THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

Then taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing over them, broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. They all ate and were satisfied. And when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets. - Lk 9:16-17

OUR MISSION

St. George Catholic Church Parish is an open loving parish community united by our faith in Jesus Christ. Located within the Diocese of Baton Rouge, we are closely bound to our diocesan family and the universal Roman Catholic Church. Our prayerful liturgies are community celebrations shaped by a tradition of over one hundred years of Eucharistic worship on this site. Guided by the Holy Spirit, we are called to use our gifts to express our praise, love, and thanksgiving to God. We challenge and support one another in humbly living the gospel message and serving the common good as witnesses of Jesus Christ.

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

June 22, 2025

CORPUS CHRISTI SUNDAY

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Some time ago, I had a conversation with someone who visited a beautiful cathedral in Orvieto, Italy. This person shared that while the interior was pretty, it wasn't particularly exceptional. I asked if he had seen the display of the Eucharistic miracle that occurred in that cathedral in 1263. He was unaware of it and felt disappointed about missing such a treasure. In 1263, a visiting priest celebrating Mass nearby began to doubt the true nature of the Eucharist. Right before the "Lamb of God," he broke the host, and astonishingly, it began to bleed over his hands and onto the corporal. The spectators were stunned and began to cry out. Unable to conceal the miracle, the priest interrupted the Mass and went to the Cathedral where Pope Urban IV was present. After the Pope investigated the blood-stained corporal, he declared it a Eucharistic miracle, displaying it in one of the chapels of the Cathedral of Orvieto. The Pope later instituted the feast of Corpus Christi (which we celebrate today) and commissioned St. Thomas Aquinas to compose prayers and hymns to commemorate this special occasion. St. Thomas wrote the opening prayer we recited at the beginning of Mass, along with five beautiful hymns for this feast day, including Lauda Sion, Panis Angelicus, O Salutaris Hostia, Tantum Ergo Sacramentum, and Adoro Te Devote.

As Catholics, we know by faith that the Holy Eucharist we receive at Mass is truly the body and blood of Christ. Consider this: when I receive the body and blood of Christ, do I recognize it as an incredible gift of grace that will continue to transform me? Or has receiving the Eucharist become so routine that I am no longer touched by it? In any relationship, becoming too familiar with someone can lead us to take them for granted or neglect to put in the effort to keep the spark alive. For example, in marriage, after a year together, does the initial excitement fade, and do we fall into a mundane routine? How would your spouse feel if you went away for a weekend without even a phone call? The same risks exist in our relationship with Jesus in the Eucharist. Do we take for granted that Jesus is always there for us, assuming He won't mind if we skip weekend Mass? When we prioritize attractive or exciting things in this world over encountering Jesus in the Eucharist, are we missing opportunities to deepen our love for Him? When we stay away from the Eucharist—either through lack of prayer or absence from Mass—our affection for our Lord can grow cool and distant, and the spark may no longer be there. Similar risks exist for priests. If a priest becomes enamored with worldly distractions and stops praying or reading the Scriptures, celebrating Mass can become routine and burdensome, stripping the joy from administering the Sacraments. Let us renew our commitment to cherish the gift of the Eucharist, ensuring that our relationship with Jesus remains vibrant and transformative, allowing His grace to continually ignite our hearts and deepen our love for Him.

Fr. Abelardo Gabriel SVD—Divine Word Missionaries

Fr. Abelardo Gabriel SVD will be speaking to us this weekend at St. George Catholic Church to speak about the many ministries of his religious community, Divine Word Missionaries. They are an international religious community of missionary priests and Brothers serving in 79 countries helping to build chapels, celebrate the sacraments and spread the Word of God in remote mission communities.

As a Divine Word Missionary, Father Abelardo was ordained as a priest in 2006. Following his ordination, he received assignments to minister at two parishes on the Southside of Chicago, namely St. Anselm and St. Elizabeth parishes. Presently, he holds the role of pastor at Notre Dame Parish in St. Martinville, Louisiana.

Nearly 6,000 active Divine Word Missionaries minister in the far corners of the world. They build hospitals to care for the sick and schools to educate the poor. They teach the hungry to farm, and they provide life's necessities—water, food and shelter—in impoverished communities. These priests and Brothers help those neglected and forgotten by society to build a better future.

They also foster vibrant Catholic communities of service and faith around the world.

This mission appeal is part of the Missionary Cooperative Program of our Diocese of Baton Rouge. Please be generous with your prayers and contribute to the second collection to help support the missionary work of the Divine Word Missionaries. To meet some of the people Divine Word Missionaries help, please read the stories:

Ever Wonder About...

