All proceeds will continue to be used for the Liturgical needs of the parish.

Those who wish to donate baked goods please bring your items to the Parish Center before each Mass.

All-loving God, we give you thanks and praise for mothers young and old.

We pray for young mothers, who give life and tend to our every need. May they be blessed with patience and tenderness to care for their families and themselves with great joy.

We pray for our own mothers who have nurtured and cared for us. May they continue to guide us in strong and gentle ways.

We remember and pray for mothers who are separated from their children because of war, poverty, or conflict. May they feel the loving embrace of our God who wipes every tear away.

We pray for women who are not mothers but still love and shape us with motherly care and compassion.

We remember and pray for mothers, grandmothers, and great-grandmothers who are no longer with us but who nourished us with their love and will live forever in our hearts and memories. Amen.

A Prayer during the Easter Season

Lord Jesus,
We rejoice with you during this Easter Season—these fifty glorious days following your rising from the grave.
We are forever proud to call you our Savior, Redeemer and our divine brother who conquered sin and death.
We thank you, Lord, during this great paschal season of grace and glory, to joyfully celebrate your lasting victory and precious pledge for eternal life. Amen

“They laid hands on them and they received the Holy Spirit” (Acts 8:17)

Philip was having great success in Samaria.
As the result of his preaching and ministry, many Samaritans came to believe in the Lord. Not only that, but unclean spirits were being routed and people were being healed of all kinds of afflictions. Crowds of people were being baptized into Jesus’ death and resurrection and were experiencing the joy of their redemption.

So why did the apostles in Jerusalem even bother to send Peter and John to Samaria? What more could the people possibly need?

The Holy Spirit, that’s what! Just as he had made all the difference for the apostles on the day of Pentecost, so did he make all the difference for the people of Samaria—and for us.

What is that difference? Here are some examples.

It is clearly amazing to witness a miraculous healing as the Samaritans did—or even to receive one yourself as some of the Samaritans did. But when the Spirit comes to dwell in you, he can bring healing to your wounded memories and free you from lifelong patterns of sin and guilt and shame.

It’s a good thing to be able to memorize prayers or passages from Scripture. But it’s even more wonderful to have the Spirit alive in you, breathing new life and joy into your heart through these prayers and passages and giving you new insights into his love.

It’s one thing to muster what strength you have to fight sin, but it’s another thing altogether to experience the indwelling Spirit giving you his own grace to say no to temptation and keeping your faith alive in times of difficulty.

The truth is, we need the Holy Spirit to renew our minds, to fill our hearts, and to keep us connected to Jesus.

Pentecost is just two weeks away. What do you need the Holy Spirit to do in you?
