OUR MISSION is to be a welcoming concerned community, expressed by our active loving involvement with each other, and our outreach to the world beyond, energized by a deepening liturgical and spiritual life.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I saw this reflection in "Exploring the Sunday Readings" published by Twenty-Third Publications and would like to share it with you.

How Does the Holy Spirit Work

"When the Spirit comes, the Spirit of truth, the Spirit will guide you to all the truth."

When we walk in the dark, we tend to bang up against all sorts of uncomfortable things.

The same thing happens when we walk in spiritual darkness.

We smash into all kinds of unhappy self-realizations and hurtful situations.

We harm ourselves, and we can do a lot of damage to the people we care about, when we choose to avoid the lighted path.

The Holy Spirit is the source of truth. But that indwelling - Spirit doesn't operate on autopilot.

It's a consultative process.

And the consultation has to result in collaboration or we're fooling ourselves.

The Spirit is like the electric company, and the electrician who built your house, and all the municipal collaborations necessary to bring light into a single room. All the power you need is assembled at your fingertips. But if you don't actually turn on the light, you'll be sitting in the dark.

Question for Reflection

What efforts do you make to turn on the light of truth: do you pray regularly, receive the Sacrament, do spiritual reading, attend bible study, go on retreat, share your faith?

Peace, Fr. Kevin

Congratulations Clem Pasquarella
for receiving the
Randy Davies Athletic Director of the year Award.
Thank you for your years of service and too many more years together.

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

"Whoever loves me will keep my word," Jesus tells his disciples, "and my Father...will come to him and make our dwelling with him." We know what's at stake. We know what we have to do. So when the Father comes, will He make His dwelling with us?

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

When I was a seminarian almost 20 years ago, a bank vice president taught us etiquette classes. She said, "Gentlemen, please make sure your breath isn't bad. Take some breath mints before you hear confessions, okay?" We nervously laughed because the proximity that makes breath noticeable (whether pleasant or not) can be a bit awkward.

When Jesus breathes on his Apostles (John 20:22), he must have been within inches of at least some of them. This closeness of his breath has a purpose: the purpose of forgiveness of sins. "Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them" (John 20:23). Why in the world would the almost uncomfortable closeness of his breath forgive sins?

In the Bible, breath is spirit or wind. It comes from above and makes that which is below to have identity. To not have a single identity is to be multiple, divided. The word "sin" comes from an ancient word that means "to split" or "render asunder." Sin divides us sinners and the world around us; our spiritual "breath" leaves us and our identity splinters. Only breath from above restores. For example, a shattered vase is rendered whole because the craftsman breathes the spirit of the vase back into it when he repairs it. A human being shattered by sin is made whole by the breath of God, breathed by Jesus through his priests. His breath alone forgives sins. It's always done with his gentle, loving closeness.

— Father John Muir

Safeguard The Children

Did You Know ?

Understanding the VIRTUS®

“Protecting God’s Children” program

Child sexual abusers often target nurturing, child-friendly environments, where parents and participants assume that no one would ever want to harm a child. The Archdiocese of Los Angeles began implementing the VIRTUS® Protecting God’s Children sexual abuse prevention program in 2004 to send a message to potential predators that child sexual abuse is not tolerated. Through this program, adults learn that through early identification, awareness, and education they can be “proactive” in protecting children and young people from child sexual abuse. Since the program began, more than 405,000 adults have been trained in abuse prevention. Additionally, more than 165,000 Catholic school and religious education students are trained annually with an age-appropriate curriculum on boundary awareness and how to communicate if violations of those safe boundaries occur. For more information, visit <https://lacatholics.org/education-and-training/>. The Archdiocese of Los Angeles is committed to ensuring that parishes, schools and ministries are safe places for everyone in our community. For more information about support for victim-survivors and abuse prevention and protection efforts of the Archdiocese, visit: lacatholics.org/protect.
