Shawl Ministry

If you know of someone who is in hospital or at home or at the Hospice that is in need of comfort from a shawl.

Please call Corona at 705-575-6975.

The Eucharistic Adoration Chapel at Our Lady of Good Counsel Church

Our Chapel is open 18 hours a day, 7 days a week and has been a source of comfort for many people across our city who drop in daily for a visit. When no one is scheduled for a particular hour and you happen to drop in and find the tabernacle doors closed, you are welcomed to open the tabernacle doors for the time that you are there and close the doors again when you leave, providing that there is no one else in the chapel. "A Holy Hour will give you more strength during life and more consolation at the hour of your death".

Twenty-Second Week of Ordinary Time

Sunday is the Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time. We are encouraged to embrace humility. The first reading from the Book of Sirach says it simply: “Humble yourself the more, the greater you are, and you will find favor with God.” In Luke's gospel is a beloved story of Jesus saying, “do not recline at table in the place of honor” at a banquet. “For every one who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted.”

Tuesday is the Memorial of Saint Gregory the Great, Pope and Doctor of the Church.

Paul's First Letter to the Thessalonians concludes on Tuesday. Wednesday, we begin a week of readings from the Letter to the Colossians, with its gracious salutation and encouragement. The readers are exhorted to see Christ as the “head of the body” noting that all is created “in and through him.”

We now move from Matthew to Luke's Gospel, which we will read on weekdays from now until Advent begins. We will feel the special way the evangelist will highlight healing, mercy, the poor, women, prayer, the Spirit and a gospel for a new, all inclusive, Israel.

Jesus teaches in the synagogue and reads from Isaiah: “Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing.” Jesus heals a man with demons. He heals Simon's mother-in-law, and all the sick they brought him. “I must proclaim the good news of the Kingdom of God, because for this purpose I have been sent.” He calls out to three discouraged fishermen to lower their nets, to show them his power. Peter is overwhelmed and protests he is unworthy. “Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men.” At Jesus' persistence, Peter, James and John leave their nets to follow Jesus. The week ends with Jesus' tangling with the Pharisees who challenge the fasting of his disciples. “Can you make the wedding guests fast while the bridegroom is with them?” He deflects the criticism by telling them “no one pours new wine into old wineskins.” When his critics note that his disciples were “unlawful” by picking heads of grains to eat, he tells them, “The Son of Man is lord of the Sabbath.”

On the Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time we hear Wisdom marvel at God's ways. Paul writes to his friend, Philemon, about Philemon's slave, Onesimus, who is now a convert and in prison with Paul. Paul asks that he be taken back as a son or a brother. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus tells the crowd that following him will involve radical conversion and require that each person discern if they can prepare for the self-denial required.
