ST. ANTHONY OF PADUA CATHOLIC CHURCH

FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Dear Friends of Saint Anthony,

"Since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us rid ourselves of every burden and sin that clings to us, and persevere in running the race that lies before us, while keeping our eyes fixed on Jesus, the leader and perfecter of faith."

The great cloud of witnesses surely includes "Ahaz, Isaiah, Mary and Joseph," in different ways, and at different times. To be human, literally, means "to look up" to the One, who is both our origin and destiny. To be both human, and fallen, like Ahaz, is to refuse to look, to refuse to ask, and in Ahaz's phrase "I will not tempt the Lord!" By grace, Isaiah was not afraid to look up and ask, and encouraged Ahaz to do the same, for he was a prophet, or a seer of reality.

Mary is the witness supreme to the fact that "nothing is impossible for God," for her "fiat" allowed Isaiah's prophecy to be fulfilled in her flesh in a way that neither he nor Ahaz could have guessed. And Joseph is also a witness to love of a divine kind because he is asked to, and believed both that the child Mary is carrying is conceived by the Holy Spirit, and that he, Joseph, is to name him Jesus, "because he will save his people from their sins."

Now that it is our turn, let us not be like Ahaz, but like Mary and Joseph, and "let the Lord enter our lives, for he is the King of Glory." Let us accept our calling to be part of the "One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church," set apart for the proclamation of Jesus Christ rescuing us from our slavery to sin by his resurrection from the dead. "God's vision still has its time, presses on to fulfillment, and will not disappoint!" Let us pray!

Peace,
Fr. Fred
