

20TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"There is a baptism with which I must be baptized, and how great is my anguish until it is accomplished! Do you think that I have come to establish peace on the earth? No, I tell you, but rather division. From now on a household of five will be divided, three against two and two against three." - Lk 12:50-52

OUR MISSION is to be a welcoming concerned community, expressed by our active loving involvement with each other, and our outreach to the world beyond, energized by a deepening liturgical and spiritual life.

✝ Nolan's Message ✝

Dear Brothers and Sister in Christ,

I saw this reflection in Living With Christ, published by Bayard Inc., written by Rev. George M. Smiga and wanted to share it with you.

Overcoming the Fear of Fire

When we come to Jesus, we do not expect fire. But this is what we receive in the Gospel reading for today.

Jesus announces that his mission is to set the world on fire and to cause divisions rather than peace. This seems so contrary to our understanding of Jesus. We usually see him as an agent of harmony and reconciliation. What is going on here? It is important to understand that Jesus is not encouraging violence or divisions on earth. Rather, he is describing what will often happen in our lives when we follow him. In the imperfect and often unjust world in which we live, speaking the truth, standing up for what is right, is not always welcome. It often causes fires.

Being a disciple does not mean that our attitude must always be docile and agreeable. Standing for what is right, even if it causes division, is compatible with the gospel. In fact, it is essential to it.

You tell your teenager that he cannot go to an unsupervised party with his friends. There is an angry comment, a slam of the bedroom door, and smoldering silence. You have made the right call, but now there is fire.

You terminate a worker whom you supervise because of long-standing negligence. She cleans out her desk and comes into your office to turn in her keys. Not a word is spoken, but you can see in her eyes the rejection and resentment. You have made the right decision, but you have also sent things ablaze.

You are out with friends when one of them cruelly demeans someone because of the person's religion, race, sexual orientation. For a minute you think you will let it pass, but then you speak out against the comment. Some of the people around you hear what you are saying, but others dismiss you as overly sensitive. You have said the right thing, but you have also caused division.

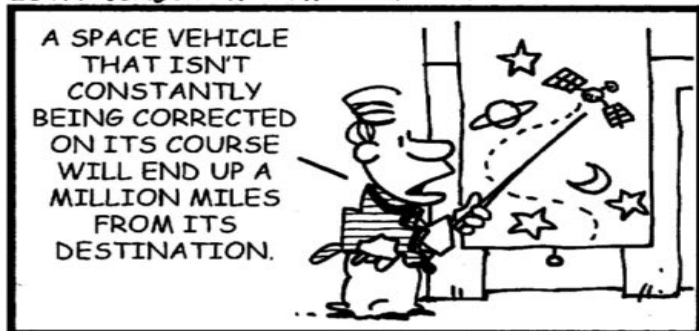

Speak the Truth

How wonderful it would be if following Jesus was easy. How satisfying it would be to speak the truth and be greeted with applause. But this is not the world which we live. That is why Jesus' words last Sunday are so important: "Do not be afraid any longer, little flock, for your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom." We can draw courage from Jesus' presence and overcome the fear of displeasing others, so that we can make the tough decisions necessary to build God's kingdom. None of us desires to anger or upset others. But avoiding unpleasant reactions cannot be our top priority. Our fundamental obligation is to speak truth and to make choices that foster God's will in our world.

If we do this, we will be following Jesus—even if we set things on fire.

Peace, Fr. Kevin

20TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

HOLY HUMOR

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

Then the king ordered Ebed-melech the Cushite to take three men along with him, and draw the prophet Jeremiah out of the cistern before he should die. (Jer 38:10)

Psalm:

Lord, come to my aid! (Ps 40)

Second Reading:

Since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us rid ourselves of every burden and sin that clings to us and persevere in running the race that lies before us. (Heb 12:1)

Gospel:

Jesus said to his disciples:
"I have come to set the earth on fire,
and how I wish it were already blazing!" (Lk 12:49)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Jesus tells us that he has come to set fire to the earth. What can we give him as kindling? Let us look into our souls and see where the fire of Christ can be ignited, and pray that our souls may be consumed by its life-giving flames.

Observances for the week of August 17, 2025

Next Sunday:	21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

During my baseball career, my best coach often said, "You shouldn't be worried if I yell at you. Be worried if I don't. If I stop pushing you, it means I don't think you have any more potential." He demanded a lot, and I knew it meant he saw that I could be something special on the baseball field.

Jesus says some demanding words to us this week. "Do you think I have come to establish peace on the earth?" he asks, "No, tell you, but rather division" (Luke 12:51). He wants you and me—in fact, all the earth—to participate in the luminous glory of God. That's why he speaks of himself as a divine arsonist. Divine fire is like a good coach: it demands the removal of all that obstructs the achievement of the lofty goal.

How is your life demanding right now? That inconvenient family situation, the unfair boss at work, the kids who reject their parents' wishes, the nagging health issue? Maybe things would be more peaceful devoid of these seemingly arbitrary difficulties. But for us who believe in the one who comes to set the earth of fire, we should be much more worried if he stops demanding so much from us. In fact, let's thank him for it. He sees how glorious we can become.

— Father John Muir

Supporting Holy Trinity and our mission is only a click away. We offer convenient online giving, so you never have to worry about leaving your cash or checkbook at home. You can make a one-time contribution or set up recurring gifts – a great option for members who are unable to attend Mass for one reason or another. Get started by visiting our online donation page.

For your convenience we have placed a QR code in the pew for you to click and give or you may click on this link: Online Giving - Holy Trinity Parish - San Pedro, CA \(holytrinitysp.org\) or visit www.holytrinitysp.org then click on the donate tab on the upper right corner. Thank you!
