BISHOPS ANNUAL APPEAL

"as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers." (Gal. 6:10)

We are part of a family of faith, but even broader than that we are part of a communal family. Ideally, a family shares an unbreakable bond—bound not only by blood, but commitment. When the Apostle Paul spoke to the church of Galatia, he stressed to them the importance of caring for all people whenever the opportunity arose. We are to imitate Christ in how we treat others. The mission of the Bishop's Annual Appeal is to care for those in need, which is inclusive of those in our family of faith, as well as those in our communal family. As you reflect upon your stewardship goals for this year's campaign, we urge you to consider your gift in light of St. Joseph as a way of us caring for our family of faith. Give online at: www.diobr.org/stewardship

GOD'S REIGN—By pointing to the end times, today's readings speak to the coming reign of God, when God will make all things new. In Christ, this time has already begun. We, by our energized watchfulness, can further God's reign. We can heal broken hearts, free captives, spread the Good News. Even so, the reign of God will not be complete without the second coming of Christ. Our weekly eucharistic gathering is a sign of the fullness of the end times. At Mass we join as an assembly to recall and to claim the story of Jesus as our own. Together we give thanks to God for the many gifts bestowed upon us. We receive nourishment in the simple but profound meal. And our weak and weary selves are invigorated and transformed by the power of Christ, so that we ourselves might become effective signs of God's reign present and to come.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Those who lead the many to justice shall be like the stars forever (Daniel 12:1-3).

Psalms — You are my inheritance, O Lord! (Psalm 16).

Second Reading — Where there is forgiveness, there is no longer offering for sin (Hebrews 10:11-14, 18).

Gospel — Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away (Mark 13:24-32).

HOPE—If you do not hope, you will not find what is beyond your hopes.*
