Saint's Peter and Paul St. Vincent de Paul

Sometimes the news is so discouraging that we might feel powerless to help make a difference in this world. Think local. Think small. Every week, members of Saints Peter & Paul's St. Vincent de Paul group help people in our parish and neighborhood to stay in their homes, feed their families, keep the lights on and find work. Members gather every Monday evening for about an hour to pray, listen to and discuss scripture, discuss how we helped people the previous week and schedule home visits for the week ahead. We would love to have you join us. We're a friendly group and our meetings offer hope and laughter. Curious? Have questions? Please call the office (520-327-6015) and a member will contact you.

TIMES OF REFRESHING
Fr. Ricky V. Ordóñez

“Blessed are the poor in spirit...!” What did Jesus mean by this? Simply put, we should realize how our spirits are totally dependent on HIM if we aim to pursue the “Kingdom of Heaven” (read: Eternal Life). People who put more emphasis on their “riches” – be it in material possessions, worldly intelligence, power and authority – are more likely to miss the point. Why? Until such time reality sets in as to who, indeed, wields true POWER, many costly mistakes or bad decisions have been made causing much grief and disasters. Those who recognize early enough that a life lived with an intense and obedient relationship with God will have a deeper understanding of situations giving them the courage to face adversities resulting in having the ability to make the right decisions.

I’d rather be a “fool” for the Lord! In the days of the Apostle Paul, many Christians suffered ridicule from the Corinthians, Romans and the Jews who called them “fools” as they professed their faith in Jesus Christ. Indeed, they started to practice compassion, fairness, gentleness, etc. traits that the others perceived as weakness. In response, the new converts to Christianity proclaimed that they would much rather be a “fool” for Christ than to be “wise” according to the standards of the world. Isn’t this the same thing that we go through today? Many Christians today suffer the ridicule of following the teachings of Jesus Christ by being honest, kind, fair, compassionate, etc. Not only are we called “fools”, we are also labeled as being “old fashioned, outdated, naïve, etc.” Knowing what lies ahead, I have decided to make this proclamation, “I am a FOOL for Christ!”

Blessing of Throats! On Tuesday, February 3, 2026, is the memorial to St. Blaise, Bishop and Martyr. We will be blessing throats after mass. St. Blaise lived in the 4th century and was attributed to have saved the life of a boy who swallowed a fishbone. Since then, tradition has it that people would have their throats blessed and ask for his intercession for healing. As we have always done, we will also be blessing the throats of all of our school students and staff.

Healing Mass for the sick on February 11 the Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes! Our Lady of Lourdes is the Patroness of the Sick. Since the Blessed Mother appeared to St. Bernadette Soubirous in Lourdes, France in 1858, millions have gone on pilgrimage and many are medically proven to have received miraculous healings. On Wednesday, February 11, we will have a special healing mass at 5:30pm. Many years ago, I was given a first class relic of St. Bernadette Soubirous (a piece of her bone) which will be exposed during the mass for veneration. Let us ask St. Bernadette for her intercession for healing of all diseases.

Religious Articles from the Holy Land! Once a year, we allow our brothers from the Holy Land to offer hand carved Olive wood statues and crucifixes, rosaries and other religious articles as our assistance to the Christians who steadfastly remain in the area surrounding Bethlehem. It is heartbreaking to know that many of them have left the Holy Land as they are being eased out.
