MASS INTENTIONS

Offering masses is a long-standing tradition in the Catholic Church. An individual may ask a priest to offer a Mass for several reasons: for example, in thanksgiving, for the intentions of another person (such as on a birthday or an anniversary), for someone who is sick, or for the repose of the soul of someone who has died.

Voting Information for Catholic Ratepayers

Protect and promote Catholic education...Ensure you are registered to vote as a Catholic separate school supporter

§ Ensuring you are registered as a separate school supporter is important for the protection and preservation of Catholic education in Ontario.

§ As a registered Catholic school supporter, you have the opportunity to elect trustees who will represent and address your interests and concerns at the school board level and at various levels of the government.

§ Registering your Catholic school support ensures your school board's assessment roll is accurate. This is important because:

- o Your school board's assessment base is a public record of the breadth of support for Catholic schools
- o It helps track demographic trends for educational planning purposes
- o It guarantees your right to enroll your children in Catholic schools

How to check if you are registered:

§ Visit voterlookup.ca, an online service created by the Municipal Property Assessment Corporation (MPAC) to check the accuracy of your voter information.

§ Or call your Municipal Clerk's Office to inquire how to check the local list of electors.

THE 12 HOURS OF PRAYER FOR PALLIATIVE CARE ON FRIDAY, MAY 4TH

For all who minister in Palliative care, and for the development of Palliative Care throughout the country.

An opportunity to serve and who doesn't read obituaries?

Funerals give us the opportunity to grieve and show others support during difficult times. Through our prayers and actions during these times we show our respect for life, which is always a gift from God, and comfort to those who mourn.

We attend a funeral to honor the deceased, and especially to pray for their souls. What a poignant and appropriate thing to do for a fellow brother or sister in Christ.

One of the corporal acts of mercy is to bury the dead (attend a funeral).

Attending a funeral mass supports those who grieve, contributes to a sense of community by your presence, prayer and song, and is a powerful witness to our belief in the Resurrection.

Due to our aging population and dispersed families, your attendance and prayer could make all the difference to grieving families. This is your opportunity to serve your brothers and sisters in Christ.

Fourth Week of Easter

On the Fourth Sunday of Easter we reflect on the Paschal Mystery more deeply. Psalm 118 says, “The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.” Peter quotes this psalm in preaching that the crippled man was healed, “in the name of Jesus Christ the Nazorean whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead.” In John's Gospel, Jesus tells us, “A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.”

Wednesday is the Feast of Saint Mark, Evangelist.

The first readings this week continue the story of the growth of the community, through the Acts of the Apostles.

For the gospels this week, we read from John's Gospel, chapters 10, 12, 13 and 14 - all emphasizing who Jesus is - from the Father and one with the Father. He has come to bring us light and life. He promises us that he is the gate, the way to life. And, he assures us that if we make our home in him, he will be in us, and we will thereby be one with Jesus and the Father. He says, “I am the gate. Whoever enters through me will be saved.” “My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish.” “Whoever believes in me believes not only in me but also in the one who sent me, and whoever sees me sees the one who sent me.” “From now on I am telling you before it happens, so that when it happens you may believe that I AM.” “Do not let your hearts be troubled.” “I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.” “If you ask anything of me in my name, I will do it.”

On the Fifth Sunday of Easter we have the wonderful gospel about Jesus as the vine. We are the branches that are pruned to bear more fruit. The powerful invitation is to remain connected with Jesus, that we might make our home in him, and bear much fruit.
