Dear Brothers & Sisters,

Happy New Year to you! In everything, our faith tells us that we must always give thanks and praise to God, the Father Almighty. I am thankful to Him for His many blessings upon us as a parish family. I must confess that your love and support has been immense. Each and every moment I never fail to marvel at what a wonderful family we have at Holy Trinity Parish and what wonderful people you are. I am very proud to be your brother, friend and pastor. I reserve my thanks and appreciation to you all. I am proud to have the privilege of working with all of you. I sincerely thank you for your sacrifices and commitment to our parish. I pray that God will bless and reward you for your dedication and devotion to our beloved parish. Thank you also for your tolerance, patience, understanding, goodwill and prayers. This continues to be a great source of strength and support for me. Thank you for your benevolence and cooperation ~ your words of comfort and compliments ~ your constructive criticisms and useful advices. Your strong faith, your smiles and laughter always lift my spirit! Your support and cooperation are a source of strength that builds our parish into a Holy Trinity family of love and unity. Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

I remember the first time my older sister asked me if I wanted to hold her newborn son. Terrified, I told her I didn't think it was a good idea. My résumé had nothing to suggest I would be a qualified baby holder. But she warmly told me, "I'll help you hold him." It struck me that she is baby's mother. She is the one who decides who is qualified to hold him. I took him in my arms and soon I began to feel comfortable with that tiny little warm cooing creature in my arms, and soon I no longer feared holding him. Now, twenty-seven nieces and nephews later, holding a newborn child is one of the great joys of my life.

Do we sometimes think that Jesus is given only to the highly qualified, special religious people? In the Gospel of Luke today we hear about the presentation of the Lord in the temple. The newborn son of God is passed around like a baton in a relay race, not guarded like a precious jewel or a breakable china dish. We can see him going from the arms of Mary to Joseph, then to the priest performing the ceremony, then to Simeon the old man, then to Anna the old widow. Each one receiving him and then handing him to the next. A tidal wave of joy and thanksgiving follows wherever he is placed.

Believe me, you are qualified to hold Jesus in your arms. How can I say that with such confidence? Because the mother decides who is qualified. The Blessed Virgin, embodied in the Church, holds him out to you and me. She rejoices to place him in our arms to hold, and to hand him on, too.

— Father John Muir

Good Books to read:

Tattoos on the Heart....the Power of Boundless Compassion by Father Gregory Boyle, the Founder of Homeboy Industries. The book talks about real life stories of young boys and girls caught in the gang lifestyle ...which includes Biblical quotes related to some cases...A very excellent read for parents and adults who work with youth. His work is amazing, and his unbounded love of Jesus saves many of the young person's lives. If you have seen the Father Flanagan story of Boys Town on TCM, it is in some ways similar. I highly recommend it. It can be purchased on Amazon for $11.59

Guadalupe Mysteries: is a beautiful science-based book on our Lady of Guadalupe, which is printed in color. You learn more about the image in which scientists have studied and are amazed! Included is the history of Mexico at the time of her apparition. Non-Catholic scientists explain their findings. It is a very comprehensive book; when you read it, it will enhance your knowledge of this magnificent gift by God for all people. There are photographs and findings that one has not seen before. It is available through Amazon for about $20 and through The Catholic Company, but is a bit more expensive. If you would like further information, you can contact me...Eva Ybarra, 310-548-8194

Safeguard The Children

Did You Know?

Understanding the VIRTUS® “Protecting God’s Children” program

Child sexual abusers often target nurturing, child-friendly environments, where parents and participants assume that no one would ever want to harm a child. The Archdiocese of Los Angeles began implementing the VIRTUS® Protecting God’s Children sexual abuse prevention program in 2004 to send a message to potential predators that child sexual abuse is not tolerated. Through this program, adults learn that through early identification, awareness, and education they can be “proactive” in protecting children and young people from child sexual abuse. Since the program began, more than 405,000 adults have been trained in abuse prevention. Additionally, more than 165,000 Catholic school and religious education students are trained annually with an age-appropriate curriculum on boundary awareness and how to communicate if violations of those safe boundaries occur. For more information, visit <https://lacatholics.org/education-and-training/>.

The Archdiocese of Los Angeles is committed to ensuring that parishes, schools and ministries are safe places for everyone in our community. For more information about support for victim-survivors and abuse prevention and protection efforts of the Archdiocese, visit: lacatholics.org/protect.
