TIMES OF REFRESHING

Fr. Ricky V. Ordóñez

What “unclean spirits” do we have in us? The Gospel this Sunday is a most interesting one – perhaps it is because we never think that we have “unclean spirits” in us. Heaven forbid! However, if we search our heart of hearts, we will find that there are quite a few of these that we need to render to the Lord for a permanent removal. Consider envy, doubt, impatience, lack of perseverance, laziness, jealousy, bitterness, arrogance, pride and the list simply continues. Sadly, since we do not recognize these as “unclean spirits”, these remain in our hearts and “rears its ugly head” in our lives.

How do we deal with it? First of all, let us admit to ourselves that we have this problem. As has been said constantly, a solution will only be possible if we admit that it is something that must be dealt with. Secondly, total honesty in trying to figure out what it is that needs to be brought to the surface. Thirdly, allow the “LIGHT OF CHRIST” to illumine our minds and eagerly seek a solution. Fourthly, persevere in battling through until the “enemies” are vanquished. Remember, “If God is with us, who can be against us?”

“Sinulog sa Tucson ’24” – Feast of the Holy Child Celebrations a rousing success! I would like to express my gratitude to all those who made our celebration a reality. Through the spirit of volunteerism, our Worship Choir (singing every Sunday at 11am) teamed up with members of the Teachers for Mary Choir (singing every Saturday at 5:30pm) providing the music during the mass, dance offerings at the mass processional and a full blown presentation of songs and dances during the Potluck. There was food galore brought in by many people and service provided by our Knights of Columbus who also began the mass with an Honor Guard. Fr. Emmanuel Adams concelebrated with me and Deacon Tom and Deacon Adel (serving at St. Christopher’s in Marana) served.

Devotion to the Holy Child (Santo Niño) Seeing my personal statue of the Santo Niño enshrined at our church brought so many memories. When I received my First Holy Communion, I was gifted with a small statue of the Sleeping Holy Child by a Great grandaunt which I would consider as one of my most treasured possessions. I would pray with it and always be reminded how Jesus loves me. Looking back, this was where my “love affair” with God truly began. I would encourage parents to help their children have a devotion to the Infant Jesus with whom they would easily be able to relate.
