Jesus said to him, "If you wish to be perfect, go, sell what you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me." When the your man heard this statement, he went away sad, for he had many possessions.

Reminder

If you know of someone who is ill or in hospital please contact Paula Smith and she will ensure that a card or a call is made to that member. Sometimes we forget that a simple gesture can put a smile on faces of those who feel alone and neglected. Her number is 705-946-5843

Also if you know of a member who is celebrating a milestone birthday please contact our CWL president Gerri Chateau at 705-759-4698 and she will advise the National Office to have it inserted in the League Magazine. The next deadline to have something submitted in time is November 15, 2016 and this will appear in the spring 2017 League Magazine.

Prayers

We pray for all those who are ill or who have lost a loved one this past month.

Twentieth Week of Ordinary Time

Sunday is the Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus says, "I have come to set the earth on fire." He warns us that the divisions we see, even in our own families, are too often caused by the choices people make about his mission.

Monday is the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, with its own special readings. Saturday we remember Saint Bernard, Abbot and Doctor of the Church.

We continue reading from the Book of the Prophet Ezekiel. We are treated to some of the best of Ezekiel's prophesy this week. He is sharp and biting in his calls for conversion and comforting in his prophesy about God's fidelity and mercy, especially in the field of dry bones that come to life.

Matthew's Gospel this week includes some favorite parables, like the rich young man and introduces the counter-cultural idea that riches may make it more difficult to be saved. Those are followed by stories of the Master of the vineyard who leaves us with the phrase "The last will be first and the first, last." Jesus tells the parable of the landowner who hires workers throughout the day, including the last hours. When he pays them all the same, those who worked all day grumbled. "Are you envious because I am generous?" He offers the parable of the guests who are too busy to attend the wedding feast of the king's son. On Friday Jesus tells us to love our neighbors as ourselves. Saturday, Jesus says, "Whoever exalts himself will be humbled; but whoever humbles himself will be exalted."

On the Twenty-First Sunday of Ordinary Time Jesus cautions us about the difficulty of the Christian life, saying many will be unable to "enter through the narrow gate." Jesus indicates it is those we do not expect who will be the first in the Kingdom: "Some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last."
