Greetings everyone,

An update on my health situation. I am scheduled for a procedure at University Hospital London to repair the CTO (Chronic Total Occlusion) which is a 100% blockage. It is an angiogram type of procedure requiring an overnight in hospital at most. Transportation and accommodation all arranged, but continue to be in need of your prayer. Hoping that this procedure is effective and will put me in good shape for the time when we are all able to celebrate together again.

Thank you for your messages and prayers.

Fr. Hamish

Fourth Sunday of Easter

On the Fourth Sunday of Easter we reflect on the Paschal Mystery more deeply. Psalm 118 says, “The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.” Peter quotes this psalm in preaching that the crippled man was healed, “in the name of Jesus Christ the Nazorean whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead.” In John's Gospel, Jesus tells us, “A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.”

The first readings this week continue the story of the growth of the community, through the Acts of the Apostles.

For the gospels this week, we read from John's Gospel, chapters 10, 12, 13 and 14 - all emphasizing who Jesus is - from the Father and one with the Father. He has come to bring us light and life. He promises us that he is the gate, the way to life. And, he assures us that if we make our home in him, he will be in us, and we will thereby be one with Jesus and the Father. He says, “I am the gate. Whoever enters through me will be saved.” “My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish.” “Whoever believes in me believes not only in me but also in the one who sent me, and whoever sees me sees the one who sent me.” “From now on I am telling you before it happens, so that when it happens you may believe that I AM.” “Do not let your hearts be troubled.” “I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.” “If you ask anything of me in my name, I will do it.”

All of this leads us to the Fifth Sunday of Easter where in the gospel, we hear Jesus console us, asking us to not let our hearts be troubled because he goes only to prepare a place for us and that “No one comes to the Father except through me.”
