Development and Peace: Share Love Share Lent

Share Love Share Lent

In places like Syria and Yemen, where conflict prevents people like you and me from meeting their basic needs for food, safety, and shelter, your support allows us to take urgent, concerted, humanitarian action. Our partnerships within and beyond the global Caritas network help families survive desperate circumstances and build bridges of coexistence between displaced peoples and host communities.

Your generous support of Share Lent (devp.org/give) is always very much appreciated. You can double your support by considering becoming a year round supporter by visiting: devp.org/shareyearround.

This year the Development and Peace Stations of the Cross invites us to reflect on the need to love and develop greater social fraternity in light of Jesus's passion, death and resurrection.

You can join us virtually Friday April 2, 2021 at 12:00 to 1:30 on Zoom

INTERIOR RENOVATIONS...

Practical tips for living the Golden Rule in your daily life:

Be friendly.

When in doubt, follow this tip.

It's usually safe to be friendly towards others.

Of course, there are times when others just don't want someone acting friendly towards them, and you should be sensitive to that.

You should also be friendly within the bounds of appropriateness. But who doesn't like to feel welcome and wanted?

Palm Sunday

On Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord we make our way into Holy Week. We read the gospel about Jesus' entry into Jerusalem, Paul's invitation to us to imitate Jesus who emptied himself, and the whole Passion, this year from Mark's Gospel.

The next three days - Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week - are the final days of Lent. The first readings are from the Suffering Servant Songs of Isaiah. Though originally sung about Israel, God's servant, and perhaps a specific servant, they clearly spoke to the early Christian community about Jesus and his mission.

Monday and Tuesday's gospels are from John's Gospel. The anointing at Bethany - at the home of Mary, Martha and Lazarus - has taken place at a wonderful celebration of Lazarus' return to life and a fine thanksgiving to Jesus. Mary anoints Jesus' feet with the precious oil that reminds us of his burial. Then, at the Last Supper (skipping over the reading we will use on Holy Thursday about the washing of feet) Jesus identifies his betrayer. Finally, Jesus talks with Peter who professes his loyalty to Jesus who predicts Peter would deny him three times later that night.

Wednesday's Gospel is the story of Judas' betrayal of Jesus, from Matthew's perspective. We can feel the tension and pressure Jesus is under. There is a sadness at hearing the arrangement Judas makes - 30 pieces of silver - to deliver Jesus into the hands of his enemies.

The stage is now set for the Triduum - Holy Thursday, Good Friday and the Easter Vigil.
