Tenth Week of Ordinary Time

June 7, 2015

Pastors Pen

Today is our Parish Feast – the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ. It's a good time to reflect on the blessings that we have been given as a Parish Community. We have inspiration from our history, we have dedicated men and women active in ministry, we have been blessed with the gifts of sisters and brothers from Blessed Sacrament and Our Lady of Mount Carmel and all of this anointed in the Saving Blood of Christ. We are thankful for all who have gone before us, our priests, the sisters, our benefactors and for one another.

For all that has been we say THANKS, to all that will be in God's love we say YES !!

Happy Feast,

Have a great week.

Fr. Hamish

Intentions of Parishioners

8:30 P.M.Indigenous Celebrations – Thank You

On behalf of the Diocese of Sault Ste Marie and the ARISE/DEBOUT coordinator/coordinatrice, please accept our heartfelt thanks for all those who contributed in their own way to the success of the Indigenous Celebrations in Sudbury, North Bay and Sault Ste Marie. Each celebration was unique to its region. This would not have happened without the vision of Bishop Plouffe and the generosity of the Elders who sat on the Planning Committees of each region. The Holy Spirit was at work in our Diocese on these three occasions. For those who may have missed the events, be aware that the intention is to make this an annual celebration.

Please check the Diocesan website to view pictures from the celebrations.

Tenth Week of Ordinary Time

Sunday is the Tenth Sunday of Ordinary Time. "If a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand."

Thursday is the Memorial of Saint Barnabas, Apostle. Friday is the Solemnity of Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, with its own special readings.

We begin a two-week cycle of readings from Paul's Second Letter to the Corinthians, as he confronts the challenges to this early Christian community.

We have ended our readings from Mark for this Liturgical Year and take up the Gospel of Matthew, which will be part of our readings until Advent. The week begins with the beloved teaching of the Beatitudes, found at the beginning of the Sermon on the Mount. The Kingdom of God belongs to the lowly, the peacemakers, those persecuted. These words are some of the most familiar of all the gospels. Jesus urges us to not hide our gifts under a bushel basket but to recognize that "you are the light of the world." Jesus transforms what the people had been taught. We are to go beyond not killing; we are to love our enemies. He tells us that he has "not come to abolish laws but to fulfill them." Jesus tells us that if we haven't forgiven someone, we should leave our offerings on the altar and go forgive those with whom we need reconciliation. He speaks about adultery saying, "If your right eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one of your members than to have your whole body thrown into Gehenna." By the end of the week, we hear Jesus encouraging us to live honestly, making elaborate promises and oaths unnecessary. "Let your 'Yes' mean 'Yes,' and your 'No' mean 'No,'" he says. The words we use are less important than the life we lead.

Sunday begins the Eleventh Week in Ordinary Time, when Jesus compares our faith to the mustard seed. Our faith, like that tiny seed, can grow large and put forth large branches touching those around us.