SIGN BEFORE THE GOSPEL

Question:

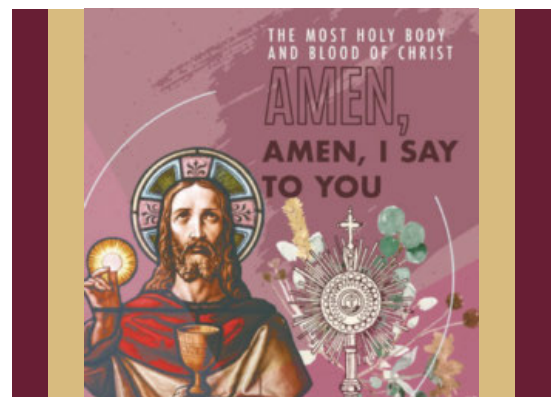

I have been going to Mass for years and have always wondered: why do we make the three signs of the cross before the Gospel?

Answer:

Certainly, many people go to Mass or other devotions, doing and saying things out of habit or reverence and not really understanding the reasons behind some of these things. But everything we do has a meaning or purpose that helps us to worship better, proclaim our beliefs, or focus the attention of the people on something that has a greater importance or significance. A review of the meaning of various gestures and practices can help us have a deeper appreciation for what we do.

There is a little prayer that goes with the three crosses before the Gospel: "May the words of the Holy Gospel be on my mind, on my lips and in my heart." In standing to hear the Gospel, we acknowledge that Jesus is present, and the words of the Gospel are addressed to us. All of the gestures and special postures we adopt before the Gospel are intended to help us prepare for hearing the Word as well as act on it. The incense, the Alleluia, the deacon or priest, and the special dialogue and announcement that introduces the Gospel help us focus our attention on the Good News we are about to hear. The three signs of the cross show our desire and good intention to hear and live the Gospel.

VOCATIONAL PRAYER MINISTRY

Will you welcome the vocation prayer materials into your home for one week and pray for the current future vocations (religious, sisters, deacons, and priests)?

Join the Vocational Prayer Ministry to receive the vocational prayer materials (Chalice, Statue of St. Therese of Lisieux and Vocational prayer materials) in your home for a week! At this time, please limit your signup to one week so we can bring the materials into as many homes as possible to pray for an outpouring of vocations.

Sign up is for one week, receive the materials at the weekend Mass of your choice and bring the materials back to the Church Office the following Friday afternoon by 3pm for another family to receive at the next weekend Mass. Sign up poster board in the Narthex for Saturday 4pm, Sunday 7:30am, 11:30am or 6pm.

Thank you! Questions: 225-333-8129. The Vocational Prayer Ministry is sponsored by the Marian Servants of the Eucharist.

Devotions, Explained!

MARIAN CONSECRATION

Explained:

Marian consecration, the act of consecrating oneself to Jesus through the intercession of his Blessed Mother, is actually rooted in the words of Jesus himself when he beseeched the Apostle John to look upon Mary as his mother (John 19:27) and to "take her into his own home." He was actually instructing us all to do likewise — to "behold your mother" and take Mary into our hearts, for wherever she is beloved, Christ is known and praised.

St. Maximilian Kolbe described Mary as "the stairway to Heaven." Marian consecration, therefore, could be likened to climbing the stairs. Different formulas exist for spiritual development in preparation for the consecration, based on the writings of saints like St. Louis de Montfort, and there are different prayers for the act of consecration. However, there is no "right" way to consecrate oneself to Jesus through Mary, so long as the ultimate goal is closeness to Christ and the glorification of God.

LEARN MORE ABOUT FAITH

Do you want to learn more about the Catholic Faith, Church History, the Sacraments, Catholic Scripture, and many more topics?

Consider taking one of the many Ministry and Theology (MAT) courses offered by the Diocese of Baton Rouge. Most courses are offered at the Catholic Life Center, but some are taught elsewhere throughout the diocese, and some are even offered online.

They are open to anyone and are taught by very talented instructors from around our diocese. For more information, visit the diocesan Office of Evangelization & Catechesis website at <https://diobr.org/evangelization> or call 225-336-8760.

TAKE ACTION FOR PEACE,
JUSTICE, AND THOSE LESS FORTUNATE THAN YOU.

FIND GOD IN NATURE AND
IN PEOPLE. THEN CARE FOR CREATION AND THOSE AROUND YOU.

FIND FRIENDSHIP WITH GOD THROUGH PRAYER AND THE EUCHARIST.
