Message from Fr. Brad

Dear Parishioners,

A reminder about the holy day of obligation this week on Tuesday, November 1st, the great feast of All Saints. Our Mass schedule for that day is 6:30am, 8am, and 7pm.

A reminder about our parish Mass of Remembrance, scheduled for Saturday, November 5th, at 10am. All of the families who have buried a love one from our parish within the past year will be invited to this Mass. During this celebration, we will prayerfully read through the list of all the names of "those who have gone before us, marked with the sign of faith." Please feel free to join us!

And finally, this is the last call to register for one of the two parish listening sessions here at St. Simon concerning the All Things New strategic planning process for the Archdiocese of St. Louis. Our parish listening sessions are scheduled for Tuesday, November 1st and Thursday, November 3rd; both sessions will be in the gym, and both sessions will begin at 6pm. PLEASE REGISTER FOR ONLY ONE LISTENING SESSION, as the same information will be provided at both. The link to register for these sessions can be found on our parish website, stsimonchurch.org. If you do not have access to the internet, please call the parish office, let us know which listening session you wish to attend, and we will get you registered. I am looking forward to seeing as many of our parishioners as possible at these listening sessions!

Have a healthy and holy week!

St. Simon the Apostle pray for us!

Sincerely,
Fr. Brad

#STSIMONSTRONG!

Rest in Peace

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Louise Curran, mother of Mark (Judith) Curran, and Matt Zahn, husband of Susie.

May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed Rest In Peace.

ALL THINGS NEW STEADFAST IN FAITH • FORWARD IN HOPE

Listening Sessions

November 2022

St. Simon will host 2 listening sessions for All Things New, on November 1st and 3rd, from 6-8pm in our gym. At each listening session, you'll get to see the draft models for our planning area and offer feedback on the proposed configurations.

Parishioners will need to register online to attend a listening session, and can do so by going to:

https://allthingsnew.archstl.org/Ways-to-Engage/Listening-Sessions (link is also on our website home page) Or using this QR code with phone.

If you are unable to attend in person, the models will be made public on the All Things New website once all sessions are completed, and there will be an online survey to get your feedback on the models, which will remain open through December 31, 2022. (Please note: each St. Simon's listening session will present identical information, so we ask you to please register for 1 session only, to allow as many parishioners to attend as possible. Registration will close when capacity for the room is reached).

In anticipation of our listening sessions, the archdiocese has compiled "Parish Workbooks" for each parish in our archdiocese, which contains census, sacramental, educational, and financial data for our planning area and parish. We encourage you to read through the workbook before attending the listening sessions. St Simon's Parish Workbook can be viewed by clicking on the link on our website home page.

Final decisions will be announced by Archbishop Rozanski on Pentecost Sunday, May 28, 2023.

St. Vincent De Paul Society:

Thirty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

In the Gospel today, Zacchaeus accepts our Lord joyfully; and the sign of his acceptance is his open house and his resolution to give half of his goods to the poor.

Through your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you also show your acceptance of our Lord by joyfully sharing your goods with your neighbor who is hungry, hopeless, alone and frightened.

Please remember to have your name and phone number on the back of the portrait in order to assist us in returning the pictures.

If you have any questions please call Rick Eschelbach at 314-541-5304.

Women of St. Simon join us for:
Advent by Candlelight
St. Simon the Apostle Catholic Church
Lower Church Hall
Sunday, December 4, 2022
6:00-8:30 pm

"Have a Mary Christmas"

Who is Invited?

The event is offered to ladies, high-school age and older. You do not need to be a member of St. Simon the Apostle to attend. Take the opportunity to invite friends or family and gather a table. Because of limited seating, reservations are required.

What is this event?

Advent by Candlelight is a special event for women to set aside the hustle and bustle of holiday preparations and focus their minds and hearts on the birth of Christ. This evening includes uplifting scripture readings, music and reflections from our speaker. This is a free event, however, a goodwill offering at the end of the evening will be accepted.

How does it work?

In an atmosphere lit only by candlelight, as a hostess, you will set a banquet table (8 seats, including your place). You may do this on your own or share the responsibility with a friend. You, as the hostess, may invite ladies to sit at your table, or allow the seats to be filled via the sign-up process. You may bring fancy dinnerware, wine glasses, and silverware making it elegant, or keeping it simple with paper products. If you desire, your guests can bring part of the meal of their choice (appetizers, entrée, and/or dessert) or you can provide the entire meal for those at your table. There is no requirement to be a hostess, or you can just sign up to be included in a table with open spaces.

For Reservations, Hostess Guidelines, or information, contact:
Sue Quante, 314-920-8495

Join us for this day of reflection focusing on a few Gospel characters whose names we will never know—whether it's the boy with the loaves and fishes, the woman with the hemorrhage, or the 'good thief', there are several individuals who interact personally with Jesus and have a significant impact on his ministry—even though we cannot name them. WHY IS IT

A man wakes up after sleeping under an ADVERTISED blanket on an ADVERTISED mattress and pulls off ADVERTISED pajamas bathes in an ADVERTISED shower shaves with an ADVERTISED razor brushes his teeth with ADVERTISED toothpaste washes with ADVERTISED soap puts on ADVERTISED clothes drinks a cup of ADVERTISED coffee drives to work in an ADVERTISED car and then . . . .
refuses to ADVERTISE
believing it doesn't pay.
Later if business is poor
he ADVERTISES it for sale.
