The new year is a time of hope and promise as we have opportunities to grow our vital ministries, explore new ways to share the good news of God's love, and reflect His care and mercy to those in need throughout the community. To continue to make a difference, Holy Trinity depends on online donations from caring individuals like you. We prayfully request that you consider signing up for eGiving from your computer, smartphone or tablet for reoccurring and one-time gifts. Sign up today by visiting our website: www.holytrinitysp.org

Each Mass at Holy Trinity Church is given for a special intention. Many parishioners request Mass intentions for their friends and family members. You can reserve a Mass intention by calling or visiting the Parish Office. The suggested donation is $15 and can be sent by mail or dropped at the Parish Office.

Sacramental Information

Baptisms: Contact the parish office at least two months prior to requested date of baptism.

Weddings: Arrange with a priest minimum of six month prior.

Sacrament of the Sick: Please call the parish office anytime.

Funerals: Contact the parish office at (310) 548-6535

The parish office only accepts checks payable to Holy Trinity or cash. For additional information please call or email: parishoffice@holyltrinitysp.org

PRIORITY PLAN – HOLY TRINITY CATHOLIC CHURCH

Dear Holy Trinity Parishioners:

In the fall of 2021, I was invited to attend a presentation hosted by the Catholic Leadership Institute. With the full support of Archbishop Gomez, they were offering select parishes the opportunity to participate in the Next Generation Parish. This program serves parish leadership and parishes by connecting us to dynamic places of encounter with God. Together we can envision a network of support, overcome obstacles, and continue to build a sustainable parish community of hope.

You may remember in January of 2022 our parish conducted many interviews asking individuals what they thought about Holy Trinity Parish? In March of 2022, parishioners participated in the Disciple Maker Index survey. With this information in hand, we next had a dedicated team of parishioners work as an Envisioning Committee over the past several months to come up with a Priority Plan for Holy Trinity.

I am thrilled to announce that we have agreed upon a very select group of priorities. This Envisioning Committee now passes on the fruits of their labor to a mostly new team called to do the work of implementation. The Implementation Committee will now work on the creative and necessary task of assimilating parish priorities across the life of the whole parish.

As we come into the Easter Season of the Church, may we gracefully spring forward in faith, hope and change. Holy Trinity be our guide!

Fr. Kevin Nolan
Pastor

Our Purpose

We are a welcoming Catholic parish, expressed by our active loving involvement with each other, and our outreach to the community beyond, energized by a deepening liturgical and spiritual life.

Our Vision for the Future of Holy Trinity

With hope and enthusiasm, we envision a Holy Trinity Parish that ignites and deepens the faith of parishioners through an invigorating Sunday experience, that promotes spiritual growth and discipleship through engaging religious education at all ages, and that offers a robust Christian community of vibrant ministries that fulfill their missions while supporting each other and the parish as a whole. In faith and in prayer, with courage and joy, welcoming the contributions of all, we will strive to bring this vision forward for the future of Holy Trinity Parish.

Priority: Vibrant Sunday Experience

The Mass was established by Jesus as the central act of worship. Our Mass experience will be reverent, uplifting, engaging, unifying and educational. The Mass will foster a belief in, and love of, the true presence of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist.

Goal: Increase Sunday Mass Attendance and Participation

Goal: Increase percentage of parishioners affirming that Holy Trinity is “offering vibrant and engaging Sunday Masses”

Priority: One Holy Trinity – A Call to Unity

Our church, our ministries, and our school form one, whole Holy Trinity Parish – unified, with each ministry endeavoring to support the others in word, deed, time, and resources. While our parish’s functions and ministries are varied, they have a common and unifying purpose – participation in and promotion of Catholic Christian life.

Goal: Increase Support Between Ministries – Promotion, Special Events, Social Opportunities

Goal: Involve All Ministries in Sunday Mass

Priority: Informed Discipleship

Inspired by the Holy Spirit, and an unending curiosity about our God and our Catholic faith, we will practice passionately in engagement with our local community. We need to directly address our lack of confidence in sharing and modeling our faith. As our knowledge of Catholicism grows, we will become more engaged in the liturgy and life of the Holy Trinity community. This parish priority will help us engage with others (both practicing and non-practicing) and thereby strengthen and grow our parish.

Goal: Increase Participation in Existing Learning Opportunities

Goal: Broaden Learning Opportunities

THE VALUES THAT WILL GUIDE US – HOSPITALITY * JOY * FAITH * COURAGE * PRAYER

A Prayer For Those Who Currently Serve In The Military

We give thanks to God for the safe return of our servicemen/women and we thank them for their selflessness in serving their country in time of war.

May our prayers and the prayers of millions of others throughout the world lead these men and women safely back home to their loved ones.

We pray especially for those from our community:

Let us remember those suffering illness, infirmity, and those in need of our prayers...

