CWL Myths and Truths

Myths	Truths
I'm not old enough? I must be at least 40 years or older, don't I?	You only need to be 16 years old, and you will never be too old to join.
Don't I have to be married with children before I can become a CWL Member?	We only need you! We are not biased against single or married women.
I'm not Catholic or a parishioner. Surely, I can't be a Member.	Being Roman Catholic or a member of the church would be great, but not necessary.
My schedule may not permit me to get to every meeting, and I really don't have a lot of time to give.	We meet once a month. We are grateful for any time you can give.
I'm not really interested in being a leader. Do I have to participate in the executive board?	You need to do nothing. You only commit to those things you want to.
Money is tight right now, and I can't really afford to get involved with anything.	The cost is $35 per year. If you can't afford this, we can help and work with you.
I don't know any of the women in the CWL. I am shy and don't make friends easily.	What a great opportunity to meet women. We have spent years building our friendships.
I don't bake and I am not crafty. I just won't fit in.	Kitchen skills are not necessary. We can use any of your talents.
It's just another clique!	No, we are not! We welcome every woman to join us.
I'm just not sure if the CWL is the right thing for me!	Come to a meeting, and check us out.

We might be more right for you than you know!

Thirtieth Week in Ordinary Time

On the Thirtieth Sunday of Ordinary Time we have Jesus' dramatic story of the Pharisee and the tax collector standing in the temple, the Pharisee relieved that "I am not like the rest of humanity" and the tax collector with eyes down, begging for mercy. "Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

Tuesday is the Feast of Saints Simon and Jude, Apostles. Monday is the great Solemnity of All Saints, followed on Saturday by the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Souls).

The first reading all week continues with the third week of Paul's longest letter, the Letter to the Romans, with his teaching of the Holy Spirit in our lives.

The Gospel of Luke offers a glimpse of Jesus healing and teaching the people, even as he continues to clash with religious leaders. He cures the "bent woman" on a Sabbath and tells of the tiny mustard seed which develops to become a full-grown bush. He repeats that it will not be easy to enter the Kingdom: "For behold, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last." He defies those who bring word of threats on his life and defies the silent Pharisees who watch as he cures a man on the Sabbath. Jesus encourages us to be humble: "For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

Next Sunday is the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed. We hear from Jesus in the Gospel of John assuring the crowds that "Everything that the Father gives me will come to me, and I will not reject anyone who comes to me, because I came down from heaven not to do my own will but the will of the one who sent me. And this is the will of the one who sent me, that I should not lose anything of what he gave me, but that I should raise it on the last day."

Volunteers Needed - for Funeral Receptions

Some volunteers are needed for funeral receptions in the Precious Blood Cathedral Hall. We would be happy with your help whenever you are available. Volunteers are needed to make coffee, tea, arrange food, and clean up. If you are interested, please email Maureen (goderhammaureen@gmail.com)

Daily Prayer This Week

Please, Lord, anything but humility! Our instinctive reaction to humility might be the result of a culture that exalts riches, honors and pride. Yet all this week Jesus teaches that the way to salvation is through humility.

The first step might be simply asking for the desire to be humble. As we move through the simplest of moments in our everyday lives, we can stop and ask God to help us want to be humble. As we sit on the edge of the bed in the morning, as we head to work, sort laundry or do our errands, we can keep a running prayer in the background of our consciousness: "Lord, help me to desire the humility that will make me more aware of your saving grace."

These same background moments offer ways for us to recognize opportunities to practice humility as we go through our days. Perhaps I can stop myself from correcting my spouse. In a disagreement, I might make an extra effort to listen to the other person's side rather than planning my rebuttal as they speak. I can let a person in line in front of me, hold the door for someone or make an extra effort to recognize and thank those who serve me. Even these tiny gestures, when done in the spirit of Jesus' teachings this week, offer us a special grace.

All week we can continue to speak to the Lord as we would to a loving friend who listens to us. And always, we can end our day in gratitude, for the merciful God who loves us so compassionately and longs to be in our hearts.
