Prayer
In The Time Of The Coronavirus

Most Reverend José H. Gomez
Archbishop of Los Angeles

Holy Virgin of Guadalupe,
Queen of the Angels and Mother of the Americas.
We fly to you today as your beloved children.
We ask you to intercede for us with your Son,
as you did at the wedding in Cana.

Pray for us, loving Mother,
and gain for our nation and world,
and for all our families and loved ones,
the protection of your holy angels,
that we may be spared the worst of this illness.
For those already afflicted,
we ask you to obtain the grace of healing and deliverance.
Hear the cries of those who are vulnerable and fearful, wipe away their tears and help them to trust.

In this time of trial and testing, teach all of us in the Church to love one another and to be patient and kind.
Help us to bring the peace of Jesus to our land and to our hearts.

We come to you with confidence,
knowing that you truly are our compassionate mother,
health of the sick and cause of our joy.
Shelter us under the mantle of your protection,
keep us in the embrace of your arms,
help us always to know the love of your Son, Jesus.

Amen.

Today's Readings

First Reading — The LORD has rescued the poor from the clutches of the wicked (Jeremiah 20:10-13).

Psalm — Lord, in your great love, answer me (Psalm 69).

Second Reading — The grace of God overflows for all (Romans 5:12-15).

Gospel — All who acknowledge Jesus before others will likewise be acknowledged by Jesus before the Father (Matthew 10:26-33).

Enthusiasm and Grammar

There is a good reason that the writings of St. Paul don't show up as examples in grammar textbooks. Today's reading is a case in point. It begins with one of those long Pauline run on sentences that leave lectors gasping for breath. So what? Take a closer look at how Paul's fervor for his subject matter derails the grammar. There is something admirable about being so caught up in his convictions that the words cannot come fast enough to express them, much less in an orderly fashion. Scripture scholars usually take this grammatical ineptness as a sign of a passage's early importance in the Christian community, something they were so ardent about that their language never got refined.

What leaves us in this condition? Re-telling the plot line of an action movie or the play-by-play of a sporting event? When was the last time any of us was so excited by our faith in Christ that we were left grasping for words, stumbling over our own errors in speech? It may be bad grammar, but it is an excellent way to inspire others with the message of Christ!

Your Giving Is Helping More Than Ever

Please continue to give faithfully. With the reopening of the church, baskets are available near the church main exit doors for you to place your offering in. At this time donation envelopes will not be provided.

You may continue to drop off your offering at the parish office window, send it by mail (209 N. Hanford Ave., San Pedro, CA 90732), or set up online giving on our parish website (holytrinitysp.org) by clicking directly on the e-Giving icon and follow the prompts. There is also available, at most banks, online bill pay whereby your bank sends a recurring check (weekly, monthly) to Holy Trinity. Just be certain this is a free option at your bank.

Thank you to the many who have mailed in their offerings or signed up with e-Giving. We thank you for your understanding and generosity. We greatly appreciate your continued support during this time. For any questions, please contact Kathy Morris at 310-548-6535 ext. 323 (Monday-Friday, 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.) or email kmorris@holytrinitysp.org.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe you are really here in the Blessed Sacrament.
I love you more than anything in the world, and I hunger to receive you.
But since I cannot receive Communion at this moment, feed my soul at least spiritually.
I unite myself to you now as I do when I actually receive you.
Amen.

—St. Alphonsus Liguori

Safeguard The Children

Did You Know?

Read-aloud book stories to stretch your relationship with your children

Summer is a good time to instill or develop reading habits in your children. Books are a good source to learn about new things in life and as you read together with your children it can help to strengthen your relationship with them and learn about their emotions or concerns, especially during this time of COVID-19. "Worries, fears, and anxieties are all dragons that sneak up on most of us at one time or another," says the introduction to the book "You've got dragons," authored by Kathryn Cave. "It is the perfect read-aloud story for young children whose fears can sometimes get the better of them." Among books recommended by the American Psychological Association (APA) are: "A feel better book for little worriers," and "My wandering dreaming mind," both in English, and "Respira con facilidad," in Spanish. ¿Sabe Usted?

Historias de lectura en voz alta para estrechar la relación con sus hijos

El verano es un buen tiempo para enseñar o desarrollar el hábito de la lectura en sus hijos. Los libros son un buen recurso para aprender nuevas cosas en la vida, y mientras usted lee junto con sus hijos, ello puede ayudarle a fortalecer su relación con ellos y a conocer más sobre sus emociones y preocupaciones, especialmente en este tiempo de COVID-19. "Las preocupaciones, los miedos y las ansiedades son todos dragones que se nos acercan sigilosamente en algún momento", dice la introducción del libro en inglés "You've got dragons", de la autora Kathryn Cave. "Es una historia perfecta para leer en voz alta a sus hijos pequeños, cuyos miedos pueden algunas veces apoderarse de ellos". Entre algunos libros recomendados por la Asociación Americana de Psicología (APA, por sus siglas en inglés), está el libro en español, "Respira con facilidad", y los libros en inglés, "A feel better book for little worriers" y "My wandering dreaming mind". 13th Sunday In Ordinary Time

First Reading: 2 Kings 4:8-11,14-16a
Psalm: 89:2-3, 16-19
Second Reading: Romans 6:3-4, 8-11
Gospel: Matthew 10:37-42

"Whoever does not take up his cross and follow me is not worthy of me.

—Matthew 10:38

Scripture Focus:

Today's Gospel presents the hard choice to be made by those who want to live and spread the Good News. People are not being told to cut off all family ties. But if your family threatens to disown you for following Jesus or for making decisions based upon him, you will have to make a choice. To choose Christ means to follow the path his love has marked out. Often that means taking up the cross. Choosing the safe way often leads to self destruction. In order to find our true identity, we must give ourselves to others, living as Jesus lived.

Reflection:

1. Relate a time when you were made to feel welcomed. What did that experience mean to you?

2. Give an example of something in your life over which you cannot relinquish control. Can you try surrendering it into God's hands?

3. Was there ever a time when your values threatened "family ties"? Relate this experience.

Help Out Our Advertisers

Our Sunday bulletin is an important way for us to communicate with you, especially during these days of the Coronavirus pandemic. It might be the only way that we can reach some of you. Every hard copy of the Sunday bulletin that you receive is paid for through the generosity of the businesses that you see advertised on the back cover and on the last pages of this bulletin. Most of these advertisers are members of our local community, and many belong to our parish. We urge you to think of them when you decide to have a meal or other item delivered to your door. Tell the business owners that you appreciate their support of our parish through their advertisements in the bulletin. This is one small way that we can work within our own community to weather the challenges that we face. Together we can help each other make it through. So please take a minute to look at the attached ads and see which local vendors you can help support during this difficult time.

WHY IS IT
A man wakes up after sleeping under an ADVERTISED blanket on an ADVERTISED mattress and pulls off ADVERTISED pajamas bathes in an ADVERTISED shower shaves with an ADVERTISED razor brushes his teeth
with ADVERTISED toothpaste washes with ADVERTISED soap puts on ADVERTISED clothes drinks a cup of ADVERTISED coffee drives to work in an ADVERTISED car and then . . . .
refuses to ADVERTISE
believing it doesn't pay.
Later if business is poor
he ADVERTISES it for sale.
