OUR MISSION

St. George Catholic Church Parish is an open loving parish community united by our faith in Jesus Christ. Located within the Diocese of Baton Rouge, we are closely bound to our diocesan family and the universal Roman Catholic Church. Our prayerful liturgies are community celebrations shaped by a tradition of over one hundred years of Eucharistic worship on this site. Guided by the Holy Spirit, we are called to use our gifts to express our praise, love, and thanksgiving to God. We challenge and support one another in humbly living the gospel message and serving the common good as witnesses of Jesus Christ.

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

April 30, 2023

4TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Where do you turn to when you're looking for answers to perplexing questions about your life? Although Google is helpful in looking up about facts, data, and information, the search comes up empty when we are looking for answers to deeper personal questions about our purpose in life, why we suffer, why we need forgiveness, and our call to love.

A little boy named Emanuele made the headlines in Catholic news when he was looking for an answer to a question that saddened him. Pope Francis was visiting a local Italian parish and allowed children to ask questions. When Emanuele approached the microphone to ask his question, he froze and burst into tears and said, "I can't." The Pope encouraged him, "Come, come to me, Emanuele.

Come and whisper it in my ear." The little boy approached the Pope and whispered his question into his ear. Little Emanuele was in tears, and the Pope embraced him and consoled him. The Pope asked his permission to tell others what he asked him and revealed that Emanuele's dad had recently died. He was the father of four children and despite being a non-believer, he had all his children baptized as Catholics. Emanuele's question for the Pope was, "My dad was a good man. Is dad in heaven?"

In preparing to answer the little boy's question, Pope Francis asked everyone to ponder what God is like and what kind of heart God has. He said, "God has a dad's heart. And with a dad who was not a believer, but who baptized his children...do you think God would be able to leave him far from himself?...Does God abandon his children when they are good?" The children responded a resounding, "No!" The Pope told the boy, "There, Emanuele, that is the answer. God surely was proud of your father, because it is easier as a believer to baptize your children than to baptize them when you are not a believer. Surely this pleased God very much." Pope Francis encouraged Emanuel to "talk to your dad; pray to your dad."

Pope Francis was a good shepherd to little Emanuele, leading this lost and dejected sheep back to the safety of the sheepfold. The interaction between little Emanuele and Pope Francis reminds me of the lyrics of the hymn:

I heard the voice of Jesus say, "Come unto Me and rest; Lay down, thou weary one, lay down, Thy head upon My breast." I came to Jesus as I was, Weary and worn and sad; I found in Him a resting-place, And He has made me glad.

In today's Gospel passage, Our Lord said, "I am the good shepherd. A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep." A shepherd is someone who grows up knowing, caring, and protecting a flock of sheep. He was born for that noble, lonely, and dangerous role; and the shepherd is committed to his sheep. We call Jesus the Good Shepherd because he not only took many risks for his flock, but he also died defending it. One of the earliest paintings in the Roman catacombs represents Jesus as carrying an injured sheep on his shoulders.

Our Lord is a shepherd who understands us and whose patience and love are infinite. He is always ready to go out and search after us. When we face difficult times, illness, and crosses, his consoling voice is constantly reaching out to us. Yet there are men and women in our lives who either through no fault of their own or through their own fault do not hear his voice and do not know or follow him. Our Lord desires for us to be his co-workers in the vineyard to bring lost and non-believing souls to him. The best way for us to teach about Jesus is by the way we live our lives. When others see in us the compassion we have for others and the joy in our lives because of our relationship with Jesus, then they will want to know the root of our joy. We also need to pray for those who do not know Jesus and ask the Holy Spirit to open their hearts and minds. We pray that we will know the right time and have the courage to invite a person to enter a relationship with the Lord.

Jesus said in the scriptures that all of heaven rejoices over one sinner who repents. We need not be surprised or discouraged if we are rejected in our efforts, for even Our Lord was rejected. Was there a time when you were far away from the Lord and someone helped you come back to the Lord by their patient and persistent kindness? Let us ask Our Lord to help us become a good shepherd -- someone who is patient, kind, compassionate, selfless, and on fire with the Lord. What a joy would it be for that thirsty soul who finally finds rest and peace in Our Lord, just as the hymn explains,

I heard the voice of Jesus say, "Behold, I freely give the living water; thirsty one, Stoop down and drink and live." I came to Jesus, and I drank of that life-giving stream.

