Please make use of this Examination of Conscience based on the Beatitudes in preparation for the Sacrament:

"If any one will piously and soberly consider the sermon which our Lord Jesus Christ spoke on the mount, as we read it in the Gospel according to Matthew, I think that he will find in it, so far as regards the highest morals, a perfect standard of the Christian life: and this we do not rashly venture to promise, but gather it from the very words of the Lord Himself. For the sermon itself is brought to a close in such a way, that it is clear there are in it all the precepts which go to mold the life. For thus He speaks: Therefore, whosoever hears these words of mine, and does them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock [...] these sayings which He uttered on the mount so perfectly guide the life of those who may be willing to live according to them, that they may justly be compared to one building upon a rock."

- St. Augustine of Hippo

....the Beatitudes are an excellent resource to prepare for confession, to examine ourselves to see if we are living an authentic Christian life.

The Beatitudes

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

- ❖ Do I strive - with my time, passion, and resources - to accumulate more temporal goods and honors, instead of seeking to obtain true spiritual goods?
- ❖ Do I recognize my spiritual poverty and humbly acknowledge my need to continually seek and be filled with the Spirit of Christ?

Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.

- ❖ Do I sorrow over the sins committed by myself and others, considering how much they offend God and how they bring more evil and disorder into the world?
- ❖ Do I do sufficient penance for my own sins, and reparation to God for the sins of others?

Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.

- ❖ Am I obstinate and quarrelsome, always trying to assert my will over others in regard to petty and unimportant things?
- ❖ Do I strive to overcome evils with good, by responding to offenses with gentleness and a good will, instead of retaliating in anger and spite?

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied.

- ❖ Am I trying to become more holy by conquering my habitual sins and diligently practicing acts of virtue?
- ❖ Do I love Jesus and strive to do His will above all things, instead of my own?

Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy.

- ❖ Are my eyes and my heart open to the mental, physical, or emotional sufferings of others?
- ❖ Do I try to relieve their pain and misery through spiritual and corporal works of mercy?

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.

- ❖ Do I try to keep my heart, mind, and soul untainted by the evil influences of this fallen world?

- ❖ Do I guard the purity of my senses by being cautious and discriminatory about what I allow myself to see, watch, and hear?

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God.

- ❖ Do I strive to keep my soul in the peace of Christ?
- ❖ Do I look for ways to bring greater order and harmony among persons in my family or place of work, or do I participate in perpetuating discord and strife?

Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

- ❖ Do I count it a joy when I suffer wrongs for the sake of doing good?
- ❖ Do I offer up my trials to God for the salvation of souls?

Blessed are you when men revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account.

- ❖ Am I living my Catholic faith authentically so that others can see that I am a devout follower of Jesus Christ?
- ❖ Do I avoid living and proclaiming the truths taught by His Church for fear of being disliked, ridiculed, or persecuted?

The word beatitude means happiness. We can also read this list as "happy are those who... ." Only when we are living in the light of the teachings of Jesus Christ will we find true happiness in this life and the next.

NEWS FROM The Inland See

April 12–18, 2025

FOR THE DIOCESE OF BURLINGTON

Spiritual Director training update

Offering the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius

This Spring, 12 men and women will complete year two of the three-year Spiritual Direction training program being offered by the Oblates of the Virgin Mary and facilitated by the Diocese of Burlington. This initiative was launched to increase the availability of trained spiritual directors in our Diocese.

The training has been substantial, including full and rigorous weekends of formation, practicums, lectures, reading, lots of time focused on praying with the scriptures, human psychology and development, completing the Ignatian Spiritual Exercises, and being prepared to lead others through the Exercises. In addition, this past year the students have engaged in spiritual direction, while under supervision.

The next step in their training will be to direct someone through the Ignatian Spiritual Exercises. This is a scripturally based retreat St. Ignatius developed to help individuals deepen their relationship with God. Each day features taking time in prayer and in the scriptures, within a structure St. Ignatius developed. The process includes regularly meeting a director (the person leading you through the Exercises). There are two ways to undertake this retreat: a 30-day directed retreat or via a "19th Annotation," where an individual undertakes the retreat while continuing their daily responsibilities. Since most people don't have the freedom to take 30 days away for a retreat, the 19th Annotation has been a very popular way of experiencing the Exercises. It should be noted that this is a substantial (and rewarding) undertaking.

The Exercises, when undertaken via the 19th Annotation, typically last six to eight months and require setting aside approximately one hour daily for prayer and meditation on specific scripture passages, or other themes assigned by the director.

The 19th Annotation is done at home and meetings with the director can be done in person or online. If this is something that the Lord is inviting you to consider, feel free to reach out to myself or any of the 12 individuals who will be offering this retreat, listed on the right.

The men and women who are available to direct the Spiritual Exercises:

Dcn. Bob Begley, OFS bjbegley@yahoo.com	St. Albans
Dcn. RJ Dourney rjdourney@vermontcatholic.org	Chester
Dcn. Pete Gummere pgummere@vermontcatholic.org	St. Johnsbury

Angela Paquette angiepaquette@rocketmail.com	Richford

Please join me in thanking these faithful men and women for their openness to responding to the call to serve in this ministry and pray that God will use them to help others deepen their relationship with God.
