PASTOR'S PEN

Thank you for following us on Facebook. The pilgrimage was a tremendous blessing for all who participated and we live with open hearts for the blessings to come.

So often we are people who instead of looking within we look somewhere else. My peace will be in another relationship, the cure will be with another doctor or in another place, a move will solve all my problems. On the pilgrimage we visited many special places and magnificent buildings. These buildings are all testaments to the faith and dedication of the local people, just as our local church is a testament to the faith and dedication of our ancestors and ourselves.

God calls each of us on a journey, not of thousands of miles – but a journey of about 18 inches – from the head to the heart.

We are the place where God dwells. We are the hands and feet of Christ.

The place of God's activity is within hearts and the time of God's activity is now.

Let's carry the spirit of thanksgiving with us as we open ourselves the presence of Christ in our lives – the present time and in this place.

As always, it is good to be home !

Fr. Hamish

WHAT YOU CAN DO TO CREATE A CLIMATE OF CHANGE!

Development and Peace's new campaign asks us to take action on climate change. There are many ways in which we can contribute to reducing the carbon emissions that are causing global temperatures to rise and are creating climate-related disasters such as droughts and typhoons. Even small changes in our everyday lives can make a big difference. Did you know that one bus replaces 50 cars on the road? Or that fruit produced locally will use 10-20% less gas in its transportation? By reducing our carbon emissions we are showing solidarity with the most poor and vulnerable in the Global South affected by climate change. To learn more about how you can Create a Climate of Change, visit devp.org/climateofchange.

Twenty-Eighth Week of Ordinary Time

For the Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time we hear the story from Mark's Gospel about two of Jesus' closest friends, James and John, who want seats of honor in "the Kingdom" they envision for Jesus. We can almost see Jesus shake his head in dismay that they have missed his point once again. He does not let his disciples get sidetracked into jealousy but calls them together again to give them his message: "Whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many."

Monday we remember Jesuit Saints John de Brébeuf and Isaac Jogues, Priests, and Companions, Martyrs.

We continue with the second of four weeks of weekday readings from Paul's Letter to the Romans. This is Paul's longest letter and was written from Greece as he prepared to visit Rome.

Our gospels continue with Luke's Gospel and multiple stories of Jesus exhorting us to be prepared, to beware of greed and that our "life does not consist of possessions." Jesus' mission is to bring peace and healing. We are to be prepared for the times our Lord comes to us. Much is expected of us who have been entrusted with so much. Jesus has come to set a fire among us, which will probably also place us at odds with others, even others we love. Yet, Jesus calls us to read the signs of our times and to make peace with our opponents if we can. We are being fertilized to bear fruit.

A vision of comfort and healing is offered for the Thirtieth Sunday of Ordinary Time. In Jeremiah, we see the Lord gathering "his people" - the blind, the lame and the helpless innocents, bringing them together to console and guide them. In Mark's Gospel, Bartimaeus, the blind beggar has the courage to beg for healing from Jesus. He is hushed by the crowd but continues to call loudly for Jesus, who hears him and heals him. "Go your way; your faith has saved you."
