Nehemiah 8:10

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time Rejoicing in the Lord

In the first reading, Ezra gets a strange reaction from the people to whom he reads the book of the law. First they lie down, with faces to the ground, and then they all are weeping. Remember the background of this reading. The people of Israel had returned from exile and needed to become a unified nation. Most had never heard the laws, so when they learned what was expected of them and realized how much of the Law they had broken, they wept from shame. Many probably didn't know that they had been breaking the law. Others might have been overwhelmed with all the requirements of the law.

Ezra and Nehemiah console the people by reminding them that their return makes this a day "holy to the LORD" (Nehemiah 8:10). He adds that they would draw strength from "rejoicing in the LORD." That may be good advice for us also.

We might find ourselves so trapped in sin that we think we could never be forgiven. We need to remember that Jesus loved sinners so much that he gave his life on the cross to free us from sin. No sin can be so bad that God's love cannot forgive it. In other words, God's forgiveness is only limited by our failure to ask for it. As the psalms say, God's mercy endures forever. In fact, the more I have to repent, the more God wants to forgive. So we can rejoice in the Lord's forgiveness and the Spirit will give us the strength to change our lives.

And what about those who find the law overwhelming? That usually means a lack of faith in God's willingness to help us or in our ability to do the best we can to live as Christians. It can also be because we have forgotten Jesus' saying that all of God's laws are contained in the command to love God and love our neighbor as we love ourselves. The more we come to accept God's presence in our lives and see God in others, the easier it becomes to keep the law of love.

St. Vincent De Paul Society:

Third Sunday in Ordinary time

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus reads the words of scripture: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor."

In the month of January, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to assist families, providing food, and money for utility and rent bills, etc.

Thank You!

St. Louis Review 2022

The St. Louis Review is your faith resource access to local, national and international news. If you are not a parish subscriber, contact the parish office to be added for $35 a year or make your request known by using your STL Review envelope or on online giving to receive the St. Louis Review in your home.

If you are a current parish subscriber, consider a parish contribution of $35 today! With the parish subscription you have print and online access because of your parish contributions.

Stewardship - Community Outreach:

This year we will again be allowed to bring homemade desserts. We know this was a favorite of many people in the past, so if you like to bake.. we can help you with that. ☺

Also for this year, we are looking for a volunteer who would like to come to each event for a short time, snap some pictures, and then do the bulletin/website update each month. Let us know if you have this skill and are willing to share it.

As always, there is no age requirement for this service event, as we have jobs for kindergarteners all the way to senior citizens.

And finally, should you have any blankets or clothing that you are no longer in need of, let us know. Tables are set up in the back of the hall, where we serve dinner, for the patrons to browse and take items they may need. Items like men's pants, t-shirts, sweatshirts, hats, gloves, and blankets are in most need.

The Signup Links are below or can be found on parish website at www.stsimonchurch.org/Ministries/Social/StewardshipOutreach & Council.

WHY IS IT
A man wakes up after sleeping under an ADVERTISED blanket on an ADVERTISED mattress and pulls off ADVERTISED pajamas bathes in an ADVERTISED shower shaves with an ADVERTISED razor brushes his teeth with ADVERTISED toothpaste washes with ADVERTISED soap puts on ADVERTISED clothes drinks a cup of ADVERTISED coffee drives to work
In an ADVERTISED car and then refuses to ADVERTISE
believing it doesn't pay.
Later if business is poor
he ADVERTISES it for sale.
WHY IS IT?
