OUR MISSION

St. George Catholic Church Parish is an open loving parish community united by our faith in Jesus Christ. Located within the Diocese of Baton Rouge, we are closely bound to our diocesan family and the universal Roman Catholic Church. Our prayerful liturgies are community celebrations shaped by a tradition of over one hundred years of Eucharistic worship on this site. Guided by the Holy Spirit, we are called to use our gifts to express our praise, love, and thanksgiving to God. We challenge and support one another in humbly living the gospel message and serving the common good as witnesses of Jesus Christ.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

October 17, 2021

29TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

Gospel Reflection by William Barclay (The New Daily Study Bible)

James and John asked Jesus, "Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left." (Mark 10:37)

On one occasion during the American Revolutionary War, preparations were being made for an up-coming battle. A man dressed in civilian clothes passed a corporal who was screaming orders at his men. Seeing that they were obviously exhausted from their labor, the man asked the corporal, "Why don't you help them?" "Sir," the corporal bristled as his anger rose, "I am a corporal!"

With a quick apology, the stranger took off his coat, rolled up his sleeves and set to work with the soldiers. "Mr. Corporal, Sir," he said when the task was completed, "whenever you need someone to help with a job, feel free to call on your commander-in-chief. I will be happy to be of service." With that, George Washington put on his coat and left. Whether his motivation was gospel-driven or not, Washington understood that those who aspire to greatness or rank first among others must serve the needs of all.

Incidents like this one continue to surprise because the message of today's gospel has yet to find a realistic foothold in our society. Who among us looks for greatness in small places or within menial ministries? There is a timeless quality in Jesus' lesson on ambition, authority and service; perhaps this is so because the problem is ever with us.

Jesus turns human expectations about rank and privilege upside down.

The basic trouble is that it is human nature to want to do as little as possible and to get as much as possible. It is only when we are filled with the desire to put into life more than we take out that life for ourselves and for others will be happy and prosperous. Rudyard Kipling has a poem called 'Mary's Son' which is advice on the spirit in which work must be done:

If you stop to find out what your wages will be

And how they will clothe and feed you,

Willie, my son, don't you go to the Sea,

For the Sea will never need you.

If you ask for the reason of every command,

And argue with people about you,

Willie, my son, don't you go on the Land,

For the Land will do better without you.

If you stop to consider the work that you've done

And to boast what your labour is worth, dear,

Angels may come for you, Willie, my son.

But you'll never be wanted on earth dear!

The world needs people whose ideal is service –that is to say it needs people who have realized what sound sense Jesus spoke. To clinch his words Jesus pointed to his own example. With such powers as he had, he could have arranged life entirely to suit himself, but he had spent himself and all his powers in the service of others. He had come, he said, to give his life a ransom for many.

Occasions for serving others are part of each believer's daily experience. Parents, teachers, civil servants, managers of every kind, pastoral leaders, must all be servants, as Jesus was a servant. The closer we are to Jesus, the more we are expected to mirror him.

One woman's insight into the possibilities for service is embroidered on a little plaque that hangs above her kitchen sink: "Apostolic service is rendered here, three times a day!"

Written By William Barclay

Hello there! My name is Scott Johnson. I am a proud to call myself Catholic, St. George parishioner, husband, father, the great-great grandson of the first person married in the St. George chapel who was also the first teacher at St. George school, and the current St. George Fair Chairman.

In 2004 when our oldest daughter started kindergarten at St. George, me and my wife Shelley were excited to get more involved with activities at St. George. This is when I "discovered" the opportunity to volunteer for the St. George Fair. This single event was so incredible in my eyes because it brought; and continues to bring, our faith community together to both develop and nurture friendships as well as raise money for improvements for both our church and school.

What a wonderful decision it was to get involved with the Fair! Over the years it has been so incredible to get to know the people I sit next to in church and the parents of children who were friends with my children at school. My desire to "give back" to St. George ultimately provided me with the opportunity to start serving as the Fair chairman in 2011 and still today I am happy to serve as the chairman. I continue to be inspired to remain a part of this event because of the INCREDIBLE people who generously volunteer their time to make this event happen year after year. These volunteers include parents and grandparents of students, medical professionals, bankers, IT professionals, audiologists, industrial specialists, electricians, CPAs, and parishioners who continue to come out year after year to share in the experience that we call our fair.

Even though my kids are no longer at St. George School I continue to support this wonderful event and ask that you consider doing the same by volunteering a little of your time in support of our St. George School and Church Fair. There are certainly lots of things to keep us busy these days but how many events help us unplug and spend time with family while "giving back"? I ask that you to please consider being actively involved with teaching our children and grandchildren how to stay connected with our faith community. Lead by example and volunteer.

Our fair opens in a little over a week and we still have roughly 50% of the volunteer slots still open. Please visit www.stgeorgefair.com to sign up and volunteer today.

Your brother in Christ,
Scott Johnson

PS. Check out these old pictures from the St George fair (before color existed), let's do our part to leave a legacy.

THE CURE D'ARS: ST. JEAN-MARIE BAPTISTE VIANNEY

BY: FRANÇOIS TROCHU

St. Jean Vianney is a saint that I have an immense devotion towards. Through his holiness and piety he turned a town from sin to holiness. This book is a detailed account of his life and an interesting biography

VOCATIONS

Jesus teaches us to live optimistically. If it weren't for the peak experiences of love, the small and sometimes big miracles in our lives, we could disappear. Thank God our doubts of faith ultimately strengthen our love. And just as true, our doubts that God could call us to His priesthood or religious life also demand an act of faith. If you feel a call to this, contact Father Josh Johnson at (225) 336-8778, jjohnson@diobr.org, or visit www.diobr.org/vocations.
