Dear Parishioners,

As I have traveled throughout the Diocese of Biloxi, I have been deeply heartened and encouraged by the communities of faith I have encountered in our parishes, missions, schools, and ministries.

The Spirit of our Lord, Jesus Christ, is very much present and alive in our midst. I am especially encouraged by our people who want to grow in their faith and their love of Jesus Christ and their desire to become His disciples.

The call of Jesus Christ in the Gospel of Matthew Chapter 28:19 “…to make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the holy Spirit…” we are taking to heart as a diocese and as a Church. I have seen that the Love of Jesus Christ is at the center of who we are and all we do. Jesus is calling us to continue to live out that love in each of our parishes, missions, schools, and ministries.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Terminology:

- Parish: A division of the territory of a diocese. The purpose is to form a stable community of the faithful within a particular church, whose pastoral care has been entrusted to a parish priest who serves as pastor, sometimes with an administrator, or Lay Ecclesial Minister, under the authority of the bishop. It is the lowest subdivision of territory in the Catholic Church.

- Mission: A Mission is a community within the territory of a parish. A mission is not large enough, nor stable enough to function independently as an autonomous parish. It is hoped that it can grow into a separate Parish but presently relies on the assistance of the Parish.

- Cathedraticum: A certain sum of money contributed by parishes annually for the support of the bishop and diocesan offices. Money collected supplements diocesan-level programs and ministries. The amount collected is a percentage of a parish’s income and is set by a committee of representatives from parishes and approved by the bishop. The word comes from the Latin “cathedra,” or bishop’s chair.

- Deanery: A deanery, also known as a forane vicariate, is a subdivision of a diocese, consisting of a number of parishes, over which presides a dean, or vicar forane, appointed by a bishop. The duty of the dean is to watch over the clergy of the deanery, to see that they fulfill the orders of the bishop, and observe the liturgical and canon laws. He summons the conference of the deanery and presides at it. Periodically he makes a report to the bishop on conditions in the deanery.
Ministries of the Catholic Diocese of Biloxi

In the Gospel of Matthew, as the Lord Jesus was about to ascend to the Father, He gave the Great Commission to the Apostles, commanding them to “Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit” (Mt. 28:19). We, as the Church in Southern Mississippi, are called to this commission in our daily lives today. In light of this call we move more intentionally toward discipleship in Jesus, as we start to view our daily work in light of this call.

Motivated by the teachings of Christ, Catholic Charities of South Mississippi works to help our brothers and sisters in Christ, by providing the basic necessities of life and creating hope. By feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, and serving those imprisoned by poverty, isolation, disaster or educational challenges, we serve according to the Gospel values of justice, mercy, and charity. We are called to offer kindness, respect, and dignity to all that we serve.

The Office of the Chancellor has as its primary mission the preservation of the history and artifacts of the Diocese of Biloxi. This mission, a mission of service, is at the core of intentional discipleship as it helps to preserve the teachings of the Church for future generations of disciples.

The Office of Communications is the voice of the Diocese of Biloxi and its shepherd, Bishop Louis F. Kihneman III. Through the use of social media and the diocesan newspaper, The Gulf Pine Catholic, we promote the good works of the Church being accomplished by our parishes, schools, entities, and organizations. One of our primary goals is to assist in the communication and raising awareness of our call to discipleship.

The Office of Finance, being mindful of God’s blessings and gifts to His Church, is called to demonstrate discipleship by practicing of good stewardship of the financial assets of God’s Church in the Diocese of Biloxi. It is our goal to always be faithful to the teachings of Christ and to be faithful in the stewardship of the gifts of His people in the ministry of the Church.

The Office of Religious Education provides ongoing discipleship training for Catholic school religion teachers and parish catechetical leaders. We partner with our Catholic schools and parish leadership to help form our youth, young adults, and lay faithful in the ongoing exercise of having a well-formed conscience in our communities and in society as a whole.

The Office of Marriage & Family Life Ministries works to affirm, support, and strengthen all facets of family life by providing programs for spiritual enrichment, healing, and renewal so that each person in the family can draw closer to Christ and move deeper into discipleship with Him.

The family is the domestic Church and the primary place of formation of values, consciences and discipleship in the Lord Jesus. The Office of Marriage & Family Life Ministries works to affirm, support, and strengthen all facets of family life by providing programs for spiritual enrichment, healing, and renewal so that each person in the family can draw closer to Christ and move deeper into discipleship with Him.

Our Catholic schools strive daily to create awareness to our call to be disciples of Jesus by immersing faculty, staff, and students, in the teachings and practice of our Catholic Faith. Faith-formation is at the core of the mission of all our schools and activities. Led by the Office of Catholic Schools offering workshops on forming Intentional Disciples, all members of the Catholic school leadership at each campus are consciously choosing to pray, learn, and show their faith through actions and to teach our students to “be not afraid” to be a witness to our Lord Jesus.

The Office of Evangelization promotes the Church’s call to Evangelization by providing vision and formation for leaders; coordinating diocesan evangelization initiatives, and helping parishes explore creative new ways for deepening, re-awakening, and sharing of our Catholic Faith.

The Gulf Pine Catholic

The Office of the Diocesan Director of Catholic Social Services provides the Diocese of Biloxi with the voice of the Diocese of Biloxi and its shepherd, Bishop Louis F. Kihneman III. Through communication and understanding we promote the Gospel teachings to follow in our Lord’s footsteps. Only through accurate communication and understanding of culture can people with disabilities be included in all aspects of life and further their desire to become Intentional Disciples.

The Deaf Center Inc. provides spiritual well-being, promotion of independence and inclusion in the community for the deaf, hard of hearing and disabled. Through communication and understanding we promote the Gospel teachings to follow in our Lord’s footsteps. Only through accurate communication and understanding of culture can people with disabilities be included in all aspects of life and further their desire to become Intentional Disciples.

The Office of the Diaconate has teamed with the Office of Evangelization and the Core Team of Forming Intentional Disciples in presenting Intentional Discipleship workshops to the Deacons of the Diocese of Biloxi. The Intentional Discipleship Ministry is being integrated into our Diocesan Ministry through homilies at parish Masses and parish programs. The formation of Intentional Discipleship is being included in the Academic Syllabus of all future Diaconate formation Classes.