Jose Luis Pedraza, Samuel Cruz,
Carla Emerson , Lin Hamilton

Dear God, we place our worries in your hands. We place our sick under your care and humbly ask that you restore your servant to health again, Above all, grant us the grace to acknowledge your will and know that whatever you do, you do for the love of us. Amen

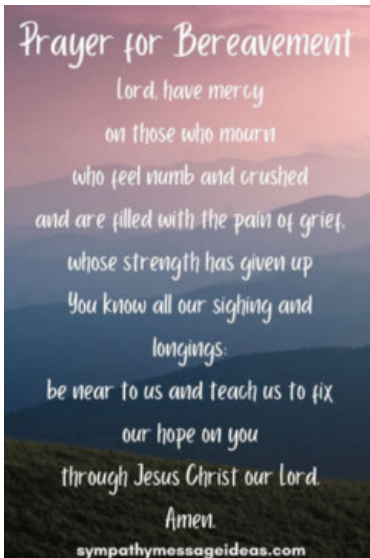

Call the Parish Office (see bulletin cover) to submit a name to the prayer list.

O Lord, look down with mercy on the Ukrainian people. Protect and save them from unjust aggressors who seek to subdue them. Grant them steadfast trust in your mercy and protection. Grant them peace and protection to the people of Ukraine. Give them strength and courage to defend what is good, right and holy. Keep them safe from harm and provide for all their needs, both temporal and spiritual. Amen

Let us remember the deceased in our prayers...

Ministries & Events

Holy Trinity Bereavement Ministry will be sponsoring a Grief Support at Holy Trinity beginning Tuesday, April 25 from 7:00-8:30pm in the Ministry of Consolation and Bereavement room on the second floor of the Parish Center. For more information or to sign up for the group please contact Dennis Carlson by email bereavement@holyltrinitysp.org or at (310) 548-4535 ext. 324

Holy Trinity is truly blessed to have a group of talented, creative, generous and "open to give it a try" men and women who make up the environment team. If you attended the liturgies between Palm Sunday and Easter, you may have noticed the decor changed 5 times.

This year I was so excited and grateful to have an infusion of creativity and help from Michelle Novotny and her husband David, Sylvia Hansen, Carol Stavers-Yohe, Paulette Davis, and members of my small church community, Rita Swartz, Virginia Grgas and Mary Jean Salcido.

Mary Jo Jackson, Ruby DiCarlo, Sally Moton, Barbara Gonzales, Danielle Cosgrove, Patty Winkler, Melissa DeMegio, Jerry Marcia, Gina Foster, John Cuccia, Mike Zimmer, Bob Sanchez once again shared their wonderful talents. Kathleen Schueller did a fantastic job in helping make new banners for Lent, Palm Sunday and Easter. That was 42 banners! Thanks Kathleen could not have done it without you!

A special thank you to Holy Trinity staff, Charles Lindeman for bringing in the lift to put up the banner over the baptismal font and putting up the sails by the organ pipes. Oro Markey, Luz Lopez and Manuela Navarro for washing towels and rugs, shampooing runners and always being there to help "clean it up again". Finally, the Kollmer sisters, Dolores and Carol, joined the "fun" and helped shampoo runners used around the font at the Easter Vigil.

It is truly an honor and pleasure to work with each of you. Thank you!
Annette Lenneman

"We're Having A Baby Shower! Holy Trinity will be having a baby shower for the Harbor Pregnancy Help Center on Mother's Day, Sunday, May 14th. Donations most needed are diapers size 1to 4, baby wipes, new or gently used clothing size 1-4, and baby blankets. Please bring them to Mass with you on the weekend of May 14th. There will be a table available inside the church for you to place your items. On behalf of the young moms and toddlers receiving these items, thank you. "

If you have any questions, please call me.

Thanks & God Bless, Patty

CROWNING OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

FEAST OF ST. JOSEPH,
THE WORKER
BLESSING OF THE HANDS

On Monday, May 1st at the 8:00 AM Mass, the large statue of our Blessed Virgin Mary will be crowned for the month of May. Flowers will adorn that shrine for the month in honor of Our Lady. The daily 8:00 Rosary Group and the Monday Night Marion Novena will sponsor the florals for the month. The crowning will take place prior to the start of the Mass. Please ensure a prompt arrival as not to miss the occasion. We will have music for the Crowning and Mass by Augie Castagnola.

Also, May 1st is the Feast Day for St. Joseph, the Worker. St Joseph was venerated by the Catholic Church as a patron saint of workers. We especially welcome craftsmen to come and have their hands blessed at Mass. Craftsmen include, but are not limited to carpenters, bricklayers, tile-setters, painters, framers, and roofers. All are welcome.

Following the Mass, please join us outside in the gathering area for fellowship and a light breakfast.

WEEKLY PRAYERS

WEEKLY CONTENT GUIDE

3rd Sunday of Easter / April 23, 2023

SUNDAY'S READINGS

First Reading:

"This man, delivered up by the set plan and foreknowledge of God,
you killed, using lawless men to crucify him.
But God raised him up, releasing him from the throes of death, because it was impossible for him to be held by it." (Acts 2:23-24)

Psalm:

Lord, you will show us the path of life. (Ps 16)
Or Alleluia.

