Shawl Ministry

If you know of someone who is in hospital or at home or at the Hospice that is in need of comfort from a shawl.

Please call Corona at 705-575-6975.

The Eucharistic Adoration Chapel at Our Lady of Good Counsel Church

Our Chapel is open 18 hours a day, 7 days a week and has been a source of comfort for many people across our city who drop in daily for a visit. When no one is scheduled for a particular hour and you happen to drop in and find the tabernacle doors closed, you are welcomed to open the tabernacle doors for the time that you are there and close the doors again when you leave, providing that there is no one else in the chapel. "A Holy Hour will give you more strength during life and more consolation at the hour of your death".

Nineteenth Week of Ordinary Time

Sunday is the Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus cautions us to be ready for the coming of the Lord. “Be sure of this: if the master of the house had known the hour when the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into.”

Wednesday is the Memorial of Saint Maximilian Kolbe, Priest and Martyr. Thursday is the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, with its own special readings.

In the first readings this week from Deuteronomy, we hear about the entry into the Promised Land. Moses says farewell to the people. Then we have readings from the Book of Joshua, who was the successor of Moses. The people cross the Jordan, with the Ark of the Covenant clearing a path through the river. Joshua speaks to the people as a prophet and recounts all God has done for them. The people renew their covenant at Shechem.

In the daily readings from Matthew's Gospel, Jesus again warns his disciples about his upcoming passion, death and resurrection, but they are “overwhelmed with grief.” Jesus resolves the temple tax question, as if to say, “it will be given you.” When the disciples are wondering about “who is the greatest,” Jesus points to a child and says the greatest is the one who is humble, like the defenseless child. He tells them to care for each other “If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone,” and to pray together for anything they need. When Peter asks Jesus how many times we must forgive, Jesus tells the powerful parable of the servant who is forgiven his debt but doesn't forgive his debtors. Jesus urges us to forgive from our hearts. Jesus tells his disciples about the sacredness of marriage. The disciples tried to prevent people from bringing children to Jesus and he said, “Let the children come to me, and do not prevent them; for the Kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these.”

Sunday is the Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus says, “I have come to set the earth on fire.” He warns us that the divisions we see, even in our own families, are too often caused by the choices people make about his mission.
