PASTOR'S PEN

Greetings from Portugal! Our tour has taken us from Nice and Monaco to Lourdes. We were fortunate to leave Nice when we did as torrential rains drenched the area later that day. Lourdes was a slice of heaven, with candlelight procession, International mass and a totally prayerful atmosphere. Spain has been most interesting with tours of Madrid, Avila and Salamanca. Today, Thursday, we are en route to Fatima. Know you are held in prayer. With best wishes for a Happy Thanksgiving and the gift of gratitude.

Fr. Hamish

“ Warming of the climate system is unequivocal, and since the 1950’s, many of the observed changes are unprecedented over decades to millennia.

The atmosphere and the oceans have warmed, the amounts of snow and ice have diminished, sea level has risen, and concentrations of greenhouse gases have increased.

IPCC Assessment report summary 2013
The year 2015 could be historic. It may be the year in which the nations of the world finally agree to an equitable, practical and legally binding agreement on climate change--- or it may be , yet again, the year that they fail to do so.

Please say the prayer daily that we have included in this weekend’s bulletin so that we can “ Create a climate of change” for our worldly home.

For further information please visit www.devp.org or contact Jan Poulin-Zurawinski at 705 253-7536 or e mail jezurawinski@shaw.ca if you wish to help with the D&P parish activities. Have a blessed Thanksgiving.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY OCTOBER 18TH

Every Christian shares in the mission of the Church and should become involved in today's missionary work. Each Christian community must "pray that the Lord's message may spread quickly, and be received with honour" (2 Thessalonians 3.1) Parishes should take seriously their responsibility of all believers to spread the Gospel and consider inviting their communities to fast and pray this week for the missionary work of the people of God.

A growing understanding of the Church's mission will also encourage responsible giving to the national collection for World Mission Day (from which some of our Canadian dioceses still benefit).

Tuesday
October 13th at 7:00 PM
Bishop Jean-Louis Plouffe will be presiding at a special Eucharistic celebration.

Twenty-Eighth Week of Ordinary Time

The powerful story of the rich young man will be repeated in the gospel in the Twenty-eighth Sunday of Ordinary Time. He asks Jesus what he can do to inherit eternal life and already keeps the commandments. Jesus offers him the challenge of the gospel: "Go, sell what you have, and give to the poor ... then come, follow me." Mark's gospel tells us that the young man "went away sad, for he had many possessions." When Jesus tells his followers how hard it will be for a rich person to be saved they are astonished - and worried. They wondered how they could ever be saved. "All things are possible for God," was Jesus' response.

Thursday we remember Saint Teresa Avila, formally known as Teresa of Jesus, Virgin and Doctor of the Church. Saturday is the Memorial of Saint Ignatius of Antioch, Bishop and Martyr.

We begin reading Paul's Letter to the Romans for our first reading this week. After a powerful introduction, Paul writes this community in Rome about God's righteousness (mercy or kindness) and justification (making us holy or one with God) which comes to us, not through the law but through faith in Jesus.

Each day we move through Luke's gospel as people gather around Jesus. He declines to give a sign other than the sign of Jonah. At a Pharisee's house Jesus calls for authenticity: "give alms and everything will be clean for you." He challenges the religious practices of the Pharisees which miss the heart of fidelity to God and mercy toward others. Jesus tries to get them to see that, while they honor the prophets, they are no better than their ancestors who ignored and killed the prophets. Instead of hearing him, the religious leaders plot to trap Jesus. Warning his disciples about imitating religious hypocrisy, Jesus tells them not to be afraid, even of death, but to only fear losing their souls. Acknowledging Jesus is enough to save us. When we make our defense of our faith and way of life, the Holy Spirit will teach us what to say.

For the Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time we hear the story from Mark's Gospel about two of Jesus' closest friends, James and John, who want seats of honor in "the Kingdom" they envision for Jesus. We can almost see Jesus shake his head in dismay that they have missed his point once again. He does not let his disciples get sidetracked into jealousy but calls them together again to give them his message: "Whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many."