Second Reading:

Conduct yourselves with reverence during the time of your so-journing, realizing that you were ransomed from your futile conduct,
handed on by your ancestors,
not with perishable things like silver or gold
but with the precious blood of Christ as of a spotless unblemished lamb. (1 Pt 1:17-19)

Gospel:

And it happened that, while he was with them at table,
he took bread, said the blessing,
broke it, and gave it to them.
With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him, but he vanished from their sight. (Lk 24:30-31)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

It wasn't until Christ spoke the words of blessing over the bread that the eyes of the disciples were opened, and they saw him for who he was — God in flesh and blood before them. The Eucharist makes real what we otherwise would fail to see.

Observances for the week of April 23, 2023

Sunday: 3rd Sunday of Easter
Monday: St. Fidelis of Sigmaringen, Priest and Martyr
Tuesday: St. Mark, Evangelist
Wednesday: Administrative Professionals' Day

Saturday: St. Catherine of Siena, Virgin and Doctor of the Church

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

I always feel a little sad when someone begins to speak to me with the words, "Father, I know you're so busy, but ..." It happens a lot. And I get it. He or she is trying to be respectful of my time. But it saddens me because a priest makes Jesus present to people in a special way, and Jesus always has time for us. Don't we all feel at times that God just doesn't have time for us?

Nonsense. Just look at the stunning "Road to Emmaus" story we hear this week. It's the day Jesus rose from the dead. And the Risen One appears in disguise to two disciples. He walks with them, chats with them, and eventually eats with them. It could have been hours he spends with them — two unnamed persons — in the middle of nowhere. On the day he rose from the dead!

My friends, please take this to heart: The Risen Jesus is not too busy to spend time with you! He doesn't have "better things to do." You and I are members of this crucified and risen Body. He therefore has all the time in the world to be with us. So, I challenge you this week to approach him confidently in prayer and conversation. After all, being with you and me is the reason he rose from the dead.

— Father John Muir

And it happened that, while [Jesus] was with them at table, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him, but he vanished from their sight. - Lk 24:30-31

Our Lady of Good Counsel

O Holy Virgin, to whose feet we are led by our anxious uncertainty in our search for and attainment of what is true and good, invoking you by the sweet title of Mother of Good Counsel, we beseech you to come to our assistance, when, along the road of this life, the darkness of error and of evil conspires towards our ruin by leading our minds and our hearts astray.

O Seat of Wisdom and Star of the Sea, enlighten the doubtful and the erring, that they be not seduced by the false appearances of good; render them steadfast in the face of the hostile and corrupting influences of passion and of sin.

O Mother of Good Counsel, obtain for us from your Divine Son a great love of virtue, and, in the hour of uncertainty and trial, the strength to embrace the way that leads to our salvation.

If your hand sustains us, we shall walk unmolested along the path indicated to us by the life and words of Jesus, our Redeemer; and having followed freely and securely, even in the midst of this world's strife, the Sun of Truth and Justice under your maternal Star, we shall come to the enjoyment of full and eternal peace with you in the haven of salvation.

Amen.

We pray especially for the intention in this novena of (Mention your request here)

Safeguard The Children

Did You Know?

Understanding the VIRTUS® "Protecting God's Children" program

Child sexual abusers often target nurturing, child-friendly environments, where parents and participants assume that no one would ever want to harm a child. The Archdiocese of Los Angeles began implementing the VIRTUS® Protecting God's Children sexual abuse prevention program in 2004 to send a message to potential predators that child sexual abuse is not tolerated. Through this program, adults learn that through early identification, awareness, and education they can be "proactive" in protecting children and young people from child sexual abuse. Since the program began, more than 405,000 adults have been trained in abuse prevention. Additionally, more than 165,000 Catholic school and religious education students are trained annually with an age-appropriate curriculum on boundary awareness and how to communicate if violations of those safe boundaries occur. For more information, visit <https://lacatholics.org/education-and-training/>.

The Archdiocese of Los Angeles is committed to ensuring that parishes, schools and ministries are safe places for everyone in our community. For more information about support for victim-survivors and abuse prevention and protection efforts of the Archdiocese, visit: lacatholics.org/protect.

Alma Backyard Farms

"Sneak Preview"

Sunday 4/23/23

This Sunday, April 23, 8am until 1:00pm, Alma Backyard Farms will open their second location to preview "what is yet to come" for all parishioners. The second location is literally in Holy Trinity's backyard, just across the alley from the gathering area. That will be the only access to the Farm at this time. No Sepulveda access. Coffee and doughnuts will be provided by the Faith Enrichment Library.

Stop in and meet Richard and Erica Garcia, the co-founders of Alma Backyard Farms and all their workers. Learn their story and know that their commitment to our faith has brought them success in their project and abundant blessings to thousands. In fact, recently Alma Backyard Farms was awarded "Heroes of the Week" by KNX CBS Los Angeles for their project.

Hopefully, you can visit and discover the blessings and beauty which we are privileged to have on our church property.

Take your FAITH ON A JOURNEY.
