SAVED BY THE ONE WHO WAS REJECTED- Some city teenagers often scorn and reject farm kids. Yet it's no exaggeration to say that humanity owes its life to farmers who care for the world's crops and livestock. This week's scriptures remind us that Jesus was as rejected as a shepherd, a farm boy, yet we owe our very lives to him.

In this Sunday's reading from the Acts of the Apostles Peter tells the people that salvation comes through Jesus Christ, the one who was rejected. In John's letter we hear that we have become God's beloved children through Jesus, whom the world did not know. Lastly, in the Gospel Jesus describes himself as the Good Shepherd who "lays down his life for the sheep" (John 10:11). Will you join Jesus in laying down your life for God's beloved flock? SALVADOS POR AQUEL QUE FUE RECHAZADO

Algunos adolescentes de la ciudad suelen menospreciar y rechazar a los chicos del campo. Sin embargo, no sería una exageración decir que la humanidad les debe la vida a los agricultores que cuidan los cultivos y el ganado por todo el mundo. La Sagrada Escritura para esta semana nos recuerda que Jesús fue rechazado como pastor, como chico del campo, sin embargo, a él le debemos la vida.

En la lectura de los Hechos de los Apóstoles de este domingo, Pedro les dice a las personas que la salvación viene por Jesucristo, que fue rechazado y crucificado. En la carta del apóstol san Juan escuchamos que nos hemos convertido en los hijos amados de Dios por Jesús, a quien el mundo no conoció. Por último, en el Evangelio Jesús se describe como el buen Pastor: "yo doy la vida por las ovejas" (Juan 10:11). ¿Te unirás a Jesús para dar tu vida por el rebaño amado de Dios?

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Friends,

We are often asked to fill in questionnaires. Some forms have a religious belief section, in which you may be given a selection of choices. You can tick one of the major religions, or indicate that you are an atheist, or you can choose SBNR. What is SBNR? It has become a popular choice in the last few years and it stands for "Spiritual But Not Religious." It is understandable why many people choose this. They want something spiritual in their life but don't want to get involved with the controversies and scandals that can be associated with organized religion. They also avoid the effort of having to come to worship.

But on the other hand there are dangers in only being spiritual. People may become very individualistic, with themselves at the center of everything. Or they may get involved with weird ideas about the supernatural without the wisdom of the community to guide them.

What does our Catholic faith say about this? During Easter season we get to hear the Acts of the Apostles, which describes what happened in the early Church. Today we hear Peter speaks filled with the Holy Spirit. The healing he performed was only possible in the name of Jesus Christ. But how do we share in the power of the risen Christ? At Pentecost Peter told the crowd that they must be baptized. They must become a member of the body of Christ, join a community, a church.

Our Christian faith tells us that we are saved as individuals, but as part of a people or community.

After baptism the early Christians shared their possessions with each other and broke bread together. Being alone and spiritual is not defense enough to withstand those powers that tried to destroy Jesus. Jesus will lay down his life in order to bring his sheep together, unified in the one fold. Together we are part of the body of Christ. And in our turn we are called to bear witness to that divine love of Christ in the way we care for each other, especially when it challenges our individual selfishness. We could ask ourselves whether we are good shepherds to our family and friends.

Religion has many weaknesses and is in constant need of reform, but we need to give our spirituality a push in the right direction towards justice and charity, to prevent it from becoming too self-centered. The spiritual needs the wisdom of religion to keep it close to Christ the Good shepherd. But, what kind of religion? We could heed to what St. James writes in his letter. There he talks about a down-to-earth kind of religion. Listen to what he says: "Pure, unspoiled religion, in the eyes of God our Father is this: coming to the help of orphans and widows when they need it, and keeping oneself uncontaminated by the world."

Your friend in Jesus, Msgr. Zach

Desde el escritorio del Pastor

Queridos amigos,

A menudo se nos pide que rellene cuestionarios. Algunas formas tienen una sección de creencia religiosa, en la que se le puede dar una selección de opciones. Puede marcar una de las grandes religiones, o indican que usted es ateo, o puede elegir SBNR. ¿Qué es SBNR? Se ha convertido en una opción muy popular en los últimos años y es la sigla de "espiritual pero no religioso." Es comprensible que muchas personas eligen este. Quieren algo espiritual en su vida, pero no quieren involucrarse con las controversias y escándalos que pueden estar asociadas con la religión organizada. También evitar el esfuerzo de tener que venir al culto.

Pero por otro lado hay peligros en sólo ser espiritual. La gente puede volverse muy individualista, con ellos mismos en el centro de todo. O pueden involucrarse con ideas extrañas acerca de lo sobrenatural sin la sabiduría de la comunidad para que les sirviera de guía.

Nuestra fe católica ¿qué decir acerca de esto? Durante el tiempo pascual nos toca oír los Hechos de los Apóstoles, que describe lo que sucedió en la iglesia primitiva. Hoy oímos Pedro habla lleno del Espíritu Santo. La curación se realiza sólo era posible en el nombre de Jesucristo. Pero ¿cómo podemos compartir en el poder de Cristo resucitado? En Pentecostés, Pedro dijo a la multitud que deben ser bautizados. Deben convertirse en un miembro del cuerpo de Cristo, unirse a una comunidad, una iglesia.

Nuestra fe cristiana nos dice que somos salvos como individuos, sino como parte de un pueblo o de una comunidad. Después del bautismo de los primeros cristianos compartían sus posesiones el uno con el otro y el pan juntos. Estar solos y defensa espiritual no es suficiente para resistir a las potencias que trató de destruir a Jesús. Jesús va a poner su vida en orden a llevar sus ovejas juntas, unificadas en el pliegue. Juntos somos parte del cuerpo de Cristo. Y por nuestra parte estamos llamados a dar testimonio de ese amor divino de Cristo en la manera en que nos preocupamos por otros, especialmente cuando desafía nuestro egoísmo individual. Podríamos preguntarnos si somos buenos pastores a nuestra familia y amigos.

La religión tiene muchas debilidades y está en constante necesidad de reforma, pero tenemos que dar nuestra espiritualidad un empujoncito en la dirección correcta hacia la justicia y la caridad, a fin de impedir que se convierta en demasiado egocéntrica. Las necesidades espirituales de la sabiduría de la religión para mantenerlo cerca de Cristo, Buen Pastor. Pero, ¿qué clase de religión? Podríamos prestar atención a lo que Santiago escribe en su carta. Allí se habla de un abajo-a-tierra tipo de religión. Escuche lo que dice: "La religión pura, intacta, a los ojos de Dios, nuestro Padre, es esta: viniendo a la ayuda de los huérfanos y las viudas cuando lo necesitan, y mantenerse incontaminado por el mundo".

Su amigo en Jesús, Mons. Zach