My thirst was quenched, my soul revived, and now I live in Him.

Ever Wonder About...

GENUFLECTING & KNEELING

Question:

Does it matter what leg you kneel on when genuflecting?

Answer:

Genuflection is an act of devotion that literally means "to bend the knee." For many Catholics, it's an almost automatic gesture that we perform before entering our pew or row of seats at Mass. But, like many of the symbols and gestures of our faith tradition, genuflecting can also be an invitation for deeper reflection.

The practice of "bending the knee" is an ancient way of recognizing the presence of someone greater than we are. It has been said that the practice dates back to the time of Alexander the Great, but it became a common part of etiquette in the royal courts of the Middle Ages. From throne rooms and palaces, it was a small step to genuflecting, becoming part of the devotional lives of Christians who used this secular gesture as a way of recognizing the presence of the One who is King of Kings, especially in the Eucharist. In our tradition, although many have been taught or prefer to genuflect by placing their right knee on the ground, there is no prescribed way to genuflect. This is especially important to keep in mind if physical limitations or age make certain movements difficult for us.

Today, Catholics are asked to genuflect in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament (whether in the tabernacle or exposed on the altar during eucharistic adoration). So, while it has become second nature to genuflect before entering your seat in church, we should pay attention to where the Blessed Sacrament is kept in each church or chapel we visit, and genuflect in the direction of the tabernacle where the Blessed Sacrament is kept. In churches or chapels in which the tabernacle is in a separate space, we are invited to simply bow toward the altar.

OFFICE OF LIFE, PEACE & JUSTICE

In an effort to embrace and welcome the members of our Church with special needs and their families, the Diocese of Baton Rouge has begun hosting Sensory-Friendly Masses.

These Masses include lower lighting, softer music, and shorter, more literal homilies; however, the biggest difference is that they offer an environment free of stigma. We encourage families and individuals to get up and move if needed, to bring alternative seating, fidgets or noise cancelling headphones, and to participate in the liturgy just as they are.

PRISON MINISTRY

Want to participate in a prison visit co-hosted by Parole Project and The Frederick Douglass Project?

The Parole Project, a local organization helping men and women with reentry into the community after incarceration and prison reform advocacy efforts, is partnering with the Frederick Douglass Project in a flagship prison visitation program. This powerful experience offers structured meetings, and respectful conversations between the incarcerated and visitors in the group. These unique encounters form powerful connections, and spur empathy and understanding for both groups as they learn from each other and hopefully transform both of their lives and the society at large.

Visits are held twice monthly on Fridays from 12 pm until 3:30 pm.

Upcoming Visitation Dates: May 12 & 26 June 9 & 23

To participate, please contact Matthew Pineda: matthew@paroleproject.org

VOLUNTEER WITH PAROLE PROJECT

When formally incarcerated individuals reenter our community, they need support and help navigating the skills needed to be successful. Volunteers can help in several of the programs and classes. Time commitment depends on the class, usually one 2-hour class, every other week. Topics include:

Healthcare Navigation: how to navigate the healthcare system & very basic level with Medicaid knowledge

Employment Skills: how to look for jobs & appropriate attire for interviews & mock job interviews

Technology Skills: hands on class & how to utilize the cell phone & working on laptops, using emails

For more info about volunteering with Parole Project, please contact Kelly Garrett: kelly@paroleproject.org

VOCATIONAL PRAYER MINISTRY

Will you welcome the vocation prayer materials into your home for one week and pray for the current future vocations (religious, sisters, deacons, and priests)?

Join the Vocational Prayer Ministry to receive the vocational prayer materials (Chalice, Statue of St. Therese of Lisieux and Vocational prayer materials) in your home for a week! At this time, please limit your signup to one week so we can bring the materials into as many homes as possible to pray for an outpouring of vocations.

Sign up is for one week, receive the materials at the weekend Mass of your choice and bring the materials back to the Church Office the following Friday afternoon by 3pm for another family to receive the next weekend Mass. Sign up poster board in the Narthex for Saturday 4pm, Sunday 7:30am, 11:30am or 6pm.

Thank you! Questions: 225 333 8129. The Vocational Prayer Ministry is sponsored by the Marian Servants of the Eucharist.
