BIBLE STUDY: REVELATION

Want to have a better understanding of the Book of Revelation?

Here is an opportunity like no other.

A 12-week course, from Ascension Press, will enlighten and engage us in this new journey.

"Revelation The Kingdom Yet to Come Bible study takes a look at one of the most talked-about books in Scripture.

Jeff Cavins explores Revelation to demonstrate how the Kingdom established by Christ in His Church is intimately connected with the Kingdom of Heaven, especially through the celebration of the Mass.

You will also learn what all the mysterious figures and images of Revelation represent, as well as what will happen during the Second Coming of Christ, what has already happened, and what is happening now in salvation history."

We are planning to start Monday, September 30th. (Registration required by Sept 24th in order to acquire material. Actual cost of material will depend on bulk order.)

For more information and to register, please call Cathy at Our Lady of Good Counsel Church, 705-942-8546.

Fall Campaign theme: " For Our Common Home"

A Reflection on integral ecology God is in all Creation.

When you step out onto the pavement in the morning, do you ever consider what is beneath your feet? Is it possible that under the layers of concrete we can feel the beating heart of the land? The land which gives life to the trees which provide the oxygen we breathe, that nourishes the gardens that provide food, and which sustains the homes that give us shelter? Is it possible to see the face of God, Creator of the land, air, water, moon, sun, and all the universal elements that connect us to each of our sisters and brothers living in our common home?

Too often, however, these natural resources are taken from the lands of others and not shared equitably. In addition, the unsustainable use of these resources--spurred by overconsumption--has triggered our current climate crises.

With this reflection, we invite you to begin the journey towards an integral ecology which " calls for openness to categories which transcend the language of mathematics and biology, and take us to the heart of what it is to be human." (Laudato Si', 11)

Twenty-Fourth Week of Ordinary Time

God's loving mercy and forgiveness to us is the central message in Luke's Gospel for the Twenty-Fourth Sunday of Ordinary Time. Knowing that his audience includes not only the sinners but also the judgmental religious leaders, Jesus offers three parables about mercy, ending with the powerful story of the Prodigal Son. The father says to the jealous older son, “You are here with me always; everything I have is yours. But now we must celebrate and rejoice, because your brother was dead and has come to life again; he was lost and has been found.”

Friday is the Memorial of Saints Andrew Kim Tae-gŏn, Priest, and Paul Chŏng Ha-sang, and Companions, Martyrs. Saturday is the Feast of Saint Matthew, Apostle and evangelist.

We continue reading from Paul's First Letter to Timothy. It begins this week with the great prayer for our leaders. He then says how bishops and deacons should behave. He urges Timothy to be especially caring for the youth. Paul warns Timothy of the troubles of riches. Finally, Paul encourages Timothy to be faithful.

In Luke's Gospel, Jesus praises the faith of the Roman centurion who understands Jesus' power to heal. Jesus then raises from the dead the son of the widow of Nain. In response to constant criticism from religious authorities, Jesus compares the critics to children taunting their playmates. We read of the woman who entered a dinner Jesus was attending and wept over his feet, washing them with her tears, showing what real love is. Luke, who highlights the role of women in his gospel, tells us of women who accompanied Jesus and his disciples. Finally, Jesus gives us the Parable of the Sower and its interpretation about how temptations and shallow roots can prevent the Word from growing in us or how “the anxieties and riches and pleasures of life” can choke the Word.

On the Twenty-Fifth Sunday of Ordinary Time Jesus tells the parable of the unjust steward who finds out he's been caught squandering his master's property, and goes out and makes deals to make friends for the future. Jesus acknowledges his prudence and calls us to have, at the very least, prudence about our future. “If, therefore, you are not trustworthy with dishonest wealth, who will trust you with true wealth?”
