PASTOR'S PEN

What is a Saint!

On this Feast of All Saints, I share some thoughts on sainthood and the universal call to holiness.

Saints are not freaks or exceptions. They are the standard operating model for human beings. In fact, in the biblical sense of the word, all believers are saints. "Sanctity" means holiness. All men, women and children, born or unborn, beautiful or ugly, straight or gay, are holy, for they bear the image of God.

There are only saved sinners and unsaved sinners. Thus holy does not mean "sinless" but "set-apart."

What is a saint? First of all, one who knows he is a sinner. A saint knows all the news, both the bad news of sin and the good news of salvation.

A saint knows the truth. A saint is a seer, one who sees what's there. A saint is a realist.

A saint is also an idealist. A saint embraces heroic suffering out of heroic love. A saint also embraces heroic joy.

A saint is a servant of Christ.

A saint marries God "for better or for worse, for richer or for poorer, in sickness and in health, till death." A saint is also so determined, so stubborn, that he will die before compromising the truth, and will write credo in the sand with his own blood as he dies.

A saint takes his hands off the steering wheel of his life and lets God steer.

A saint does not let others play God to him. A saint also does not play God to others.

We become saints not by thinking about it, and not (certainly) by writing about it, but simply by doing it.

Have a great week,

Fr. Hamish

ON THE ROAD TO COP 21

The United Nations Paris France Summit on climate negotiations (COP21) to be held in December 2015 are an opportunity to turn the tide on climate change. World leaders will meet with the goal of signing a binding treaty to tackle climate change and solve this urgent crisis. It is time for us to take action as individuals, as communities, and as a country, for the survival of people in the Global South, and for the survival of our planet.

How can you help?

Please take a moment to read and sign the Action Card in the bulletin and either mail it directly to our new Prime Minister .No stamp is necessary. You can also bring it next Sunday and place it in the Development and Peace box in St Anne's Room or at the Queen St. entrance. Let our voices be heard from Precious Blood Cathedral.

Thank you for your concern for our brothers and sisters in the Global South, and indeed for all of us who share this common home.

Thirty First Week of Ordinary Time

On the Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time, we celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints. From the Book of Revelation we read of “a great multitude” that stood before God. “These are the ones who have survived the time of great distress...” Matthew’s Gospel offers us the Beatitudes: simple words but challenging teachings.

Monday is the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Souls) and Wednesday is the Memorial of Saint Charles Borromeo, Bishop.

During the regular readings this week, we conclude a four-week series of first readings from Paul’s Letter to the Romans. He reminds us, “Who has known the mind of the Lord?”

In the Gospel according to Luke we see Jesus living out his daily life with challenging honesty. He calls us to extend an invitation out of our hearts, not with an eye on an invitation in return: “invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind.” Then Jesus tells the parable of the invited guests who made excuses to decline the invitation. He sends his servants to invite everyone. Jesus tells a crowd that they have to renounce their possessions to be his disciple and that to do something really important, we have to prepare and be ready. When the religious leaders complain, “This man welcomes sinners and eats with them,” Jesus tells parables of the man who finds his lost sheep and the woman with the lost coin, both of whom rejoice in finding what was lost. A steward protects himself by pardoning those who owe his master. We end the week with Jesus asking which is more important, God or money? “No servant can serve two masters.”

On the Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time, Mark’s Gospel has us listen to Jesus contrast a scribe (the professional interpreters of the law in his day) who enjoys honors for himself, with a poor widow who donates to the temple poor box the little she has. The woman’s generous heart must have moved him deeply.
