Immaculate Conception Mission Statement

We the faith community of Immaculate Conception, empowered by our Baptism, commit ourselves to live the Gospel message. Affirmed through the grace of our Eucharistic celebrations, it is our vision to reach out lovingly in prayer, formation and service.

ONE DOES NOT LIVE ON BREAD ALONE,
BUT BY EVERY WORD THAT COMES FORTH FROM THE MOUTH OF GOD.

No sólo de pan vive el hombre,
sino también de toda palabra que sale de la boca de Dios.

Declaración de la misión de la Inmaculada Concepción

Nosotros, la comunidad de fe de la Inmaculada Concepción, facultados a través de nuestro Bautismo, nos comprometemos a vivir el mensaje del Evangelio. Afirmado en la gracia de nuestras celebraciones Eucarísticas, es nuestra visión el poder alcanzarlos cariñosamente en oración, formación y servicio.

Bread for Eternal life

After my summer break, I had to go back to the major seminary for my third-year philosophy. As I was waiting for my train, one very young European man approached me. He was very polite and with a gentle smile showed me the lord Krishna image and invited me to learn about this Hindu god whom he preached and claimed that only through Krishna there is peace and liberation. He didn't know that I was a candidate to the priesthood, and we spent almost all our waiting in a very fruitful religious dialogue. One of the basic questions I asked him, was, 'why did he travel such a long distance to India to search for peace and liberation?' This thirst, and hunger, a longing for peace and liberation are found in Jesus Christ whether you are in Europe or in America. Is it not Jesus who claimed that He is the Bread of life which is found in the peaceful adoration chapel? Is He not present in the Holy Eucharistic celebration? Is He not our ultimate peace and joy?

In the Old Testament, we find that God satisfied the physical hunger of His chosen people in the desert by giving them manna and quail. (Ex. 16:2-4) He will always provide for what we need. Saint Paul advises the Ephesians to satisfy their spiritual hunger by turning away from their former evil ways and by leading renewed lives of love, kindness, compassion, and forgiveness. Paul reminds us that our acceptance of Jesus as the real source of our life and the nourishment of our souls produces a total transformation in us. (Eph. 4:17, 20-24)

Jesus is offering the crowd Bread from Heaven, Bread that nourishes them for eternal life. He himself said, "I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will never be hungry; he who believes in me will never thirst." (John 6:35) We are hungry for a hundred things but there is a further hunger, a deeper hunger, that underlines all our other hungers; and that is the hunger for the Bread of Eternal Life, which is the hunger for God.

This bread of life is the Holy Eucharist. The Eucharist is the source and font of all graces that flow from it. The Church claims that the Eucharist is the heart of all liturgical celebrations. We are nourished by breaking open the Word of God and in the breaking of the bread. We receive spiritual nourishment from both of these sources. "From the liturgy therefore, and especially from the Eucharist, grace is poured forth upon us as from a fountain, and the sanctification of men in Christ and the glorification of God to which all other activities of the Church are directed, as toward their end, are achieved with maximum effectiveness." (Sacrosanctum Concilium no.10)

Fr. Joachim Lepcha

Pan para la vida eternal

Después de mis vacaciones de verano, tuve que volver al seminario mayor para cursar el tercer año de filosofía. Mientras esperaba el tren, se me acercó un hombre europeo muy joven. Fue muy educado y con una amable sonrisa me mostró la imagen del señor Krishna y me invitó a conocer a este dios hindú del que predicaba y afirmaba que sólo a través de Krishna hay paz y liberación. No sabía que yo era un candidato al sacerdocio, y pasamos casi toda nuestra espera en un diálogo religioso muy fructífero. Una de las preguntas básicas que le hice fue: "¿Por qué viajó tan lejos a la India para buscar la paz y la liberación? Esta sed, y el hambre, el anhelo de paz y liberación se encuentran en Jesucristo, ya sea en Europa o en América. ¿No es Jesús quien afirmó que Él es el Pan de vida que se encuentra en la capilla de adoración pacífica? ¿No está Él presente en la Santa Eucaristía? ¿No es Él nuestra paz y alegría definitivas?"

En el Antiguo Testamento, encontramos que Dios satisfizo el hambre física de su pueblo elegido en el desierto dándole maná y codornices. (Ex. 16:2-4) Él siempre proveerá lo que necesitamos. San Pablo aconseja a los efesios que satisfagan su hambre espiritual apartándose de sus antiguos malos hábitos y llevando una vida renovada de amor, bondad, compasión y perdón. Pablo nos recuerda que nuestra aceptación de Jesús como la verdadera fuente de nuestra vida y el alimento de nuestras almas produce una transformación total en nosotros. (Ef. 4:17, 20-24)

Jesús está ofreciendo a la multitud el Pan del Cielo, el Pan que los alimenta para la vida eterna. Él mismo dijo: "Yo soy el pan de vida. El que viene a mí nunca tendrá hambre; el que cree en mí nunca tendrá sed". (Juan 6:35) Tenemos hambre de cien cosas, pero hay un hambre más, un hambre más profunda, que subraya todas nuestras otras hambres; y es el hambre del Pan de la Vida Eterna, que es el hambre de Dios.

Este pan de vida es la Santa Eucaristía. La Eucaristía es la fuente y el manantial de todas las gracias que brotan de ella. La Iglesia afirma que la Eucaristía es el corazón de todas las celebraciones litúrgicas. Nos nutrimos al partir la Palabra de Dios y al partir el pan. De ambas fuentes recibimos el alimento espiritual. "De la liturgia, por tanto, y especialmente de la Eucaristía, la gracia se derrama sobre nosotros como de una fuente, y la santificación de los hombres en Cristo y la glorificación de Dios a la que se dirigen todas las demás actividades de la Iglesia, como hacia su fin, se alcanzan con la máxima eficacia." (Sacrosanctum Concilium n° 10)

The Gospel tells us “This is my beloved Son. Listen to him.” By “listening” we are able to live the gospel. Gospel living is something so simple as taking the time to listen to those who need to spill out their hearts when seeking help.

Through your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you enable the members of the Society to become a “listening heart” to the hungry, the homeless, and the struggling poor.

Did you know?

Find out what your children are watching

With movie theaters reopening across the country, now is a great time to add another website to your collection of parenting resources: Catholic News Services' staff reviews movies from a uniquely Catholic perspective, noting things like nudity, swearing, and other problematic themes that have become mainstream in ratings like PG and PG-13. Parents can vet movies their children are planning to see or may encounter at friends' houses. Talk to your children about what they should do if a friend wants to see a questionable movie; and why you want them to avoid particular films. For movie reviews, visit catholicnews.com/movie-reviews/.

¿Sabias Que ?

Descubra lo que ven sus hijos

Con la reapertura de las salas de cine en todo el país, ahora es un buen momento para agregar otro sitio web a su colección de recursos para padres de familia: las reseñas de películas por parte del personal de Catholic News Services desde una perspectiva exclusivamente católica, señalando aspectos como desnudez, malas palabras y otros temas problemáticos que se han convertido en la corriente principal en clasificaciones de películas como PG (con supervisión de adultos) y PG-13 (mayor advertencia para los padres de familia; pueden ser inapropiadas para menores de 13 años). Los padres de familia pueden vetar las películas que sus hijos planean ver o que puedan ver en las casas de sus amigos. Hable con sus hijos sobre lo que deben hacer si un amigo quiere ver una película cuestionable y por qué quiere que eviten ciertas películas en particular. Para reseñas de películas, visite catholicnews.com/movie-reviews/.
