

29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Will not God then secure the rights of his chosen ones who call out to him day and night? Will he be slow to answer them? I tell you, he will see to it that justice is done for them speedily. But when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?” - Lk 18:7-8

OUR MISSION is to be a welcoming concerned community, expressed by our active loving involvement with each other, and our outreach to the world beyond, energized by a deepening liturgical and spiritual life.

✝ Nolan's Message ✝

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I saw this reflection by Captured Fire and wanted to share it with you.

“Of the cup I drink, you shall drink,” says the Lord

Today's Gospel reading presents us with a fact about suffering that we don't often notice, a fact which we experience more often than we think. Suffering can be tragic; suffering can be oppressive. Our readings though, remind us that suffering can also be redemptive. The word “redemption” is a legal word from Old Testament times. It means ransom or exchange.

Suffering has a redemptive dimension to it that can bring salvation and release to others. We know that men and women who gave their lives in war helped to preserve our freedom. We know that people whose death in what seemed like senseless tragedies have caused us as a result to examine and improve how we build, how we live, how we drive, how we travel. We know how parents have to endure pain and suffering as they enable their children to grow and mature. We know that people in authority have to absorb much conflict to enable a cause or organization to continue and thrive. Suffering can be redemptive. The suffering of some can bring health, safety, peace and healing to many.

In the Gospel, Jesus is teaching a deeper truth about the redemption of the soul. He speaks to James, John and the rest of the Apostles and really to all of us as well. We might imagine that since Jesus died and rose from the dead, the price has been paid for our redemption and all we have to do is accept it into our lives. But we are not supposed to be simply consumers of Christ's redemption. We are to be partners with Christ in spreading the work of His redemption and that entails suffering. It is a suffering that is not in vain. We are all in the business of redemption. From all kinds of bondage, our suffering and sacrifice can truly help set others free.

For whom are you willing to suffer? For what cause might you be willing to give your life?

Peace Fr. Kevin

October 19th: World Mission Sunday: As we approach the celebration of World Mission Sunday on October 19, 2025. Pope Francis has given us a powerful theme that resonates deeply in this Jubilee Year: “Missionaries of Hope Among All Peoples.” In his message, the Holy Father reminds us that hope is at the heart of the Christian mission, calling every baptized person to be “messengers and builders of hope” in a world that often finds itself overshadowed by uncertainty and despair.

Reflecting on the significance of this Jubilee Year, Pope Francis urges us to keep our gaze fixed on Christ, the center of history, emphasizing that His mission continues today through the Church: “Through his disciples, sent to all peoples and mystically accompanied by him, the Lord Jesus continues his ministry of hope for humanity. He still bends over all those who are poor, afflicted, despairing and oppressed, and pours upon their wounds the balm of consolation and the wine of hope.”

October 25th: Holy Trinity School Fall Event - During this event there will be no parking in the main schoolyard parking lot.

November 1st: Feast of All Saints | Masses 9:00a.m. 4:30p.m. regular Saturday evening Mass.

November 2nd: All Souls Day. We invite all parishioners to remember that the Church gives us these Holy Days as an opportunity to set aside worldly distractions and refocus our lives on the Kingdom of God.

November 3rd: Our Annual Mass of Remembrance for all our departed brothers and sisters who have preceded us to the Kingdom. Will be celebrated on Monday, November 3rd, starting with a Rosary at 6:30 p.m. and Mass at 7:00 p.m. All are invited as we CELEBRATE our loved ones' birth into eternal life. In addition, we will have the usual 8:00 a.m. Mass.

All Souls Wall of Remembrance - If you would like to have the name of a family member or friend listed on the Wall of Remembrance and in our Novena of Masses, we ask that you PRINT the names on the All Souls envelopes and return them to the collection basket or Parish Office by October 30.

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

As long as Moses kept his hands raised up,
Israel had the better of the fight,
but when he let his hands rest,
Amalek had the better of the fight. (Ex 17:11)

Psalm:

Our help is from the Lord, who made heaven and earth. (Ps 121)

Second Reading:

Remain faithful to what you have learned and believed,
because you know from whom you learned it,
and that from infancy you have known
the sacred Scriptures,
which are capable of giving you wisdom for salvation
through faith in Christ Jesus. (2 Tm 3:14)

Gospel:

"Will not God then secure the rights of his chosen ones who call out to him day and night?
Will he be slow to answer them?
I tell you, he will see to it that justice is done for them speedily." (Lk 18:7)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

We are all the widow in Luke's Gospel. We are vulnerable. We feel small in the estimation of the world. We feel ignored. But Jesus is telling us to be bold in prayer, to bring our needs before the judge who will always hear our case.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

A woman in my parish has an adult son who has rejected his faith. She prays for him every day. She lights candles, says rosaries, and asks God again and again to bring him back. But nothing changes. Is God listening? Is He delaying? She told me once that she feels like the widow in Jesus' strange parable — crying out for justice, but hearing only silence. And yet, she said, she is at peace. I asked why. She responded, "God is already answering. I just can't see it yet."

