Mass Intentions

Offering masses is a longstanding tradition in the Catholic Church.

An individual may ask a priest to offer a Mass for several reasons: for example, in thanksgiving, for the intentions of another person (such as on a birthday or an anniversary), for someone who is sick, or for the repose of the soul of someone who has died.

Call the parish office
705-256-8474 to arrange.

Development & Peace- Caritas Canada Forced Migration and the Culture of Encounter

Forced migrants are first and foremost human beings. They are children, women and men who all have a story of their own. They have lost what was most important to them: their family, home, land and roots. The life that had taken them years to build, no longer exists. They have nothing left, except perhaps the hope of being welcomed, listened to and supported. It 's up to us to take the first step to open our hearts to them and to cultivate the hope that dwells within them.

31st Week in Ordinary Time

On the Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time, in Mark's Gospel a scribe asks Jesus, “Which is the first of all the commandments?” Jesus tells him to love the Lord with all of his heart. The second commandment is: “You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The scribe agreed with Jesus, saying, “to love your neighbor as yourself is worth more than all burnt offerings and sacrifices.” Jesus replied, “You are not far from the kingdom of God.”

Friday is the Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome with its own readings. Saturday is the Memorial of Saint Leo the Great, pope and doctor of the Church.

Continuing Luke's Gospel, Jesus talks about not only inviting all the “right” people into our lives, but to include “the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind.” “For you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous.” Then Jesus tells the parable of the invited guests who made excuses to decline the invitation. He sends his servants to invite everyone. Jesus tells a crowd that they have to renounce their possessions to be his disciple and that to do something really important, we have to prepare and be ready. In answer to the Pharisees' criticism of Jesus eating and drinking with sinners, Jesus tells parables of the man who finds his lost sheep and the woman with the lost coin, both of whom rejoice in finding what was lost. Jesus tells the parable of the dishonest steward who is caught overcharging his master's customers and saves himself by cutting his master's prices. Jesus praises his enterprise: “the children of this world are more prudent in dealing with their own generation than the children of light.” Finally, Jesus says that we can't have two masters, trying to love God and money. When a Pharisee sneered at him, he said: “what is of human esteem is an abomination in the sight of God.”

On the Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time, Mark's Gospel has us listen to Jesus contrast a scribe (the professional interpreters of the law in his day) who enjoys honors for himself, with a poor widow who donates to the temple poor box the little she has. The woman's generous heart must have moved him deeply.
