OUR MISSION

St. George Catholic Church Parish is an open loving parish community united by our faith in Jesus Christ. Located within the Diocese of Baton Rouge, we are closely bound to our diocesan family and the universal Roman Catholic Church. Our prayerful liturgies are community celebrations shaped by a tradition of over one hundred years of Eucharistic worship on this site. Guided by the Holy Spirit, we are called to use our gifts to express our praise, love, and thanksgiving to God. We challenge and support one another in humbly living the gospel message and serving the common good as witnesses of Jesus Christ.

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

August 27, 2023

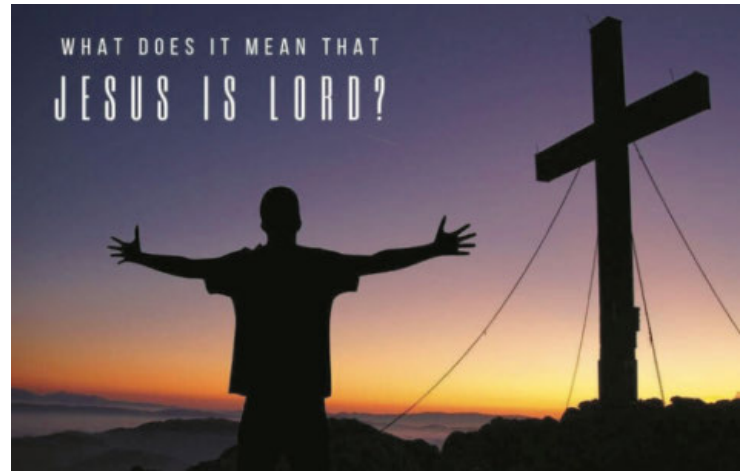

21ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

On the eve of Christmas, a reporter went out to the busy streets of New York City to ask a simple question, "Who is Jesus?" The streets were filled with people from all over the world, and the answers they gave varied wildly and were sometimes inaccurate: "A man from the 60's," "The blond headed dude in pictures," "A man from a story made up by someone," "A man with good morals," "An inspiring man," and "A man whose story is blown out of proportion." A Gallup Poll said that eight in ten Americans have consistently believed that Jesus Christ is God or the Son of God. Half of these folks say that Jesus was God living among men, while most of the remainder believe that Jesus was divine only in the sense that he was a man who God uniquely called to reveal God's purpose in the world.

Does it matter whether we believe who Jesus truly is? Is it "practical" to believe in Jesus? Let's look at Peter for an example. He and other disciples had been following Jesus for nearly three years. They had heard Jesus' teaching and seen his miracles. The disciples had seen Jesus as a popular person, a great leader, and a wonderful teacher. They had grown in their understanding of him. Yet, it took them quite a while to realize who Jesus really was. This was demonstrated in today's Gospel while in Caesarea-Philippi, where Jesus turned to his disciples and asked what people were saying about him, "Who do people say that I am?"

The general impression was that Jesus was one of the prophets or John the Baptist sent back from the dead. Evidently, the people had not yet recognized him as the Messiah. Simon Peter then answered for all the disciples without hesitation that Jesus was the promised Messiah, the Son of the living God. In response, Jesus confers on Peter the primacy and leadership in the church he was establishing. Jesus also tells Peter that he will be the foundation of his church and that the gates of hell will not prevail against it.

As the informal poll in the streets of New York City demonstrates, despite technological advancement in communication, many people have not come to know who Jesus is. We might think that because we are here celebrating mass we know who Jesus is. Yet, we baptized and confirmed Catholics would struggle to give an answer to the question -- and believing it in our heart and living it in our lives. Look at me as an example: I was baptized and confirmed in the church, and if I had been asked during my late high school or early college years the question, "Who is Jesus," I would have replied, "It's that guy who is hanging on the cross; that's what I've been taught. But I don't care who he is because he is irrelevant in my life." What kind of answer is that!?!

"Who do you say that I am?"

For many of us, Jesus is irrelevant and impractical, just as in the days when Jesus taught in the streets of Jerusalem. He may be inconvenient to us, affecting our schedule on weekends. In the distracted lives, we live right now, we lose sight of the fact that Jesus is the Savior of the world, whose cross and resurrection have set us free. What does it mean to be free? We all know that with freedom comes responsibility - a responsibility to act.

Through the Catholic Church, which Jesus established on Peter, each generation is challenged to know Jesus personally, to convert hearts and minds to fulfill His mission. Jesus invites us to discover him, serve him and love him as Lord, and he wants from each one of us a resounding single-hearted response. He offers an exclusive promise that through him and in him alone, we will find salvation, and nothing is more practical than finding Jesus and believing in Jesus. When we know who Jesus is to us, we will live our lives very differently. Our head and heart knowledge of Jesus determines what or who we fall in love with and what seizes the imagination. It will decide what will get us out of bed in the morning, what we will do with our evenings, how we spend our weekends, what we read, whom we know, what breaks our hearts, and what amazes us with joy and gratitude.

When with every breath we take, we truly know that we are the hands and feet of Jesus responsible for completing His mission on Earth, only then have we understood the question, "Who do you say that I am?"

-Fr. Yi

Ever Wonder About...

GIVING OF TREASURE

Question:

Why are Catholics required to give money to the Church?

Answer:

Offering money and other goods to God and the Church is, before all else, a statement of gratitude. We see this when we look at how our spiritual ancestors showed their gratitude to God for the gifts they had received (e.g. Genesis 14:18-20 and Genesis 28:16-22). One of the ways they offered thanks to God was through a practice called "tithing," in which 10 percent of a person's goods (crops, livestock, money, etc.) were given back to God.

Today, the practice of tithing — giving 10 percent — is still common in many Protestant communities, but it is not required for Catholics. Instead, the Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches us that, "The faithful also have the duty of providing for the material needs of the Church, each according to [their] own abilities" (no. 2043). This means that, although we are not bound to practice "tithing" in the traditional sense, we do share a responsibility to share our money or other resources with our parish communities. Like our spiritual ancestors, we give as a sign of our gratitude for the many gifts that God has given to us. Beyond this, we also share our resources with other Catholic organizations to help them finance their ministries, to continue and grow their outreach to the poor and the needy, and to provide just wages for their employees.

How much we give depends on our individual circumstances, but since we share a responsibility for the programs, outreach, and health of our parish communities and Catholic organizations, this question gives us a wonderful opportunity to ask some important questions about the quality of our giving and what our priorities are. Remember, we are only stewards of our time, talents, and treasures and as the First Letter of Peter reminds us, "As each one of you has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God's varied graces" (4:10).

QUOTES FROM POPES ON GOD'S CREATION

ST. POPE JOHN PAUL II

"The earth will not continue to offer its harvest, except with faithful stewardship. We cannot say we love the land and then take steps to destroy it for use by future generations."

"I wish to repeat that the ecological crisis is a moral issue. At the conclusion of this Message, I should like to address directly my brothers and sisters in the Catholic Church, in order to remind them of their serious obligation to care for all of creation."

"Placing human well-being at the center of concern for the environment is actually the surest way of safeguarding creation; this in fact stimulates the responsibility of the individual with regard to natural resources and their judicious use."
