourth Week of Ordinary Time

Sunday is the Thirty-Fourth or Last Sunday in Ordinary Time and the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ the King. Jesus tells the marvelous parable about how we will all be judged - as a shepherd separates sheep from goats, based upon our care for the poor: "Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me."

Monday is the Memorial of Saint Andrew Dũng-Lạc, Priest, and Companions, Martyrs.

The first reading all week is continues from the mystical Book of Revelation.

In this last week of Ordinary Time, we have readings from Luke's Gospel, which grow more explicit about the end time as Jesus and his disciples draw closer to Jerusalem. Jesus watches rich people make donations at the Temple but when a poor widow drops in two small coins he notes that her donation is far larger for "she, from her poverty, has offered her whole livelihood." He speaks of the end time, and cautions that many will claim to come in Jesus' name. "Do not follow them!" He says that the cost of following him may be high, and may lead to trials and divisions in families. But, he says, "By your perseverance you will secure your lives." In a dramatic look at the end time, Jesus says, "And then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory." Just as we know what the signs in nature tell us - fig trees in bloom announce the coming of summer - Jesus want us to be aware of the signs of the coming of the Kingdom: "when you see these things happening, know that the Kingdom of God is near." Finally, he tells us not to let our "hearts be drowsy" from drunkenness or anxiety but to be vigilant at all times and to pray for the strength we will need for the "tribulations that are imminent and to stand before the Son of Man."

Sunday is the beginning of a new liturgical year with the First Sunday of Advent. The first reading from the Prophet Isaiah as the people repent before God: "Would that you might meet us doing right, that we were mindful of you in our ways!" Mark's gospel offers the image of the master who leaves his servants in charge while he is away. Be watchful! Be alert!
