The Fifth Week of Ordinary Time

On the Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Jesus encourages his disciples to let their light shine: “Your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father.”

Monday is the Memorial of Saint Scholastica, Virgin. Friday is the Memorial of Saints Cyril, Monk, and Methodius, Bishop.

The first reading this week, from the First Book of Kings, continues the story of David's family as his son the wise Solomon is now King of Israel. He is honored and praised for his wisdom, but falls away from the Lord and worships false gods, and for that the Lord tells him he will lose the Kingdom of Israel.

During the week, the fast-paced Gospel of Mark continues with stories of Jesus healing, teaching and challenging the authorities. As Jesus and his disciples step on shore, people scurry from all over to bring those in need of healing. The Pharisees, watching for Jesus to break rules, criticize his followers for not washing their hands. Jesus responds, “You disregard God’s commandment but cling to human tradition.” Jesus teaches his followers, “Nothing that enters one from outside can defile that person; but the things that come out from within are what defile.” Jesus goes to Tyre and tries to slip into a house unnoticed, but a foreign woman finds him and Jesus, impressed by her faith, heals her daughter. He heals a man of his deafness and speech impediment and like so many others he healed, he orders him not to tell anyone. “But the more he ordered them not to, the more they proclaimed it.” Moved with pity, Jesus feeds the huge crowds who had followed him for three days. “They ate and were satisfied. They picked up the fragments left over – seven baskets. There were about four thousand people.”

On the Sixth Sunday of Ordinary Time we hear Matthew's Gospel. Jesus speaks to his followers about religious laws and also of our own relationships. Go to offer gifts to God at the altar, but first, Jesus says, “Leave your gift there at the altar, go first and be reconciled with your brother, and then come and offer your gift.”
