OUR MISSION is to be a welcoming concerned community, expressed by our active loving involvement with each other, and our outreach to the world beyond, energized by a deepening liturgical and spiritual life.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I saw this story in Living Faith, published by Creative Communications and wanted to share it with you.

WE HAVE A CALLING

He called them and immediately they left their boat and their father and followed Him. Matthew 4:21-22

In today's Gospel, Jesus calls His first disciples. That is the basic call/vocation of each one of us. Peter and the others were called to break with their past and to help Jesus with his mission.

What are we called to? Simply, to continue the mission of Jesus. To make Him and His Gospel known and loved. It is often said: "You and I are the only Gospel some people will ever read." When they see us living the way Jesus taught - and joyfully - they will be inspired. And we will continue to be what Jesus was: "a light to those in darkness" (Isaiah 9:1).

As we begin a new calendar year, we don't want to be satisfied with merely "marking time." We want to be faithful, whole-hearted disciples of the Lord Jesus. Try to begin each day by asking: "What can I do today to reveal the love and compassion of Jesus to the people I will encounter?"

Peace, Fr. Kevin

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

The people who walked in darkness
have seen a great light; (Is 9:1)

Psalm:

The Lord is my light and my salvation. (Ps 27)

Second Reading:

I urge you, brothers and sisters, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ,
that all of you agree in what you say,
and that you be united in the same mind and in the same purpose. (1 Cor 1:10)

Gospel:

He left Nazareth and went to live in Capernaum by the sea,
in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali,
that what had been said through Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled. (Mt 4:13-14)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Peter and Andrew, James and John – they were not expecting God that day. But there he was, right in front of them, beckoning. God stands before us today, and like the Apostles, we often don't see him coming. But still, he beckons. Will we follow?

Observances for the week of January 25, 2026

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

I was 22 years old, lying in bed one night while on a pilgrimage, when I suddenly sensed an idea in my mind: “Go to the seminary.” There was no voice, no vision, but a gentle and unmistakable clarity. I simply prayed, “Lord, if that’s from you, let me find great joy in it.” Three days later, my heart was bursting with joy. I dropped everything and entered the seminary. The older I get, the stranger my rather careless and hasty departure seems to me. I followed not because it made sense, or because I was especially brave. I went because the Lord called me.

Something like this happens in today’s Gospel. Jesus walks by Simon, Andrew, James, and John and says, “Come after me” (Matthew 4:19). And immediately they leave their nets and follow. There’s no explanation, no hesitation ... just movement. Why? As St. John says, “In this is love: not that we have loved God, but that he loved us” (1 John 4:10). They do not leave their nets because his call made perfect, calculable sense. They left them because they were called. And Jesus’ call is powerful.

Take a moment this week to remember when Christ first called you. However small or quiet it was, recall it, and give thanks. The more we marvel that Christ has called us personally, the more passionately and freely we will follow him.

— Father John Muir

Faith: Trusting in the God who waits for you.

For nearly one hundred years the retreats at Mater Dolorosa Retreat Center have invited participants into a faithful, trusting relationship with the God who waits for us. This year's retreat, Trusting in the God who Waits for You, the focus on faith as openness to the heart of God who waits long and always lovingly --- to touch our own hearts in deep and abiding relationship. God does not shout. God is present to us in what we see as graced moments, often in hindsight.

The Center provides a private room and bath, delicious meals, beautifully landscaped grounds and the guidance of the Passionist Retreat Team. The atmosphere of this silent, preached retreat will lay paths for this exploration. Mater Dolorosa Passionist Retreat Center invites the WOMEN of this parish to join on this epic adventure to the interior of our souls.

The date is: January 30-February 1, 2026. Reservations can be made directly at: <https://materdolorosa.org/calendar/>
