OUR MISSION is to be a welcoming concerned community, expressed by our active loving involvement with each other, and our outreach to the world beyond, energized by a deepening liturgical and spiritual life.

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

I saw this reflection in "Sunday Preaching" by Rev. Charles Miller, C.M. published by Alba House and wanted to share it with you.

FAITH, LIKE LOVE, IS THE WAY TO SEE

We have a saying that "love is blind."

You might hear this statement at a wedding from young men who wonder how a beautiful bride could possibly see anything in a groom who is, in their judgement, much less handsome than they.

"What does she see in that guy?" they ask.

I believe it is a mistake to think that love is blind. I think that love, and love alone, can truly see all the wonderful qualities in a human person which those without love fail to perceive.

Love gives a vision, a deeper way of seeing.

Faith is something like that.

Faith, and faith alone, can truly see all the wonders of God.

In the Gospel of this Sunday Jesus gives us sight to a man who had been born blind.

Jesus' miracle in today's gospel is a symbol of faith which comes to us when we are washed in the water of baptism.

We were chosen like David in the first reading, and after our baptism we were anointed like him to share in the kingship of Christ.

Those without faith look at a fellow human being and see only a rational animal.

Those WITH FAITH see a child of God.

Those WITHOUT FAITH pick up a bible and find only words.

Those WITH FAITH discover the Word of God.

Those WITHOUT FAITH look at the Eucharist and see only bread and wine.

Those WITH FAITH experience the reality of the Lord's body given up for us and his blood poured out for us.

Those WITHOUT FAITH look at suffering and only see tragedy.

Those WITH FAITH believe that suffering is a sharing in the cross of Christ.

Those WITHOUT FAITH look at death and see separation and oblivion.

Those WITH FAITH accept death as a step which leads to a new, fuller life through the resurrection of Christ.

Question For Reflection

Do you see "faith" in your life? How?

Peace, Fr. Kevin

SPIRITUALLY 101: PREPARING FOR OUR PENANCE SERVICE THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN RECONCILIATION AND FORGIVENESS

Compared with reconciliation, forgiveness is a piece of cake. Forgiveness by God is, of course, a great and undeserved blessing.

Forgiveness and Reconciliation

Forgiveness is different from reconciliation. Forgiveness requires only one; a forgiver. Reconciliation takes at least two, a forgiver and a recipient. God will always forgive us, but we will not always accept the forgiveness. For example, the story of the prodigal son does not reveal whether the two sons were reconciled with their father, even though he forgave them both.

New Name for Sacrament of Penance

In the renewal of the Sacraments mandated by the Second Vatican Council (1965), the Sacrament of Penance received a new name: "Sacrament of Reconciliation". This was not done suddenly but was carefully studied for several years before Pope Paul VI approved the new name in 1973.

"Reconciliation" describes much more adequately the purpose of the Sacrament, which is to reconcile the sinner to God and to the Church, and to set the stage for reconciliation within the person, healing the wounds of sin.

Sin can be forgiven from the outside, but it has originated from the inside and must be healed from the inside.

Reconciliation with God and Community

Reconciliation is very different from simple forgiveness. Most of the time, a person entering the confessional has already been forgiven, because God forgives us the moment we turn to Him. There is an initial reconciliation with God at that same moment, but it may be very fragile. There may still be no reconciliation with the Church, the community of faith, and no healing of the fissure that has been opened in the heart of sin.

It is like going to the doctor with a tourniquet to stop profuse bleeding so that attention to the cause of the bleeding can be addressed and healing from the inside may begin.

Sin can be forgiven from the outside, but it has originated from the inside and must be healed from the inside. We may confess a lie, for example, and it is forgiven. But the lie did not spring up without roots. There was a cause, and the cause was a diseased organ, the heart. It doesn't help much to attend to the mouth that told the lie if there is no attention to the heart that spawned it.

During Lent we desire to open ourselves to the reconciliation that reunited us to God and to God's people and brings healing to the heart. Then the wonderful gift of divine forgiveness will be able to achieve its total purpose in freeing us from our sins.

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

Early and often did the LORD, the God of their fathers,
send his messengers to them,
for he had compassion on his people and his dwelling place.

But they mocked the messengers of God,
despised his warnings, and scoffed at his prophets,
until the anger of the LORD against his people was so inflamed
that there was no remedy. (2 Chr 36:15-16)

Psalm:

Let my tongue be silenced, if I ever forget you! (Ps 137)

Second Reading:

God, who is rich in mercy,
because of the great love he had for us,
even when we were dead in our transgressions,
brought us to life with Christ. (Eph 2:4-5)

Gospel:

For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son,
so that everyone who believes in him might not perish
but might have eternal life. (Jn 3:16)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Out of love for us, God sent His son into the world, to illuminate the truth that brings salvation. But light can be blinding to eyes that have only seen darkness. Pray that God will teach us to walk bravely in the light.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Our national pastime isn't baseball. It's what the Bible calls "condemning the world." We generally enjoy pronouncing curses upon those whom we see as trouble, wrong, or evil. Don't believe me? Listen to almost any podcast, cable news network, or social media platform to hear it. It will be some version of: "We all agree that if they are eradicated, things will be great." Condemning is almost always clothed in virtue. It basks in its good intentions. That's why it is so attractive. Condemning seems like our best path to saving what is good.

What a shock, then, to hear Jesus announce: "For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him" (Jn 3:17). He comes to save the world, as we all want, but he will accomplish it without an act of condemnation. How hard it is to accept this! Condemning feels godlike. I judge who and what must be lost to protect the good. But in the light of Jesus' endless mercy and love, this is the least godlike thing we can do.

Lenten challenge: This week, I invite you to give up the delicious experience of condemning whomever in the world you most would like to see gone. Perhaps write down their names. Secondly, I invite you to consider fasting from any media that feeds the tasty but deadly tendency to condemn.

— Father John Muir

Prayer for peace in Israel and Gaza

Let us pray for the many people whose lives have been torn apart by conflict in Gaza and Israel.

We remember especially those who have died, those who are grieving, the injured and those now without food, shelter or medical supplies.

We pray also for those who have the power to bring peace. May they be touched by a spirit of compassion and kindness.

Lord hear us.

Dear God, we place our worries in your hands. We place our sick under your care and humbly ask that you restore your servant to health again, Above all, grant us the grace to acknowledge your will and know that whatever you do, you do for the love of us. Amen

Church Parking Alert

Please be cautious and aware of your surroundings when you park at church or at the parish center. Protect your vehicle... Keep your valuables and possessions safe. Don't leave anything on display in your car. Even an old coat on the back seat is a temptation for someone to "smash & grab." Thieves steal first and think about valuables later. Remember to always lock your vehicle and secure all valuables in the trunk so that others cannot see your items and they will not be tempted.

Please be extra cautious as we have had a few incidents this month.
