Ordinary Time Week 11

June 12, 2016

Pastor's Pen

In the gospel reading today we are given a wonderful experience of mercy. Jesus accepts the love offered from the woman, accepting her and loving her.

Sometimes I think we get it backwards. We tend to think we have to get rid of our sins and then turn into perfect people before God will love us. However, we are already loved by God, and we begin to change when we start to accept love and mercy from God and begin to realize who we really are. We must come to the realization that God loves us unconditionally.

As you enjoy these summer days and let the sun warm your face, allow the Lord to warm your heart with love and mercy. As the rain falls refreshing the earth, let it wash away your fear and nourish your heart with life giving water. As you gaze at the starry sky embrace the glory that awaits you.

Have a great week,
Fr. Hamish

Eleventh Week of Ordinary Time

On the Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time in Luke's Gospel we hear of the Pharisees who criticize Jesus for allowing a sinful woman to wash his feet. He tells them of two debtors who are forgiven. "Which of them will love him more?" Simon said in reply, "The one, I suppose, whose larger debt was forgiven." He said to him, "You have judged rightly."

Monday is the Memorial of Saint Anthony of Padua, Priest and Doctor of the Church.

The first readings this week continue our readings from 1 & 2 Kings and other Old Testament books. It follows Elijah and Elisha - powerful prophet and agents of God's word for the people.

The gospels this week continue the Sermon on the Mount, from Matthew's Gospel. In revealing his new and deeper way, Jesus shares a most counter-cultural law, "offer no resistance to one who is evil." And, he tells us to "Give to the one who asks of you, and do not turn your back on one who wants to borrow." He proclaims, "I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you. ... For if you love those who love you, what recompense will you have?" And, just when we think he is asking the impossible of us, he goes even further, "So be perfect, just as your heavenly Father is perfect." He warns his disciples against hypocrisy, "Take care not to perform righteous deeds in order that people may see them." Praying and fasting have their own reward from the Lord. Jesus tells us to keep our prayer simple, "Your Father knows what you need before you ask him," and he teaches us the Our Father. Jesus tells us that "The lamp of the body is the eye. If your eye is sound, your whole body will be filled with light." The week ends with his invitation to us to trust in God. "Can any of you by worrying add a single moment to your life-span?"

On the Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time, we have Luke's Gospel with powerful words of sacrifice and focus for our lives: "If anyone wishes to come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will save it."