She embodies something of the mystery in Jesus' parable this week in Luke 18. A powerless widow demands justice from a corrupt judge. This isn't about wearing God down until He gives in. It's about faith in the justice that is already coming. The widow isn't just persistent; she believes that justice is inevitable. And when Jesus points to the judge's words — his fear of being "struck" — He hints at something deeper: God's justice does not creep in gradually. It strikes. It comes like lightning.

Blessed Mary is, of course, the ultimate widow demanding justice. At the foot of the cross she stands before what looks like the ultimate injustice — the brutal execution of her son. But she did not despair. She did not beg for a last-minute rescue. She knew that justice was not delayed. In fact, it was happening. The power of the cross was already unleashing justice upon the world — suddenly, decisively, like a blow that would topple every corrupt power, making even the most corrupt fear her strike.

This parable asks us: will the Son of Man find faith on earth? Or will we mistake God's silence for absence? The cross proves that justice is not slow. It is only hidden. The lightning has already struck. In the cross, justice is speedily being done.

— Father John Muir

† Thanksgiving Mass †

Called to care for others, we generously give from our abundance to those who have little.

Holy Trinity's long - established tradition of bringing non-perishable food items to our Thanksgiving Day Mass, continues on Thursday, November 27th, at 9:00 am.

Kindly remember that the presentation of food items is a sacred part of our liturgy. We ask that all offerings remain with you until the designated time of the procession, at which point they may be brought forward and placed into the food bins.

This ritual action occurs after the homily and intercessions at the Presentation of the Gifts. If you prefer to donate a supermarket gift card, please write "Outreach" on the card, and turn in to the Parish Office.

Following Mass, we'd appreciate help carrying the food items down to the Parish Center auditorium, where they will be prepared for distribution.

The following items are needed and gratefully accepted at anytime throughout November.

Staples: cooking oil, peanut Butter, jams & jellies, spaghetti & pastas, instant mashed potatoes, cereal, cake mix & frosting, rice, oatmeal, and powdered milk.

Canned Foods: soup, broth, tuna, salmon, spam, pasta sauce, corn, green beans, gravy, canned fruit, mixed vegetables, sweet potatoes, tomatoes, and tomato sauce.

Thank you for your celebrated generosity!

✝ St. Frances Xavier Cabrini Pilgrimage ✝

St. Frances Xavier Cabrini Pilgrimage

On Sunday, November 9, 2025 the Italian Catholic Federation Branch #115 at Mary Star of the Sea Church is planning to attend the Annual Pilgrimage in honor of St. Frances Xavier Cabrini at the St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church in Burbank, California. A library with her memorabilia was built adjacent to the Chapel. Mass, rosary, procession and benediction will take place. Free bus transportation. The bus departs at 10:00 A.M. from the Boys and Girls Club. A luncheon will follow the mass. Price $30.00 per person. Call Barbara West (310) 548-1693 for additional information and reservations. All are welcome.

The Chapel was originally built in 1916 by Mother Cabrini when she returned to the Burbank area and it was located at the top of Mount Rafael. Mother Cabrini prayed daily in this Chapel. In 1952 the annual "pilgrimage" was started by the Los Angeles District of the Italian Catholic Federation with a procession to the top of the mountain reciting the rosary, singing and benediction. In 1973 the chapel was relocated at the bottom of the mountain on the church grounds to make way for new land developments. St. Frances Xavier Cabrini was born in Lodi, Italy in 1850. She took her religious vows in 1877 and founded the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart. Mother Cabrini arrived in New York in 1889 along with six other sisters. She first founded an orphanage in West Park, New York, this was the first of 67 institutions she founded throughout the United States, South America and Europe. She died in 1917 and was beatified in 1938 and canonized saint in 1946. She is the first American saint and patroness saint of all immigrants and the Italian Catholic Federation.
