Epiphany of the Lord

For most of the world, January 6, is the celebration of the Epiphany of the Lord. It is the feast in which we celebrate the Good News being shown/revealed to the Gentiles - the rest of the world. It is a celebration of the Light himself. It is also an acute awareness of the rejection of the Light. After being warned in a dream, the Holy Family become political refugees and must flee their own country.

In the second half of the week we read for the First Letter of John about the mystery of love. The gospels are from stories in the life of Jesus.

The Baptism of the Lord is on Sunday. We hear the Lord say in the first reading from Isaiah, “Here is my servant whom I uphold, my chosen one with whom I am pleased, upon whom I have put my spirit.” That is echoed in Mark's Gospel, after Jesus' baptism: “On coming up out of the water he saw the heavens being torn open and the Spirit, like a dove, descending upon him. And a voice came from the heavens, 'You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.'” This feast marks the end of the Christmas season. Monday begins Ordinary Time on the Church calendar which will continue until Ash Wednesday.
