OUR MISSION

St. George Catholic Church Parish is an open loving parish community united by our faith in Jesus Christ. Located within the Diocese of Baton Rouge, we are closely bound to our diocesan family and the universal Roman Catholic Church. Our prayerful liturgies are community celebrations shaped by a tradition of over one hundred years of Eucharistic worship on this site. Guided by the Holy Spirit, we are called to use our gifts to express our praise, love, and thanksgiving to God. We challenge and support one another in humbly living the gospel message and serving the common good as witnesses of Jesus Christ.

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

August 10, 2025

19TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Have you ever witnessed the fierce tenderness of maternal instinct? On the Animal Planet show 'Meerkat Manor', we see a vivid portrayal of this instinct in the wild. Meerkats, small and vigilant creatures, stand upright like sentinels, scanning the horizon for danger. When newborns are in the den, the entire community heightens its alertness. At the first sign of threat, the mother meerkat rushes to shield her young, ready to lay down her life. Life on the prairie is unforgiving, and survival hinges on vigilance.

This instinct is not confined to the animal kingdom. Human mothers, too, are guardians of life and soul. My own mother's vigilance intensified during my high school years. She noticed subtle changes—black clothing, incense in my room, late nights. Her heart ached, sensing a spiritual danger she couldn't name. But she knew where to turn: she clutched her rosary and implored the Blessed Virgin Mary to protect her son.

What my mother didn't know was that I had begun dabbling in New Age and Wicca. I wasn't using drugs or alcohol, but I was engaging in something far more perilous: I was risking my soul. I had begun to believe in impersonal forces and spirits I thought I could control. I had ceased to believe in the personal love of God the Father revealed through Jesus Christ. My house of hope was being plundered.

St. John Vianney once said, "The devil only tempts those souls who wish to abandon sin and those who are in a state of grace. The others belong to him; he has no need to tempt them." I had unknowingly wandered into the devil's playground, and my soul was in peril. But through the intercession of my earthly and heavenly mothers, I returned the borrowed books and severed ties with those influences. Though it took years to fully regain my faith, the seeds of hope had been replanted.

In today's Gospel, Jesus calls us to vigilance: "Be like servants who await their master's return, ready to open immediately when he comes and knocks." *He warns us that if the master of the house had known when the thief was coming, he would have stayed awake. The house we must guard is the house of hope—the virtue by which we desire heaven and eternal life, trusting not in ourselves but in the promises of Christ and the power of the Holy Spirit (CCC 1817).

Hope is not passive. It is a weapon in our spiritual battle. St. Teresa of Ávila reminds us, "Hope, O my soul, hope. You know neither the day nor the hour. Watch carefully, for everything passes quickly." When I lost my faith, I lost sight of heaven. But hope—nurtured by prayer—restored my vision.

So how do we remain vigilant? How do we guard our hearts against the thief who seeks to steal our hope?

We pray. Daily. Fervently. Persistently.

My mother's example taught me that prayer is the soul's radar. The Church teaches that prayer is humble vigilance and filial trust, even in the midst of trial. The Blessed Virgin Mary, in her apparitions at Fatima, Lourdes,

La Salette, and Medjugorje, has consistently urged us: "Pray, pray, pray." She especially recommends the Rosary, calling it a spiritual weapon against Satan's schemes.

Today, the enemy comes cloaked in books, music, media, and ideologies that distort truth and seduce the soul. But we are not defenseless. St. Padre Pio said, "The Rosary is the weapon for these times." Let us wield it with faith and love.

Let us be like the vigilant meerkat—alert, protective, and ready. Let us be like the faithful servant—awake, hopeful, and prepared. And let us be like the Blessed Mother—interceding, praying, and trusting in the victory of her Son.

-Fr. Yi

Ever Wonder About...

PARISH REGISTRATION

Question:

Why is it so important that we register in a parish? Isn't it good enough that we go to Mass?

Answer:

Although Registration is the official way we join a parish community. Many people think that because they attend a particular parish they automatically belong. At times, young adults who have moved away for years think they are still signed up under their parents. But membership requires signing up, formally enrolling yourself in a parish. Registration is a commitment to a community, a way to be included in the religious, social, and ministerial activities of your parish. Your registration affects the parish in many ways. Census numbers can determine how many priests are assigned to a church, what benefits and obligations the community has to the diocese, and how Masses, Confessions, and devotions are planned and scheduled.

