Fourteenth Week of Ordinary Time

The Fourteenth Week in Ordinary Time begins with a Sunday that offers pastoral comfort to us all. In the Zechariah reading, the Lord promises Israel, and us, a savior who “shall proclaim peace to the nations.” Matthew’s gospel points to Jesus as the source of that peace, as he affirms his identity as the Son of God. Jesus offers himself as a relief from the burdens of our days, promising “you will find rest for yourselves. For my yoke is easy, and my burden light.”

We will celebrate Memorials this week of St. Benedict and St. Kateri Tekakwitha.

We continue with our cycle of Genesis readings. We read further about Abraham and Sarah and the testing of Abraham. God will provide a lamb. Abraham's wife, Sarah becomes jealous of the son Abraham had by Hagar, the slave, and forces Abraham to drive Hagar and her son, Ishmael, out into the desert, where they are saved by God. Sarah dies, and Abraham prepares for the end of his own life by searching for a wife for his son, Isaac. The Genesis readings close the week with the story of Isaac’s wife, Rebekah, deceiving her now-elderly and blind husband into giving his blessing and birthright to her favored son, Jacob.

Matthew’s gospel this week is filled with healing and invitations. Jesus offers a cure and courage for the woman with hemorrhage, raises an official’s daughter from dead and as “his heart was moved with pity” he continues to cure every disease and illness. Along with these stories of healing in the First Gospel, the call from Jesus begins.

*The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few;
so ask the master of the harvest
to send out laborers for his harvest*

Jesus summons the apostles and sends them out to continue his work, but curing illness and driving out unclean spirits. He tells them how to be a laborer in his field and cautions them of the challenges ahead. On Saturday, he offers a tender example of God’s love for us in the story God’s love for even the lowly sparrow. “Do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows,” he concludes.

The Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time is about God’s faithfulness. The promise of Isaiah 55 and Parable of the Sower from Matthew’s Gospel remind us that no matter what obstacles we face as his disciples, as sowers of the Good News, God will work effectively through us. “But the seed sown on rich soil is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and yields a hundred or sixty or thirty fold.”
