MASS INTENTIONS

Offering masses is a long-standing tradition in the Catholic Church. An individual may ask a priest to offer a Mass for several reasons: for example, in thanksgiving, for the intentions of another person (such as on a birthday or an anniversary), for someone who is sick, or for the repose of the soul of someone who has died.

Voting Information for Catholic Ratepayers

Protect and promote Catholic education...Ensure you are registered to vote as a Catholic separate school supporter

§ Ensuring you are registered as a separate school supporter is important for the protection and preservation of Catholic education in Ontario.

§ As a registered Catholic school supporter, you have the opportunity to elect trustees who will represent and address your interests and concerns at the school board level and at various levels of the government.

§ Registering your Catholic school support ensures your school board's assessment roll is accurate. This is important because:

- o Your school board's assessment base is a public record of the breadth of support for Catholic schools
- o It helps track demographic trends for educational planning purposes
- o It guarantees your right to enroll your children in Catholic schools

How to check if you are registered:

§ Visit voterlookup.ca, an online service created by the Municipal Property Assessment Corporation (MPAC) to check the accuracy of your voter information.

§ Or call your Municipal Clerk's Office to inquire how to check the local list of electors.

Catholic Education Week is coming!

This year's theme is "Renewing the Promise". There will be many meaningful activities helping our students to focus on the gift and the responsibility of Catholic education. Come celebrate with us! Please call your neighbourhood Catholic school to see what is happening from May 6th to 11th.

An opportunity to serve and who doesn't read obituaries?

Funerals give us the opportunity to grieve and show others support during difficult times. Through our prayers and actions during these times we show our respect for life, which is always a gift from God, and comfort to those who mourn.

We attend a funeral to honor the deceased, and especially to pray for their souls. What a poignant and appropriate thing to do for a fellow brother or sister in Christ.

One of the corporal acts of mercy is to bury the dead (attend a funeral).

Attending a funeral mass supports those who grieve, contributes to a sense of community by your presence, prayer and song, and is a powerful witness to our belief in the Resurrection.

Due to our aging population and dispersed families, your attendance and prayer could make all the difference to grieving families. This is your opportunity to serve your brothers and sisters in Christ.

Sixth Week of Easter

On the Sixth Sunday of Easter, we hear the powerful words that Jesus uses to send us on our mission: “This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this. It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain.”

The Ascension readings give us the stories of the Jesus' being taken up to heaven from the beginning of Acts of the Apostles. Another version is heard through the last chapter of Mark's Gospel.

Our Easter season readings from Acts of the Apostles continue this week. We read of Paul and Silas in jail, and the conversion and baptism of the jailer and his family; Paul's bold speech to the crowd at the Areopagus and his fearless preaching in Corinth, despite the growing threat from the Jews.

In John's Gospel, we realize we are approaching Pentecost in a few weeks as Jesus begins to speak of his leaving the earth and of the coming of the “Advocate” - the Spirit of Truth. The image of the Trinity is clear: “when the Advocate comes whom I will send you from the Father...” To his disciples, the idea of his leaving fills their hearts with grief but Jesus reassures them, “it is better for you that I go” so that the Spirit can come to them. The Spirit “will guide you to all truth.” “So you also are now in anguish. But I will see you again, and your hearts will rejoice, and no one will take your joy away from you.” Jesus encourages them to pray: “whatever you ask the Father in my name he will give you.”

The Seventh Sunday of Easter shows the Spirit at work in the Acts of the Apostles as a large group of disciples prays for guidance as they choose an apostle to replace Judas. In John's Gospel Jesus offers a moving prayer for those he loves asking the Father to “keep them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one just as we are one.”