Registration shows you belong. It is also necessary for certain benefits, like scheduling sacraments, obtaining sponsor certificates, and getting donation statements for taxes. Most importantly, it lets the parish count on you, to call on you to assist in its mission. Registering in your parish is a statement of faith and confidence in the life and work of your parish.

Remembering Fr. Bob

We continue to thank God for the life of the late Rev. Bernard "Bob" Banares who passed away a year ago this weekend.

Fr. Bob served as St. George's parochial vicar for two years and spread a great deal of joy throughout our parish.

He once described finding joy by looking at it as an acronym to remember how to set priorities in one's life.

2nd: Others
3rd: Yourself

SVDP VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

VOLUNTEER WITH SVDP

Looking for a new opportunity to serve the Lord? Our SVDP ministry needs more dedicated volunteers to help our neighbors in need. Members join the Society, not because they are perfected in their faith, but because they seek to develop faith by living it both individually and communally with other members. Progress, not perfection, is what is desired in a member. The Society is for people who acknowledge the need to improve their living of the Gospel life and want to do so through the Society. Please call the church office 225-293-2212.

VOCATIONAL PRAYER MINISTRY

Will you welcome the vocation prayer materials into your home for one week and pray for the current future vocations (religious, sisters, deacons, and priests)?

Join the Vocational Prayer Ministry to receive the vocational prayer materials (Chalice, Statue of St. Therese of Lisieux and Vocational prayer materials) in your home for a week! At this time, please limit your signup to one week so we can bring the materials into as many homes as possible to pray for an outpouring of vocations.

Sign up is for one week, receive the materials at the weekend Mass of your choice and bring the materials back to the Church Office the following Friday afternoon by 3pm for another family to receive at the next weekend Mass. Sign up poster board in the Narthex for Saturday 4pm, Sunday 7:30am, 11:30am or 6pm.

Thank you! Questions: 225-333-8129. The Vocational Prayer Ministry is sponsored by the Marian Servants of the Eucharist.

SPECIAL PRESENTATION

SEPT. 24TH IN KLEINPETER ACTIVITY CENTER | 7 PM

TRUE GOD FROM TRUE GOD: THE ORIGIN OF THE NICENE CREED & WHY IT MATTERS TODAY MORE THAN EVER

2025 is the 1,700th anniversary of the Nicene Creed. From May-July 325, the most learned theologians of the day gathered in the city of Nicaea to resolve the most important question: Who is Jesus? Was He a creature? Or the Creator? Many of us today take for granted their towering answer, but the controversy nearly split the Church.

Dr. Terry Ellis introduces the issues, people, theology, and answers confronting the early Church. As important as the Creed was 1,700 years ago, it's just as vital today as we tell others about Jesus who is True God from True God.

Catechists are needed to do weekly presentations to those in OCIA (Monday nights). All catechists must be Diocesan certified or working on certification.

Creation Care

Volunteers follow the Laudato Si' Action Plan of: Ecological Education, Response to the Cry of the Earth, Response to the Cry of the Poor, Adoption of Sustainable Lifestyles, Ecological Spirituality, Community Resilience and Empowerment.

Lord Teach Me to Pray

Lord Teach Me to Pray is a weekly prayer series to meet that desire for on-going spiritual growth. Participants grow in their knowledge and love of Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior, for their eternal salvation.

Prayer Line

The St. George Prayer Line supports the community in its concerns and specific needs through personal home prayer. The names are offered up in prayer daily.

OCIA: The Catechumenate (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults)

This initiation ministry works with those who are interested in finding out more about the Catholic faith. Sponsors are always needed.

Rosary Prayer Group

The group prays the Rosary before weekday Mass and First Saturday Devotions.

Small Christian Communities

These groups gather regularly to reflect on the Sunday scriptures and share faith.

That Man Is You!

That Man Is You! is a 26-week interactive Bible study (divided into two 13-week sessions) focused on the development of men in the modern world.

Vocational Prayer Ministry

Receive prayer materials for your home to pray for current & future vocations.

FOR DETAILS:

"Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms." - 1 Peter 4:10
