CWL Myths and Truths

Myths	Truths
I'm not old enough? I must be at least 40 years or older, don't I?	You only need to be 16 years old, and you will never be too old to join.
Don't I have to be married with children before I can become a CWL Member?	We only need you! We are not biased against single or married women.
I'm not Catholic or a parishioner. Surely, I can't be a Member.	Being Roman Catholic or a member of the church would be great, but not necessary.
My schedule may not permit me to get to every meeting, and I really don't have a lot of time to give.	We meet once a month. We are grateful for any time you can give.
I'm not really interested in being a leader. Do I have to participate in the executive board?	You need to do nothing. You only commit to those things you want to.
Money is tight right now, and I can't really afford to get involved with anything.	The cost is $35 per year. If you can't afford this, we can help and work with you.
I don't know any of the women in the CWL. I am shy and don't make friends easily.	What a great opportunity to meet women. We have spent years building our friendships.
I don't bake and I am not crafty. I just won't fit in.	Kitchen skills are not necessary. We can use any of your talents.
It's just another clique!	No, we are not! We welcome every woman to join us.
I'm just not sure if the CWL is the right thing for me!	Come to a meeting, and check us out.

We might be more right for you than you know!

Twenty-Ninth Week in Ordinary Time

For the Twenty-Ninth Sunday of Ordinary Time, through the parable of the persistent widow wearing down the unjust judge, Jesus urges us to have faith. “Will not God then secure the rights of his chosen ones who call out to him day and night? Will he be slow to answer them?”

We continue with the second of four weeks of weekday readings from Paul’s Letter to the Romans. This is Paul’s longest letter and was written from Greece as he prepared to visit Rome.

Our gospels continue with Luke’s Gospel and multiple stories of Jesus exhorting us to be prepared, to beware of greed and that our “life does not consist of possessions.” Jesus’ mission is to bring peace and healing. We are to be prepared for the times our Lord comes to us. Much is expected of us who have been entrusted with so much. Jesus has come to set a fire among us, which will probably also place us at odds with others, even others we love. Yet, Jesus calls us to read the signs of our times and to make peace with our opponents if we can. We are being fertilized to bear fruit.

On the Thirtieth Sunday of Ordinary Time we have Jesus’ dramatic story of the Pharisee and the tax collector standing in the temple, the Pharisee relieved that “I am not like the rest of humanity” and the tax collector with eyes down, begging for mercy. “Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted.”

Daily Prayer This Week

This is a terrific week to ask for the gift of freedom. Each day, when we focus ourselves in the morning, and throughout each busy day, we can keep asking God to help us, to give us what we need to become freer. There's freedom "from" and freedom "for." We can ask to be released from what has a hold on us. If we ask, we can trust that God will give us the grace to understand the habits and desires that hold us back from intimacy with God. We can ask to be more honest with ourselves about them, and to grow in a desire to discover what we would be like without them. We can pray to be free for whatever God desires of us. If we express our desire to be placed at the service of others and to be able to give our lives away more generously, we can trust that God will let Jesus set our hearts on fire.

The Word helps us each week. Sometimes, one phrase or one story will carry us for several days. Other weeks, we will have to look back at the readings to hear a reminder, an encouragement, a call. I might stay with the words, "give to God what is God's." On a given day it might be a great grace to realize all is gift, including the members of my family, the gifts I've been given to do my work, the graces offered me this very day. If I hear the words of Jesus, "life does not consist in possessions," we might ask him to show me how this is meant for me this week. Perhaps I will imagine myself as that tree that isn't bearing much fruit. Instead of cutting me down, our Lord is patient and willing to nourish me and cultivate me, so that I can bear fruit.

All week, we speak with our Lord, friend to friend, expressing whatever is in our hearts. No matter how busy we are, we will grow in gratitude as we see how much Jesus can do with our open hearts.
