Knights of Columbus 11608

K of C Council 11608 : Our first meeting of the 2016-2017 season will be held on Tuesday, Sept. 20th in the upstairs of the Sacred Heart Convent beginning at 7 p.m.

There will be many items on the agenda to be discussed, especially events for the forthcoming year. Please bring any ideas forth for discussion. Voice your opinions where you feel it will improve the betterment of our Council. No comments or questions will be considered irrelevant. All ideas are important.

The Executive Meeting will be held on Sept. 20th commencing at 6 p.m. All Executive members are encouraged to attend.

Origin of the Knights of Columbus

In 1882 the state government of Connecticut granted a charter to St. Mary's Catholic Church in New Haven, Connecticut creating the First Knights of Columbus Council. The original Council consisted of its founder Father Michael McGivney and 22 men.

Snowflake Bazaar

It is never too early to start planning for our Bazaar that will be held in November. We welcome any ideas and of course, any items that can be used for this great event. We know that all knitted and crochet items donated will be amazing. Of course this includes all the fabulous bakers we have in our parish, the display of different items is remarkable. More info will follow after our general meeting on September 13th. Thank you all for making this event a huge success.

May Our Lady of Good Counsel Bless all of you.

Twenty-Fifth Week of Ordinary Time

On the Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time we hear Jesus tell his disciples about his passion, death and resurrection a second time. It is clear to him that they didn't understand the first time. He knew that, along the way, they had been arguing about who was the greatest. He gathers the Apostles and says to them, "If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all."

Monday is the Feast of Saint Matthew, Apostle and evangelist, with its own special readings. Wednesday is the Memorial of Saint Pius of Pietrelcina, Priest.

The first reading this week comes from the Book of Ezra, one of the first chroniclers of the post-exile period of Judaism. He is responsible for helping hold the restored people together. We finish the week with brief selections from the prophets Haggai and Zechariah, who were prophets during this period. "Consider your ways!" "My spirit continues in your midst; do not fear!"

In Luke's Gospel, Jesus urges us to use our gifts: "No one lights a lamp and hides it under a bushel basket." When his family comes looking for him, Jesus uses the occasion to tell us that we are family to him, if we hear his Word and act on it. He encourages his Apostles to freedom, sending them out to teach and heal, taking nothing with them. Herod is wondering who Jesus really is. Jesus asks his disciples who they think he is. Peter replies for them all, "The Christ of God." Jesus doesn't want them to announce he's the type of Messiah they were looking for. Instead, he tells them of his upcoming passion and death.

On the Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time Jesus tells his disciples not to worry about someone driving out evil in his name. He warns about giving scandal, especially to children and calls for a radical avoidance of evil. We are to separate ourselves from it and choose to turn away from sin and its sources as radically as if to cut off our hand or pluck out our eye. It's about life itself.
