Pastor's Note “ News from Nolan”

Dear Parishioners,

As we gather again to celebrate Thanksgiving in 2023, I am filled with an overwhelming sense of gratitude and joy for our blessings. This year has brought challenges, but it has also shown us the strength of our faith and the power of our community. In a world that often seems divided and uncertain, our congregation has remained a steadfast source of love and support. I want to express my deepest thanks to all of you for your unwavering commitment to our spiritual family.

This Thanksgiving, let us take a moment to reflect on the blessings in our lives and give thanks for them. Let us also remember those who are less fortunate and extend a helping hand to them. May we continue to be a beacon of hope and love in our community.

Wishing you all a blessed Thanksgiving!

Peace, Fr. Kevin

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

She brings him good, and not evil,
all the days of her life.
She obtains wool and flax
and works with loving hands. (Prv 31:12-13)

Psalm:

Blessed are those who fear the Lord. (Ps 128)

Second Reading:

But you, brothers and sisters, are not in darkness,
for that day to overtake you like a thief.
For all of you are children of the light and children of the day. (1 Thes 5:4-5)

Gospel:

"Since you were faithful in small matters,
I will give you great responsibilities.
Come, share your master's joy." (Mt 25:21)

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

When I was a kid, I hated playing Monopoly because my siblings and friends always seemed to win. But worse was how it happened. Scared to risk my fake money on buying properties, I'd hold on to it. My opponents hungrily bought up the various real estate squares on the board. Then, inevitably, my poor, low-equity self would land on their spots, pay them rent, and my money would drain to zero. It seemed so unfair. The rich get richer, and the poor get poorer. I had to learn that monopoly money is meant to be spent. I was scared to lose some of it. So, I lost all of it.

How do we see what we possess? Jesus' parable about the talents is not really about economics but about the investability of everything he entrusts to us. How marvelous that everyone in the fable who places talents in the open market doubles their investment. The only one who doesn't is the man who fearfully buries his one talent. Jesus' success strategy for us seems to be, whatever we have, get it out of our possession. Risk it as quickly and as fully as we can.

You and I have precious gifts. We have valuable things to invest — time, talents, treasure. The Lord invites us to be brave and even somewhat reckless, to give as much away as possible. If we give it away in the direction of love and truth, it will grow. If we hold on to it in fear, the little we have will be taken away. Let me challenge you this week: find something in your life you're holding on to, and risk it by giving it away. It won't double if you hold on to it.

— Father John Muir

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

As for you, my sheep, says the Lord GOD,
I will judge between one sheep and another,
between rams and goats. (Ez 34:17)

Psalms:

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.
(Ps 23)

Second Reading:

When everything is subjected to him,
then the Son himself will also be subjected to the one who subjected everything to him, so that God may be all in all. (1 Cor 15:28)

Gospel:

"When the Son of Man comes in his glory,
and all the angels with him,
he will sit upon his glorious throne,
and all the nations will be assembled before him.
And he will separate them one from another,
as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats."
(Mt 25:31-32)

Saint of the week

Blessed Carlos Manuel or, Blessed Charlie, was a Puerto Rican layman who dedicated his life to serving the Church. He worked and studied diligently to spread his love of the Catholic faith, especially the liturgy and sacred music to all those he touched.

Prayer

Oh God, Father of Goodness, who inspired Blessed Carlos Manuel with an ardent devotion to the Paschal Mystery and moved by the generosity of Your grace, led him to the joyful celebration of the mysteries celebrated in the Liturgy; You also filled your servant with apostolic zeal and love for those in need.

Grant us, through his intercession, that, celebrating with faith the holy mysteries of the Death and Resurrection of Your Son, we may live in life what we celebrate in the Liturgy. Grant us, too, the special grace that we now ask of you (ask for the grace that is desired).

Through Jesus Christ your Son and our Lord. Amen.

COMING SOON —GIFTS AT THE MANGER

Baskets of colorful angels labeled with gift requests from local agencies will be placed at the foot of the altar on Saturday, November 25th and Sunday November 26th.

