Development and Peace Caritas Canada

Women are creating a future filled with hope in Syria.

This week, open your heart to the reality of women living in a country at war. Listen to the voice of Hannan, a Syrian woman who tells us how our partner's training centres are helping to change the female workforce and the financial autonomy of women in her region "Through the training course, I personally evolved a lot as a person. Today I dream of teaching sewing and running a learning centre."

Thanks to your support during Share Lent this year, 280 Syrians will have access to an 11 week training course in sewing and psychosocial services!

Next week is Solidarity Sunday and the Share Lent collection will take place. Please be as generous as you are able.

The Fourth Week of Lent

The Fourth Sunday of Lent brings the story of the man born blind from John's Gospel. His disciples ask, "Who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?" Jesus heals the man who now sees more clearly than the Pharisees the true identity of Jesus. "I do believe, Lord."

The first readings this week can be read as powerful messages to us from our God about our Lenten journey. They also seem to be chosen with an eye to the persecution Jesus will experience.

Our gospels this week are all from the Fourth Gospel. After two days of healing stories, the opposition against Jesus builds. In Cana, in Galilee, Jesus heals the son of a royal official. Back down in Jerusalem, he heals a man who was sick for 38 years, incurring the wrath of his enemies because he did it on the sabbath. Because of this, and because he called God his Father, they now plot a way to kill him. Jesus says his opponents do not want to come to him for life. Unafraid of them, Jesus goes to Jerusalem for a feast and openly tells people that he has come from God. They did not arrest him then, "because his hour had not yet come." Divisions occur when the chief priests and Pharisees argue that Jesus cannot be a prophet because he is from Galilee. The guards respond, "Never before has anyone spoken like this man."

The Fifth Sunday of Lent brings us closer toward the Passion and death of Jesus. In John's Gospel, we hear the story of the raising of Lazarus. Jesus was not there when his dear friend, Lazarus died, but after meeting with Lazarus' grief-stricken sisters and weeping himself, he stood at the door of the tomb and called, "Lazarus, come out!" The dead man came out, tied hand and foot with burial bands, and his face was wrapped in a cloth. So Jesus said to them, "Untie him and let him go."

INTERIOR RENOVATIONS...

Peace & Justice

*Christ has no body on earth but yours,
no hands but yours, no feet but yours.
Yours are the eyes through which He looks compassion for the world;
yours are the feet with which he is to go about doing good;
and yours are the hands with which he is to bless us now.*