The agencies are:

- | | | |
|----------------------------------|----------------------|---------------|
| ♦ Sisters of Charity | Rolling Hills | Orange |
| ♦ Harbor Pregnancy Center | Wilmington | Blue |
| ♦ Curt's Kitchen | San Pedro | Yellow |
| ♦ Christian Service | Holy Trinity | Red |

If you wish to participate, choose your angel, fill the request and return the gift unwrapped to the manger by Sunday, December 10. Gifts may also be placed in the collection bin by the elevator in the Parish Center lobby.

Thanksgiving Day Mass 9:00 a.m.

Called to care for others, we generously give from our abundance to those who have little.

Holy Trinity's long established tradition of bringing non-perishable food items to our Thanksgiving Day Mass continues next Thursday, November 24, at 9:00 a.m.

Please remember that the giving of our food items is a part of the liturgy and that all gifts should be held in the pews until it is time to bring them forward in procession and placed in the food bins. This ritual action occurs after the homily and intercessions at the Presentation of the Gifts.

After Mass you are also asked to help take the food items down to the parish center auditorium so they may be prepared for distribution.

HOLY TRINITY SCHOOL NONDISCRIMINATION POLICY 2023-2024

SCHOOL STUDENT NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY

Spanish Version Available Here \(Clickable link\)

The school, mindful of its mission to be a witness to the love of Christ for all, admits students regardless of race, color, national origin, and/or ethnic origin to all rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school.

The school does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, disability, medical condition, sex, or national and/or ethnic origin in the administration of educational policies and practices, scholarship programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs, although certain athletic leagues and other programs may limit participation and some archdiocesan schools operate as single-sex schools.

While the school does not discriminate against students with special needs, a full range of services may not always be available to them. Decisions concerning the admission and continued enrollment of a student in the school are based upon the student's emotional, academic, and physical abilities and the resources available to the school in meeting the student's needs.

[Note that this School Student Non-Discrimination Policy does not provide nor imply that the archdiocese waives any legal exceptions or exemptions that may apply to it as a religious nonprofit organization.]

This Catholic Elementary School publishes the above policy in the staff and parent/student handbooks, public relations/recruitment brochures and in other publications such as the parish bulletin and school newspaper. The school also publishes applicable grievance procedures in the staff and parent/student handbooks.

Safeguard The Children

Did You Know?

Understanding the VIRTUS® "Protecting God's Children" program

Child sexual abusers often target nurturing, child-friendly environments, where parents and participants assume that no one would ever want to harm a child. The Archdiocese of Los Angeles began implementing the VIRTUS® Protecting God's Children sexual abuse prevention program in 2004 to send a message to potential predators that child sexual abuse is not tolerated. Through this program, adults learn that through early identification, awareness, and education they can be "proactive" in protecting children and young people from child sexual abuse. Since the program began, more than 405,000 adults have been trained in abuse prevention. Additionally, more than 165,000 Catholic school and religious education students are trained annually with an age-appropriate curriculum on boundary awareness and how to communicate if violations of those safe boundaries occur. For more information, visit <https://lacatholics.org/education-and-training/>.

The Archdiocese of Los Angeles is committed to ensuring that parishes, schools and ministries are safe places for everyone in our community. For more information about support for victim-survivors and abuse prevention and protection efforts of the Archdiocese, visit: lacatholics.org/protect.

5-Day Smokeless Candles

All candles for use in the church can be purchased for $4 each after all weekday morning Masses (see Carmela Tripp) and during operating hours from the parish office (209 N. Hanford Ave.). These are the only permitted candles to be used in the church. Other candles used will be removed as they are made with a cheaper type of wax which cause smoke damage.

Attention Sunday Lectors

The new English lector workbooks (for Lectors only please) are now available for pick up in the parish office (209 N. Hanford Ave.). The new cycle A year will begin next Sunday, December 3rd, the first Sunday of Advent. Do not delay in picking up your workbook.

If you have any questions regarding training or the workbook call Dr. Joy Jones at 310-548-6535, ext. 317.

Coffee & Donuts

Please join us to share in building community here at Holy Trinity! We will be distributing FREE donuts and coffee/tea after the 8:30a and 10a masses today. Please stop and take a few minutes to see old friends from the church or meet new ones! Donations will be accepted and very much appreciated to keep this ministry going for our parish.
